

The Markdale Standard

VOLUME 69, NUMBER 52

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st, 1949

ESTABLISHED 1880.

TRAVERSTON

Refreshing showers fell here at midday Sunday.

September, cool and clear September, Oh! well do I remember the day when I was born;

The rime was on the pumpkin, And brown tassels on the corn.

Whack go the swatters and dead lie the flies, but they rear big families.

The Standard editor has a racer pen and a ready wit.

Tuesday next, the six-year kiddies will be trotting or wheeling along to the public schools. Dog and cat playmates will be lonesome. What about the beginners?

Eddie Melosh is reaping a rich harvest from his cedar swamp. Truckloads of poles are being shipped every few days. That swamp purchase was, and has been, a good paying investment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McNally of the hamlet paid a business visit to Owen Sound on Thursday.

Miss Dorothy Peart has been visiting with aunt and uncle, Ronnie McDonald of Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold of Westport, near Sarnia, visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hollis and family. Arnold Hollis, who has been working down there during holidays, returned home here with them.

Miss Eleanor Moorehead of Palmerston is holidaying with Miss Clara Jack.

George Sherman's threshing outfit is busy this week on the 10th concession, and is expected over on the 6th soon after.

Miss Marion Cook of Durham is spending some holidays with Miss Ruth McNally.

Arnold and Eddie Hollis were visitors with Bob and Billy Edwards on Sunday.

Chris Bluhm and Mr. Nicholson of Desboro were around on Friday, looking for good stockers.

The bulldozer, in charge of hustling bridges, was over on the 4th concession early last week. Buried big stone piles for Councillor John O'Neil, and Rob Jackson; opened a deep drain for Ray McClocklin; levelled the hill, west of the Township Hall, and widened the road; came over to the 6th concession and swept big pioneer stones of tons' weight into the adjoining creek gully, and then left a 10-rod stretch of ground ready to seed down. Made a big improvement. Then, he rustled over to the 10th concession, raised and rushed to the adjacent fences some big fellows for Marshal McNally and did good work for the Baker Bros.

Will Peart has invented and patented a dandy outfit for hoisting the boulders out of the ground.

Mrs. W. R. Jack is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bradley of Holford.

STRATHAVON

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Arthur Torritt and family in the death of a husband and father.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ramage and Hazel and Grace spent a few days last week on Manitoulin Island.

Rev. and Mrs. Smally of King visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson and took the service.

Master Harold Irwin is spending this week holidaying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McKibbin.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Howey and family and Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Dixon at Varney. Maxine Howey remaining for a week's holiday.

William Chapple and Mrs. Jones of Toronto visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. James Mustard.

John Ramage left on Wednesday to visit friends in Western Canada and the United States.

The young people held their meeting in the form of a wiener roast on Friday evening. After the business discussions and program, a social time of playing games and a lunch was spent around a pleasant campfire.

The ice cream social sponsored by the W.A. was well attended on Tuesday evening, the proceeds amounting to $61.30. The League game of soccer between Strathavon and Silcote resulted in a score of 1-0 in favor of the local boys.
