The Standard.
Continuing, she says, "He bought one of the first clocks (there were six of them) that came to town. It was one of the weight clocks—wound every night. He came there in 1870, and when I left in 1902 the clock was still in use. He took up 100 acres on the 10th concession of Glenelg. I continued to Lve there until his death 1912, so both Markdale and old Glenelg are very dear to me.

"Father bought the farm, then went elg are very dear to me.

"Father bought the farm, then went to a settled community around innisville and worked for $11 a month and board for six years to pay for his home. He paid $600 for it. You can see he didn't spend much money on himself those six years. I have often heard him tell of having cloth woven and pulled for a pair of trousers, which some neighbor made for him, and they would wear for years.

"He said one time he needed a pair

him, and they would wear for years.

"He said one time he needed a pair of mittens and he took some yarn to a woman and asked her to knit him a pair. She told him she would if he would get the vegetables, potatoes, etc. ready for dinner. He said when dinner was ready his mittens were ready to wear. I can knit fast but not that fast.

"I am 63 now and do more work than a lot of people of 40."

The Markdale Standard

Volume 69; Number 51

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 25, 1949

Canada $2.00, U.S.A. $2.50 - In Advance

W. E. Harris Still Behind Present Liberal Leader

"Farquhar Oliver is still the leader, and I am still 100 per cent. behind him," Walter E. Harris, M.P.-elect for Grey-Bruce, told The Standard on Monday.

Mr. Harris, parliamentary assistant to Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, was queried about a rumor from Ottawa that he would probably be the next leader of the Liberal party in Ontario. Mr. Harris said he had received no official intimation that he was being considered as the provincial Liberal leader. eral leader.

"At the convention two years ago last May, I declined to be a candidate for the leadership and gave my support to Mr. Oliver," said Mr. Harris.

At his home at Priceville, Mr. Oliver, M.P.P. for South Grey and present provincial Liberal leader, replied to a daily press query about the Ottawa rumor with "No comment."

meers surely knew how they got then homes.

"My namesake, Mrs. William Williamson, lived about a mile farther from town." She was a lowland Scotch woman. She would take her basket of butter and eggs, and walk that more than six miles to Markdale and trade her butter and eggs for tea. sugar, etc. She needed to walk home and be there in time to prepare the noon meal. Somehow, they thought nothing of it. She lived to be. 83, my father 84. The hardships didn't seem to hurt them. During the Centennial, Mr. Piper assisted Hugh Mercer in the preparation and presentation of the water sports program. A couple of years ago, he took an active part in the safety program of the Red Cross at the Community Swimming Pool.

For a number of years, he played on the Markdale team in the Centre Grey Hockey League, usually left wing or defense. He was also a mem-ber of the league executive. While

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baker of Moose Jaw, Sask., who are visiting at the home of Mrs. Baker's mother, Mrs. Samuel Howey, in Owen Sound, marked a happy event on Saturday, their silver wedding day, with a family dinner party at Mrs. Howey's home. There were 25 guests, including Miss Marion Baker, their only child, a nurse-in-training at Moose Jaw General Hospital. Ten guests at the wedding 25 years ago.

Mrs. Baker was Pearl Howey Samuel West Mrs. Howey's Samuel West Mrs. Howey In Marion Baker, their only child, a nurse-in-training at Moose Jaw General Hospital. Ten guests at this family dinner had been guests at the wedding 25 years ago.

Mrs. Baker was Pearl Howey, daughter of Mrs. Howey and the late Samuel Howey, and she was born in Winnipeg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker. They were married at the bride's home in Holland Township, Rev. Mr. Smalley officiating. They have lived since then in Moose Jaw.

Mrs. B. Geddes and Mrs. M. McGaffen of Toronto have returned after spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elliott.

SISIET IN WESI

Carman, Man.—The funeral service for Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Morrison, Mrs. Garnan Cemeter with burial in the Carman Cemeter with burial in the C

APPRECIATES GATES

APPRECIATES GATES

Mrs. Gordon Wiley of Berkeley writes: "Since we've all had time to look back on the Centennial, which cost some one a big effort, the one lasting, and to me the most important part of it for years to come, is the Centennial Gates. They are truly lovely, and they are something every town hasn't got."

Harkaway W.A. Meets With Mrs. Jack Smith

The August meeting of the Harkaway W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Smith. The meeting was opened by the leader, Mrs. Charles Thompson, with the theme song, "Breathe on Me, Breath of God." A passage was read from St. Luke, and a prayer was offered by Mrs. Thompson son.

The roll call was answered by 10 members and nine visitors. A reading was given by Mrs. Ira Madill, "It's Institute Day," also one by Mrs. Goudy, "Listen, I'll Tell You a Secret." Mrs. Harry Hawken sang a solo, "Where We Never Grow Old." Misses Norma, Joy, and Resa Strudwick sang several numbers.

ready to wear. I can knit fast but not that fast.

"His wife died when their son was six years old, and the year before he married my mother, he and Jim (the boy) were alone. One afternoon in the fall of the year, the boy had cooked a kettle of turnips for his pig and set it under a bench by the window. He was watching some people drive by, and in his excitement he got off the bench, one foot going into the kettle. His father attended to him, and the next day he took him to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Donnelly, and left him there while he went to see Dr. Sproule.

"The Donnelly's lived on what was later the Sam Virght farm. I don't know who lives on it now; it was about the Sam Virght farm. I don't know who lives on it now; it was about the Sam Virght farm. I don't know who lives on his back. A sack of sugar was mothing for him to carry when it was needed. Those pioneers surely knew how they, got their homes."

"Mis wife died when their son was six years old, and the year before and Jim (the boy) were alone. One afternoon in the fall of the year, the boy had tooked a kettle of turnips for his pig and set it under a bench by the window. He was watching some people drive by, and in his excitement."

Laverne Piper Leaves

For Islington Position

Laverne Piper Leaves

For Islington Position

Laverne Piper, an employee of the Markdale and ther carried his supplies on what was alfer the sam Virght farm. I don't know who lives on it now; it was about five and a half miles from Markdale, and father carried his supplies on his back. A sack of sugar was mothing for him to carry when it was needed. Those pioneers surely knew how they, got their homes."

"Mis wife died when their son was about five and a half will be held at the home of Markdale and there can be not the order of the begins his new duties parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Piper has been in those days were just trails or paths. On September 1st.

Mr. Piper has been actively interseted in the community since he came to have been deaded. Those pioneers surely knew ho time the organist in the Presbyterian Church here.

Mr. Buskin is the youngest of three brothers. John of Euphrasia and William of Guelph are now deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Buskin enjoyed the event, meeting many old friends and visiting nicees and their families in the surrounding community.

A nicee of Mr. Buskin, Mrs. Clara Wiley of Toronto, and a former resident in town, was also among the Centennial visitors and enjoyed the homecoming.

Mr. Buskin will be 80 years old on November 13, 1950, although he has the appearance of a man of 60. His wife was formerly Margaret Duncan, a sister of Joseph Duncan of Flesherton, and a daughter of one of Artemesia's pioneer families. Mr. and Mrs. Buskin celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary last St. Valentine's Day. For many a Christmas dinner, they went to Mr. Buskin's parental home after they came to Markdale.

Mrs. Gordon Wiley (Eva) of Berke-

BROTHER PASSES

W. A. Dickie received word of the passing of his brother, John Dickie, on Friday at Downing, Wis. Mr. Dickie, in his 79th year, was born at Cherry Grove. He left this district to go West in 1900, and he returned for a visit in 1918. He is survived by his wife.

Manager Here For New Markdale Hydro Area

Don Magee, formerly assistant manager at Uxbridge for the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission. has arrived in Markdale to become the manager of the new area here, which is now in the formative stage. The new area, to be known as the Markdale Area, will be officially set up on November 1st.

We will be officially set up on November 1st.

November 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Magee plan to move to Markdale. At present, Mrs. Magee, the former Muriel Henderson, is staying in Clarksburg with her mother, Mrs. B. Henderson. Mr. Magee has been with the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission since 1931. A native of Bracebridge, he served for four years during the Second Great War with the R.C.A.F. with the rank of sergeant, as an electrical instructor. Mr. and Mrs. Magee are members of the Anglican Church.

The former operating and maintan.

The former operating and mainten-The former operating and maintenance offices over the post office, in the building owned by T. H. Reburn, are being remodelled in preparation for use when the area is set up. This office, Mr. Magee told The Standard, will be in charge of the lines in the area, and the consumers will use it for the payment of accounts also for their inquiries about hydro service.

The new area will extend to near

The new area will extend to near Woodford, taking in the Meaford area, and it will go to the oiutskirts of Collingwood. It is to take in a strip across the mountain, including Heathcote, Gibraltar, Clarksburg, etc. On the south it will go to about four miles north of Dundalk, and the western boundary will be west of Priceville, extending north to a point between Berkeley and Chatsworth.

The present staff of about 10 will be

The present staff of about 10 will be enlarged, and Mr. Magee said the office will have a staff of four or five. The new lines to be built in the area will be in charge of this office, and the staff will be increased as the number of customers grows.

Mr. and Mrs. Borinsky To Live In Toronto

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Borinsky are planning to leave Markdale at the end of September to reside in Toronto. In 1948, Mr. Borinsky sold the Markdale Creamery to its present owners, and recently he sold his house to Roland Irwin. Mr. and Mrs. Borinsky are arranging to hold an auction sale in the near future of their household furniture, electrical appliances, and other effects.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Borinsky have been prominent residents of Markdale. Mr. Borinsky came here 23 years ago. He went into the creamery business in 1926. In 1932, he opened a plant in Dundalk, and in 1939 he opened another one in Flesherton. The cold storage plant in Markdale was built in 1940.

schools and were active in young peo-ple's circles while they lived here.

Berkeley Goes Into W.O.A.A. Playdowns

In the Sullivan League softball semi-finals. Flesherton eliminated In the Sullivan League softoali semi-finals. Flesherton eliminated Berkeley on Thursday, at Berkeley, the score being 16-10. Flesherton had previously defeated Berkeley at Flesherton by a score of 9-8.

Flesherton now meets Keady for the championship in a three out of five series.

The Sullivan League is affiliated with the W.O.A.A. and is composed of two series, "B' and "C". As Berkeley had won the "C" group, they will now continue in the W.O.A.A. playdowns. continue in the W.O.A.A. playdowns, and it is expected the first round will be against Cargill, during this week. The winner of the "B" group (Keady or Flesherton) will continue into the W.O.A.A. "B" series playdowns.

Address On Public Relations At Rocklyn W.I.

(From our own correspondent)
Rocklyn—The Rocklyn Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Lawson Sewell on Wednesday evening last, with Mrs. A. McVittie presiding. The roll call was answered by naming a way to boost the community. Miss Vina Ufland of Meaford, who is a valued member of The Meaford Express staff, gave a fine address on public relations, which was much appreciated. The program included a paper on "Publicity," prepared by Mrs. S. Falls, who also conducted a song period and aflower contest. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Sewell, assisted by Mrs. C. Miller and Mrs. E. Cook.

meetings."
Friends and neighbors of Riverdale presented the couple with a miscellancous shower. "On many occasions, Reatice, you have been an active friends nating such celebrations as this, and tonight we are glad to spend guest. We trust that you shall spend many happy years together." the address being signed on behalf of "your friends, neighbors, and former school mates." by Luella Hutchinson, Marion Hutchinson, Betty Fry, Mabel Bowen, and Jean Rodman.

Mrs. John Hockley of Orangeville and daughter, Mrs. Gilliland, of Toronto spent the past week with Mrs. Anna Eagles.

WED 25 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Pickles of Bar-rie, formerly of Markdale, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last week, when friends arranged a surprise party in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hannah were guests.

ly 400 attended the rally.

Mrs. George L. Sharpe of Durham was elected president, as Mrs. Russell Freeman of Markdale completed her two years in office. The election was conducted by Miss Anna P. Lewis, superintendent of the Women's Institute Branch of the Department of Agriculture, who was present throughout the day, as was Mrs. J. R. Futcher of St. Thomas, Ontario president of the Women's Institutes.

Baskets of heautiful summer flow.

Baskets of beautiful summer flowers decorated St. John's Anglican Church, as the morning session opened with Mrs. Russell Freeman of R.R. 4, Markdale, presiding.

Mrs. George L. Sharpe of Durham onducted a brief memorial service conoring departed members. Reeve J. L. Kuhl of Sullivan Township welcomed the large gathering of Institute members, and Mrs. W. H. Clugston, W.I. president of Centre Grey, replied.

W.I. president of Centre Grey, replied.

Mrs. S. Falls, representative of Centre Grey, and Mrs. Hubert Danard of West Grey gave short addresses.

Mrs. W. A. Davidson of Chatsworth reported 19 branches in South Grey and reminded the branches of that district that they will attend the area conference in Guelph in September this year for the first time. Mrs. A. Bowen of Markdale reported 20 branches in Centre Grey.

Miss Anna P. Lewis conducted the branches in Centre Grey.

Miss Anna P. Lewis conducted the election of officers, who are: President, Mrs. George L. Sharpe of Durham; first vice-president, Mrs. Ralph Richards of Sunny Valley: Seconvice-president, Mrs. Lorne Snider, R. R. 2. Woodford: third vice-president, Mrs. Lorne Snider, R. J. M. Kerr, Heathcote; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. C. Taylor, Hanover; radio committee, Mrs. Gordon McPhatter, North Grey: Mrs. Greyon, Knott, Centre Grey: Mrs. G. Harvey, West Grey: Miss Margaret McGirr, South Grey. The executive was empowered to prepare and submit by laws for the conduct of the county rally.

years ago. He went into the creamery business in 1926. In 1932, he opened a plant in Dundalk, and in 1939 he opened another one in Flesherton. The cold storage plant in Markdale was built in 1940.

When Mr. Borinsky took over the local creamery, it was making less than 100,000 pounds of butter a year. He increased this to 750,000 pounds a year, with proportionate increases at Dundalk and Flesherton.

Mr. Borinsky has been active in community work. He served for five years on the council of Markdale, during which time he was an active worker in the successful efforts to have the streets paved. He is a past president of the Markdale Rotary Club, and he served the club for five years as its treasurer. Mr. Borinsky gave the community the land for the Community. Swimming Pool Park.

Until recently, Mrs. Borinsky has been an active worker in community organizations also. Lately, her health has not permitted her to take as much interest as she did formerly.

Their two children, Sidney and Shirley, who are both married and living in Toronto, were educated in the local schools and were active in young people's circles while they lived here. remarks. referred to the fine work accomplished by Mrs. E. C. Taylor, the party and wishes to complished by Mrs. E. C. Taylor, the secretary-treasurer, and to the sympathy felt for her in the death of her husband, which had prevented hardy, we of all post, and wished to the secretary-treasurer, and to the sympathy felt for her in the death of her husband, which had prevented happy use of all Institute benefits.

By Neighbors And Friends of Synchology, and her description of her trip in the spring to Victoria, B.C., and to Mrs. McClung sent word to the Grey County Institutes that she would like to present a complete set of autographed copies of her books to the young couple was read by Mrs. Brown.

On Friday, a pleasant evening was spent at the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to honor Mr. and Mrs. Acades son, who were recently married. During the evening, an address extending congratulations and good wishes to the young couple was read by Mrs. James Brown.

On Friday, a pleasant evening was pleasant evening was the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to honor Mr. and Mrs. Alex-Bazil Acheson, who were recently married. During the evening, an address extending congratulations and good wishes to the young couple was read by Mrs. Brown. and Ross Bennett presented the bride and groom with a miscellant cous shower. Included with the gifts was an electric table lamp from the charivari gang. Mr. and Mrs. Acheson expressed their sincere thanks for the lovely gifts.

The evening was enjoyably spent of the friends and neighbors assembled to the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to the Cheeseville School when friends and neighbors assembled to the Ch

"It's what you do with what you've got," Mrs. Freeman said as she urged happy use of all Institute benefits.

T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale, agricultural representative, offered congratulations on the success of the raily and brought greetings from the Department of Agriculture.

Gifts Presented to Couple Wed Recently

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Ward were much feted prior to and following their recent marriage. Mrs. Ward is the former Reatice Harvey, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Harvey, ed to Mrs. Ward by the members of ed to Mrs. Ward by the members of A cream and sugar set was present-Lady Sproule, L.O.B.A. An accompanying address, signed by Sisters Edith Irwin and Adinah E. Turner, expressed good wishes to them for a long and happy married life, and "how happy we are that you are making your home in Markdale, where you will join with us at our lodge meetings."

resented the couple with a miscel-laneous shower. "On many occasions, Reatice, you have been an active friend in aiding such celebrations as this, and tonight we are glad to spend

Superintendent To Wed

Miss Mary Carefoot, Reg.N., youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Carefoot, whose marriage to John Maxwell Bannon of Proton is to take place early in September. Miss Carefoot, a graduate of the Collingwood General and Marine Hospital. is the acting superintendent of the Centre Grey General Hospital. eral Hospital.

Markdale. Enters Finals At Thornbury Wednesday

Markdale emerged victorious from the semi-final series of the Centre Grey Baseball League with Rocklyn on Tuesday afternoon at Rocklyn. Each team had won a game, and a large crowd turned out for the decid-ing one.

Newlyweds Showered By Neighbors And Friends

The hall at Berkeley was filled on Friday evening, when friends honored Miss Marie Hamilton, daughter of Joe Hamilton, prior to her marriage at Carlsruhe on Monday to Jerome Zettler. Miss Hamilton formerly taught at the Irish Lake School.

An address of good wishes was read to Miss Hamilton by Mrs. Lloyd McFadden, and on behalf of the gathering Myra Hamilton, Reta McCurry. and Elsie Caswell presented her with a 66-piece dinner set, a tri-lite lamp, and a lace table cloth. Miss Hamilton suitably expressed her appreciation for the lovely gifts and the accompanying good wishes.

Wiggins' Orchestra played for a dance program, and refreshments were enjoyed.

WODEHOUSE

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wiley and Della were Mr. and Mrs. Ryerson Picot and little son of Collingwood, Mr. and Mrs. Gladwyn Wiley and daughters of Priceville. Mr. and Mrs. F. Hodgkinson and sons of Rocklyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Merton Wiley and Larry of Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harbottle and Mrs. Hutchinson of Vandeleur visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl. McCann.

I Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl. McCann.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gordon and family of Hamilton are holidaying withMr. and Mrs. Newton Smith.

Week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Willcocks were Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gilray of Vandeleur, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gilray and girls of Union, Mrs. Annie Gilray and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ward and family and friends of Camperdown, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Barons of Englehart.

RETURNS

W. J. Messenger, principal of the Markdale Public School, returned last week from London, where he was tak-ing a summer course at the University of Western Ontario.

Heavy Transport Falls Over Embankment

Jack McMurphy, aged 29, of London, Ont., and Jack Tulett, also aged 29, of London, were brought to the Centre Grey Hospital as the results of injuries received Thursday when their heavy transport truck dropped over a 30-foot embankment.

The truck blocked the CPR rail-their heavy transport truck dropped over a 30-foot embankment.

The truck blocked the C.P.R. railroad track on the branch line running between Saugeen and Walkerton. Efforts to dislodge it from the right-of-way began at dawn on Friday.

McMurphy suffered a slight concussion, scalp lacerations and shock. Tulett's injuries consisted of facial and leg lacerations and bruises and crushing on the right side of his chest. McMurphy left the hospital on Friday night, and Tulett on Sunday.

The accident occurred on Highway No. 4, between Ceylon and Priceville. Provincial Constable Harold Black of Flesherton and Provincial Constable P. M. Reid of Owen Sound investigated. It was learned that the men had come from Montreal, and the cause of the accident is believed to have been their fatigue. McMurphy was the driver.

The heavy truck, of semi-trailer type, travelling west, made the first curve at a 'checkerboard sign, but missed the second curve and plunged down the embankment.

Flesherton Club Sponsors Donkey Ball Game

Each team had won a game, and a large crowd turned out for the deciding one.

The local boys now meet Thornbury in the final series. Thornbury defeated Kimberley in two games in their semi-final series. The first game between Markdale and Thornbury will be played next Wednesday afternoon at Thornbury, at 3:30 p.m.

The score on Tuesday was 10-5 in favor of Markdale. Both teams played good ball, with few errors on efficient side. Keith Freeman pitched the nine innings for Markdale, and Mar Douglas went the route for Rocklyn. Harold Best caught for the local team, and the Rocklyn catcher was Al. Richardson. Frank Fitzsimmons, who brought the Markdale team up to the semi-finals, was on hand and warming up in case he was needed on the mound.

Markdale was strong at bat. Turney and Bannon tripled. Maurice Wiley. Rocklyn's centre fielder, took two sensational catches in one inning, lying on his back.

The mount of the decid the decid of the mount of the mount of the decid the mount of the mount of Bill Fisher, the president, conduct-Bill Fisher, the president, conducted the weekly dinner meeting of the Markdale Rotary Club in the armory on Tuesday evening. Gordon Beaton played the piano selections and led the singing of songs. Fines were collected from latecomers by the sergeant-at-arms, Alan MacMicking. A report of the annual frolic was given by the treasurer, Merv. Gould. A new member, Gordon Craig, was introduced by Art. Norris, and he was presented with the Rotary Objects and an explanation of Rotary International and its aims by Rotarian Beaton.

President Fisher led a short discus-sion on club projects for the coming season.

Masonic Ring To Laverne Piper Friday

Gathering in the armory on Friday evening, members of the Fire Departevening, memoers of the rire Department, the village council, and friends honored Laverne Piper, prior to his departure for Islington. Ed. Jefferey read an address, wishing Mr. Piper nuch success in his new position and nutch success in his new position and regretting his departure from Markdale, after which he presented him with a Masonic ring. Mr. Piper expressed his appreciation to the gathering. Songs were sung, with Mrs. Betty Wright at the piano, and reschied the second of the freshments were served.

Coming Events

W.O.A.A. SOFTBALL PLAYDOWNS, Cargill at Berkeley. Friday, August 26th, 6:30 p.m. Admission, 25c.

FALL FLING: ! Sponsored by Markdale Teen Town. Friday, August 26th. Dancing 9 to 1. Markdale Armories. Good orchestra. Admission 50c. Everybody welcome.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES. North Glenelg Baptist Church. Sunday, Aug. 28th, at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Special preacher, Rev. John W. MacDonald; also. Anniversary Evening. Monday, Aug. 29th, at 8 p.m.

REMEMBER—20th Annual Thanksgiving Day Fowl Supper, Dance and Drawing. St. John's Hall, Glenelg Centre. October 10th. Auspices. St. Joseph's Church, Markdale, and St. John's Church, Glenelg Centre.

AUCTION SALE—Having sold the Creamery business some time ago, and our residence recently. it. it necessary for us to sell our household furniture. electrical appliances, and other effects. Watch for advertisement in The Standard and the sale bills. This is a sale worth waiting for, as all the articles are of good quality and in excellent condition.—Mr. and Mrs. H. Borinsky.

Senior Members of the Walter's Falls Women's Institute

In attendance on Wednesday afternoon of last week in the Community Hall at Walter's Falls, when the Women's Institute of that community entertained the Blantyre and Goring branches were these senior members of the hostess branch, and the one remaining charter member, Mrs. R. H. Olmstead. From left to right, are Mrs. Charles Wright, Mrs. H. V. Wales, Mrs. James Holmes, Mrs. R. H. Olmstead, Mrs. John Murray, and Mrs. John Laycock.