ORANGE PEKOE

WEST OF THE

CHAPTER IX When she faced the girl inside

quivered and she moved nervously

732

Caura Wheeler

Here's real fun for a little one!

shadow of Pain ...

Ontario

Virginia smiled. She was puzzled step thus far: turning Ames the wild, frontier West by rail and response to the plea of her flanc, writer, that she come to him to state the flanc armer, that she come to him to state of the state of Linca in which is state out of Linca in which the state of the st but despite herself she liked Lanya Correy. She recalled Mrs. Warden's words, that Lanya was not a bad "Fine words are often dishonest words, Lanya," she said gently.

> the heavy reply.
> "What is it, Lanya?" > Lanya said, "It's about Phil Law-"Phil-" Virginia's voice broke on the name.
> "Yes." Lanya whispered. "You.

"I'm going to be-honest," came

res. Lanya whispered. Todayaee, I love him."
"You—love him!" Her thoughts were thrown into sudden confusion. Steve Barron. Jim Randall. Andnow—Phil! "I'm not going to give him up," the dark girl said. "Not for you. I love him—and he loves me!"

quivered and she moved nervously across the room to the window, stood looking out a moment, then turned as if with a supreme effort. "Miss Ames, you're not going to like what I'm going to say," she said in a flat voice. "You won't even like the way I'll say it. I—I am no lady. I know no fine words..." "So that is what holds him here," Virginia said chokingly. "And he is afraid to tell me. I should have known!"

Lanya said simply. "He feels bound by a promise—to marry you."
Virginia stood up. She felt no anger, but only a furious desire to fight for her own. "And if I hold him to his promise?" she demanded.
"You don't believe me, do you?"
Lanya said. She picked up something from the table and held it out to Virginia. It was the cameo pin.
"You recognize this? Of course you do! Do you want to know how it eame into my possession?"

dol Do you want to know he came into my possession?"
"I recognize it," Virginia said. "It was mine. It was taken from me during the stage holdup. I—I don't care how you came by it!"

care how you came by it!"

The partly open door creaked noisily on its hinges as it swung wide. Virginia turned and saw Steve Barron standing in the doorway.

He always seemed a threat to Virginia, and now with his grim face and glittering eyes he was more than a threat. He was danger itself.

"Miss Ames may not care, Lanya-but I do. How did you come by that cameo pin?"

The girl shrank from him as he

The girl shrank from him as he came into the room, her eyes wide and full of terror. She cried in her throat. "You—heard!"

Steve Barron was before her. He reached out and seized her left wrist. "I know," he snapped. "You got that pin from Phil Lawrence—so it's he who has been stealing my money off the stayes!" money off the stages!"
"No, no!" cried Lanya.
"Don't lie to me!" Barron said in cold rage. "You ungrateful little" He broke off and suddenly Dolly's just as tall as your two-year old, and wears her cast-off clothes. Easy to sew! struck her across the mouth wit The blow flung Lanya against the A real friend for any child-this wall, then she sank down in a sob-bing heap. Steve Barron swung Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS Lanya rose to her knees. "Stevel Where are you going?"

He halted in the doorway, slowly

"No," he said. "No, you won't."

He walked from the house then and Virginia, going to the door, saw him striding toward the big, false-fronted building of his gambling place. Lanya Correy came and atood trembling at her side.

"He'll do it!" the dance hall girl cried hysterically. "He'll kill Phill"

Virginia turned quickly, fighting down fear. "Lanya, hurry to the stable and have my horse saddled. I need only five minutes to change to riding clothes!"

"Where are you going?"

"To warn Phill" Virginia flung back over her shoulder. She was already hurrying across the dusty, have come out from under the Most druggists carry DOLCIN. If yours does not, write direct to already hurrying across the dusty, sun-blasted street toward Sarah

(Continued Next Week)

By Rev. R. Barclay Warren THE PSALMS WE SING Psalms 23; 42:1-2; 90:1-2, 16-17
Golden Text: O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name with me, and let us exait riss name together. Psalm 34:3.

There could be no more fitting climax to our study of the Psalms than today's lesson. Next to John 3:16, no portion of the Scriptures is so familiar as the Shepherd Psalm. At a social gathering, a young elocutionist was requested to recite the 23rd Psalm. He consented and the condition that an axed minrecite the 23rd Psalm. He consented on the condition that an aged min-ister present would do likewise. He did it very skiffully. When he con-cluded, the group applauded. The minister then proceeded. His voice was not too steady, but his soul was not too steady, but his som was thrilled as he quoted the beau-tiful poem. When he finished, there were tear-filled eyes. The younger man arose and said, "This is the difference; I know the 23rd Psalm, but my friend knows the Shepherd." That is it! To fully appreciate this asalm you must know the Lord as

That is it! To fully appleciate this psalm, you must know the Lord as your Shepherd.

The Isalm has brought comfort to many in the hour of death. One sufferer, on hearing the words, "Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me," replied, "Yes, Jesus is with me." Those were her last words.

The 42nd Psalm portrays a soul's The 42nd Fsalm portrays a sours deep longing for God. Though experiencing much trouble, he concludes, "Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise Him, Who is the health of my countenance and my

In the 90th Psalm, we are brought to realize the loitiness and greatness of God and our own pitiful frailty. But though we are weak, we may pray, "Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us."

We trust that the study of the salars in these 31 lessons has stimpealms in these 13 lessons has stim-ulated your interest and prompted you to further research in this rich portion of God's Word.

ACROSS
1. Animal's feet
8. Spring month
(ab.)
1. English county
92. Cooking
14. Hoed
15. Man's nickname
16. Learned
17. Test
18. Constellation
90. Speech organ
17. Biblical priest

28. Chaldean C
29. Loyal
40. Equality
41. Wager
42. Other
45. Cape
46. Nothing
56. Ancient slav
52. Finial
51. Ventilated
55. Noticer's
56. Landscape
67. Gring
67. Gring
68. Football
61. Test ore
62. Poper term

peating, just as a reminder.
First, use the best vinegar you can procure; and unless it's the cider ariety, don't forget that the vinegars made today are about twice as high in acetic acid as those of 20 or 30 years ago. That's why, CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Answer elsewhere on this page.

tablespoon whole cloves teaspoon whole cloves sticks cinnamon, broken quarts white vinegar viz cups sugar large bowl or crock and cover with water in which salt has been dis-solved. Let stand overnight. Next. drain vegetables, rinse in cold water and drain again. Tie spices in square of cheesecloth and boil with vinegar and sugar for five minutes Add vegetables and boil three minutes. Remove spice bag. Pack vegetables in hot sterile jars. Cover with boiling syrup. Seal tightly.

Pickle Picker — It comes as no surprise that mechanical ingenuity has finally invaded the pickle fields. Beverly Arnold, 14, rides an outrigger extending from a machine which carries workers between rows without need for bending or stooping. Two others pickers ride with Beverly on the machine which is driverless.

dane Andrews

What would you say was the most popular pickle of all? A New York expert claims that cauliflowe-is the prime favorite and says that if you doubt this, just lay out a plate of mixed pickles and see if the cauliflower doesn't disappear first.

But before giving you the recipe, here are a few general hints on pickling. Even if you've seen them here before, they're well worth re-

Yield, about eight pints. Lots of folks I know think that Lots of folks I know think that their crab apple trees are only good for ornament, or to furnish ammunition for the youngsters in their "wars". I believe they'll have a different idea if they try this recipe, which can be used just as well for meal! hard needs. small, hard pears.

grandmother's recipes, you may find your pickles a bit tart. Second, use pure salt, not the table variety, as the latter some-times contains carbonates or bicar-

other.
Utensils made of enamelware.

Utensils made of enamelware, aluminum or stainless steel are OKfor pickles. Those of copper or gaivanized zinc aren't, as there may be harmful reactions between the metal and the acid or salt. And to really sterilize your jars and lids, scrub them in hot, sudsy water and, just before packing with the hot pickles, boil for 15 to 20 minutes. Now, after that lengthy preamble, we come to

PICKLED CRABAPPLES OR pounds crabapples or seckel pears quart white vinegar cups sugar quart whole cloves

Q. How can I make a transparent A. To prepare a transparent soap, mix one pound of yellow bar soap, shaved in thin slices, with ½ pint of alcohol. Put into a kettle of cold water and let the water boil for 10

HOW CAN I?

Method: Wash and remove blos-som ends from fruit. Prick each piece several times. Heat vinegar minutes, stirring the soap all the time. Scent to please, bergamot or Add fruit and boil gently until tender but not broken. Remove spice bag. Quickly pack one hor sterilized jar at a time. Fill to one-eighth inch from the top. Be sure Q. How can I keep patent leather A. Olive oil, glycerin or sweet oil rubbed over the surface of patent leather occasionally will prevent it from cracking.

Q. What can I do when cream once. Yield, about six pints.

seems to be too thick to whip prop-A. Place the dish of cream in an other dish containing cold water. When it is chilled, place it in a dish of hot water for a few minutes. It will then whip very readily. Q. How can I repair a parchment shade that has cracked from the constant heat of the electric bulb?

If you tell a girl, "Your face would stop a clock," that stupidity. But if you tell her, "When I look into your face, time stands still," that's diplomacy. A. Hold the crack together and shellac over the crack several times both inside and out. Then, after this has dried thoroughly shellac the entire shade inside and out.

Now you can have a modern water toilet at low cost in your-farm, house or cottage. No electricity or running water required. Hygocsan Septic Tollet gives you new comfort and convenience— helps rid your home of disease-breeding insects—protects your water supply from contamination.

Installation cost is very low. No upkeep expense. We install anywhere in Ontario. Write for complete details on this modern toilet. Immediate delivery. HYGREOSAN DIVISION shildren, most of us married and with youngsters of our own. We are all very much concerned about our she believed other. He seems to feel no shame that we know it. We have agreed among us not to tell Mother.

"Is it usual to expect men in their 50's to triffe?

"As a mother, our? can't be beat.

She has had more than her share of work and trouble. She's never had any of the nice things other had any of the nice things other mothers get, except what we give her. Will you give us some ides what to do?

The kindest thing you can do for your mother now is to shield her from the knowledge of you father's unfaithfulness, and fill her daily life with the comforts and pleasures she deserves.
Don't let a day pass without a relaborate call from some of and pieasures she diserves.

Don't let 2 day pass without a telephone call from some of you. Take her for unexpected outings with your children, for frequent drives, and to movies and concerts this fall. When something special comes to town, buy tickets for her and one or two of her choice friends, and ask her, to take them to dinner at your expense. Send her off for short visits to out-of-town friends or her family. And do get together and buy her new fall clothes, and a permanent, and see that she has some spending money of her own. Encourage her to be active in her church, and other groups, so she will enlarge her acquaintance.

She will almost renew her youth in the knowledge that her children and grandchildren still need her, that she is important to them as an individual. Your love and your thought for her to them as an individual. You have and your thought for her will go a long way toward dimming the memories of her earlier difficult days. PICKLED CAULIFLOWER medium - size heads cauliflower quart small white onions cup salt tablespoon mustard seed tablespoon celery seed difficult days.

In these arrangements, include your father often enough to calme any suspicions she may have about him.

Often a married man in his 50's or 60's grows bored with his lot, is tempted to risk a last fling before old age settles upon him, and brings shame and sorrow to those who love him most.
Many a wife feels the same urge, too, but she is more apt to think first of her responsibilities.

Upside down to prevent peeking.

I sainte you all in your Thoughtful children can do much Thoughtful children can do muca to cheer an aging mother. Cherish yours while you have her, and know the satisfaction it will bring you. Anne Hirst can help—write her at Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

WANTED

INSECT POWDER A sure killer!

RELIEF IS LASTING There's one thing for the headache comfort. INSTANTINE is compounded like a doctor's prescription of three proven medical ingredients. You can depend on its fast action in getting relief from every day aches and pains, headache, theumatic pain, for neu-

PARKER HOUSE. Rolls

feasure into large bowl, 1/2 cup Measure min tage tow. 72 cap-lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granu-lated sugar, stir until sugar is dis-solved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 min., THEN stir well. Scald 1 c. milk % c. lukewarm water. Beat in 3 c. onco-sifted bread flour; beat well. Beat in 4 ths. melted shortening. Work in 3 c. more once-sifted bread flour. Knead until smooth and elastic; place in greased bowl and brush top with melted butter or shortening. Cover and set in warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough in bowl, grease top and let rise again until nearly doubled. Punch down dough and roll out to % thickness. Cut into rounds with 3° cutter; brush with melted butter or shortening. Crease rounds deeply with dull side of knife, a little to one side of centre; fold larger half over smaller half and press along the fold. Place, touching each other, on greased

Better Bake Plenty

There are ever so many who find it good for the health to eat bran regularly in some form or other. But this doesn't need to be any-thing like a "chore" if you do so in some such form as these really delicious touching each other, on greased pans. Grease tops .Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in hot oven, 400°, about 15 min switching to the new Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast. It's fast—it's active—keeps for weeks in the cupboard. Perfect results in rolls, buns, breads! Get a month's supply

FLEISCHMANNS

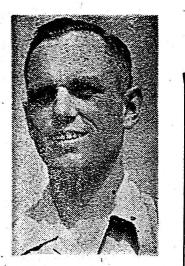

CAST RISING

DRY YEAST

FALL FAIR TIME IN ONTARIO

Busy E...cutive—Harry Ellery, President of the Ingersoll North and West Oxford Agricultural Society, is to be congratulated on the top-notch Fair held at Ingersoll this year. Harry was one of the busiest men on the grounds. Apart from his activi-ties as President, he had his

The new grandstand at Dresden was filled almost to capacity when the Black and White Calf Club paraded their entries. In the photo above, reading from right to left, are the following entrants with their animals:—Don Perry; Delbert Chinnick; Mary Jack; Glen Clackett; Jack Grant; Don Brodie; Jim Boyle; Leo Marchand; Bill Brodie; Norman King; Jack Millard; Bob Harris. Dresden is very proud of the new grandstand which has a total seating capacity of 2,500 and plenty of space in the rear of the building for mittee, Burton Harris of the Ingersoll Agricultural Society, supervised a host of details with amazing efficiency. As a matter of fact, it was with some difficulty that Burt. was persuaded to slow down long enough for your roving photo-grapher to snap his picture.

Shades Of Gene Autry!-Young Jack McFadden of Dresden is shown above just prior to entering the pony contest. The closest most city boys come to a pony is in the pages of the Roy Rogers or Gene Autry comic books. It's different in the country. At times your roving photographer felt that the entire youthful population of small town and rural Canada was on horseback. The pony show at Dresden was colourful, exciting and thrilling.

"When A Feller Needs A Friend"-Upper picture shows the lone male "exhibitor" in the Baby Contest, looking properly nervous—as what man wouldn't. Below—another view of the young-sters awaiting decision of the judges—who certainly had their work cut out making a choice.

The Pictures Shown

On This Page

Were Taken By The

Molsonis

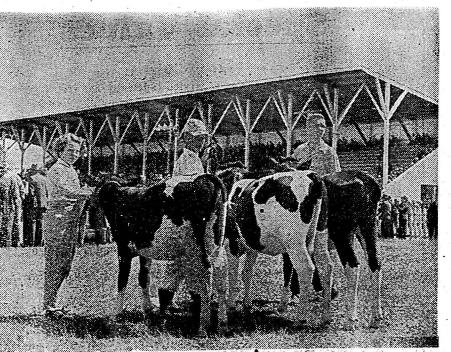

Photographer

As A Public Service

Willie Winkie, at the Ingersoll Fair. Miss Ironsides will show Willie Winkie at London, Aylmer, and numerous other Fairs during the coming month. They will be a hard combination to beat as they proved at Ingersoll, when they won the R. Simpson

Willie Winkie was a perfect model. He posed with the air

Champions In The Boys' and Girls' Dairy Calf Club at Dresden are shown above. Reading from left to right are Ann Sterling, who placed first; Lee Montgomery, 2nd; and Tommy Davis, 3rd. Lee Montgomery also captured the title of Champion Showman. The Calf Club was one of the biggest drawing cards at the Fair, and Murray Jack, the Club Leader, may well be proud of the showing that the boys and girls and their entries made.

Winners Of The Baby Contest At Dresden are shown above. Reading from left to right they The judges had a difficult task, as it proved almost impossible to pick the winners. Bonnie Lee Eden, the runner up, took the whole thing in her stride and placed 2nd without even batting an eye. Karen Clark the champion, beamed with quiet confidence throughout the entire proceedings. Byron Eugene Miner hails from Ostrander.

in coins (stamps cannot be accept-ed) for this pattern to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont. turned, his face black and his eyes stormy. "To see Lawrence," he said savagely. "No!" Lanya got to her feet. Her face was gray to the lips. "Steve don't! I'll do anything—anything in the world. I'll marry you, Steve—" Come Out from L Under the "You're generous too late, Lanya," he told her. The girl drew a sharp breath. Shadow of "Steve, if you do what's in your mind, I—I shall tell Jim Randall what I know about you!" Virginia watched Steve Barron's face with alarmed eyes. Fear played Try DOLCIN Tablets for prompt briefly across it, then was replace relief from ARTHRITIC and RHEUby something that was cruel and MATIC pain ... Try DOLCIN ... eadly. "No." he said. "No, you won't." get a bottle of 100 or 500 tablets from your druggist TODAY and join the thousands of relieved ANNE ADAMS sufferers who by taking DOLCIN

Most versatile design you can find Shown as a little house-and-go-to-market dress; in a wool or rayon it can also be a fine fall runsbout. Such easy sawing!

Pattern 4523 comes in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16 takes 43/8 yards 35-inch fabric.

Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS (254) in colms (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print pisledy SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to: Box 1, 123 Righteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Banish That Outdoor Toilet!

RURAL SEWAGE DISPOSAL EQUIPMENT LTD. 2067 Dundas St. W.