

VANDELEUR

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bowles attended the funeral of Mrs. James Galbraith in Collingwood on Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Milton Bye of Owen Sound spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Buchanan, and attended the anniversary services on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harbottle, accompanied by their son, Arnold, of Bognor, motored up and spent a few days with friends in Northern Ontario.

John Wyville spent the week-end with his nephew in Orillia.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fawcett and Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gilray and family, and Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson attended a family reunion in Thornbury in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gilbert of Vancouver, who are visiting here. Mrs. Gilbert is a sister of Mr. Fawcett and Mrs. Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graham attended Dundalk Fair on Thursday.

Harold Thompson and two sons of Port Carling spent the week-end with friends in this district. Harold, who is now principal of the High School in that Muskoka town, was a teacher in Vandeleur School for four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mills attended a function in Tara recently. A feature of the program was a thrilling horse-drawing contest.

Howard Graham acted as a judge at Mount Forest Fair this week. He was accompanied by Billie Johnston.

A large number from here attended Edgar Bowles' sale at Orange Valley on Friday afternoon. Ed. is a former resident of this community.

Vernon Fawcett was one of the prizewinners at the opening of York Bros. new garage in Markdale on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wiley of Montreal were recent guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Will Johnston, and Mr. Johnston and family.

A large from here went out to Annesley Church, Markdale, on Monday evening to hear Edna Jaques, the outstanding Canadian poetess and lecturer. They were delighted with what they heard.

Anniversary Services

Anniversary services were held in Vandeleur on Sunday, with Rev. C. R. Leach of Temple Hill as the speaker in the afternoon and Rev. Paul Christensen of Dundalk in the evening. Rev. Mr. Leach took for his subject, "The Redemptive Mission of the Christian Church." Rev. Mr. Christensen spoke on "The Faith of Our Fathers."

The Junior Choir rendered a number, both afternoon and evening, and Mel. Buchanan sang a solo at both services. A duet was rendered by George and Mel. Buchanan in the afternoon, and by Misses Dorothy and Marie Johnston in the evening. Mrs. George Buchanan presided at the organ. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion, and many former residents and visitors were seen among the large congregations. The pastor, Rev. W. M. Lee, was present for the evening service, and extended a hearty welcome to the speaker and visitors.

To Speak

Vandeleur and Cheeseville School Sections are interested in a medical inspection for the school children, and Dr. Mac Phillips, M.P.P., of Owen Sound will give valuable information on health services and grants, etc., at the W. I. meeting to be held on Thursday, September 22nd, at the home of Mrs. George Shaw in Markdale.

The annual miscellaneous bazaar with proceeds for the Red Cross, is an item on the program. Articles are donated by members.

WODEHOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gilray visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. Willcocks.

Miss Della Wiley has returned home after spending the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Merton Wiley at Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryerson Picot and little son of Collingwood were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. S. Wiley and Della.

Miss Emily Lawson has sold her home here and will be moving to her new home in Meaford in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wiley and Blanche visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. Clugston and family of Sligo.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McCann attended the Fawcett family get-together in Thornbury on Sunday.

A number of fun-lovers visited Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clarke (newlyweds) on Thursday night, and they said it took a lot of noise to awaken them from their peaceful slumbers.

On Friday evening the choir had a practice in preparation for their visit to Knox Church, St. Vincent, on October 2nd, and for the New England anniversary services on Sunday, October 9th.

A number from this community attended the opening of the York Bros. garage in Markdale on Friday evening.

Program for W.A.

On Thursday afternoon, the W.A. met at the home of Mrs. N. Willcocks. After the opening exercises, the devotional was taken by Fern Wiley. Mrs. William Clugston and Mrs. S. Clugston will send the next box to Miss Glover in England. The copper contest is to end in October, and the money is to be handed in at the next meeting, at the home of Mrs. Summers.

The roll call was answered with a temperance verse. The program consisted of a reading, "The Bar," by Mrs. Summers; "The Two Glasses," by Fern Wiley; "Pot Shots," by Mrs. S. Clugston; "My Story Ma'am," by Anna Clugston.

There were 18 members and visitors present, and the collection was $2.42. Rev. C. R. Leach closed the meeting with a prayer.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. G. Willcocks and Mrs. George Wiley.

Sale Register

George Duncan, Auct.

Sat., Sept. 24—Furniture, etc. Art. Tuck, Barrie.

Mon., Oct. 3—Farm stock, implements. George Pollock, Holstein. Wm. F. McKay, Auct.

Wed., Sept. 23—Credit auction sale, farm stock, implements, feed, household effects. D. J. Bradley, Berkeley.

ROSEDALE

Corn cutting is almost completed. Mr. and Mrs. John Menary and Ted visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Menary of Orangeville. Ted remained and has accepted a position in Orangeville.

Jim Carbert of Markdale is assisting Laurence Thompson.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clarke (nee Ruby Menary), whose marriage took place on September 7th in Owen Sound. We extend heartiest congratulations and best wishes to the popular young couple. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Menary, when about 30 guests were present.

John Lawson is assisting his brother-in-law, James Wiley of Mount Zion, with carpenter work in connection with his barn.

Miss Esther Moore of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smart and attended the Wiley-Smart wedding.

Mrs. Ernest Smart and Eleanor and Myrtle attended a towel shower in honor of Myrtle, a bride-to-be, arranged by her girl friends. Myrtle, taken completely by surprise, was asked to come forward, and unwrap the gifts. All sang "For she's a jolly good fellow." A dainty lunch was then served.

SERIOUS FIRE PREVENTED

When Mrs. J. H. Perkins noticed a blaze in a junk pile back of the Loren Douglas Garage on Wednesday morning at 11:40 and called the Fire Department, she prevented a serious fire. The firemen extinguished the blaze with little trouble.

WALTER'S FALLS

G. Hazard left on September 14th on an art lecture tour of schools in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Dobie (nee Marion Eby) of Meaford spent a few days last week at the latter's parental home.

Mrs. R. Speck was hostess for the W.A. on Wednesday afternoon, and for the W.I. on Friday afternoon. Some final arrangements were made for the sewing class, which is being held this week in the hall.

Miss Kathleen Brett of Kitchener is staying with her brother-in-law, W. Hallman.

The Athletic Society has cancelled its field day of sports, owing to the lateness of the season and the early darkness.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Quinton and family moved their household effects into Bert Menary's house (the F. Olmstead place) early in the week.

Anglican Church

D. Vogan, who has been in charge of the Anglican Church for the vacation, left for his home in London on Sunday evening. The service will be held next Sunday at 3 p.m., when Rev. H. Appleyard will be in charge.

Ladies' Guild Meets

Miss Ethel Walter was hostess for the Anglican Ladies' Guild on Wednesday afternoon, when there was an attendance of 10. Mrs. H. Seabrook was in the chair and opened the meeting with the prayer service. Mrs. S. Hanna read the Scripture lesson. The roll call answer was a harvest verse. A discussion took place on the rectory work, and arrangements were made for holding a ticket admission to a fowl supper to be held late in October. The induction plans for the new rector were discussed. A layette was displayed, a gift to the Guild from the Mission Circle. The meeting was closed with a prayer, after which Miss Walter, assisted by Mrs. R. Rennie and Miss Barbara, served lunch.