ROUND TRIP (subject to change)

VANDELEUR

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Ormsby and Audrey spent Thanksgiving with friends at Meaford.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kirkpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. Rae Genoe were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Dane McGee.

A very successful old-time shooting match for ducks and turkeys was held at the home of James E. Cargoe on Thanksgiving Day. There was a large number of people present, and they seemed to enjoy the sport.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hill and family spent the week-end at the home of George Fries at Nashville and attended Woodbridge Fair on Monday. It was a great fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Abelson and daughter of British Columbia, who have just returned from a trip to Norway, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brodie and family and other friends. Mrs. Abelson is the former Irene Brodie, a Vandeleur girl, and her many friends are pleased to see her again. They had a wonderful trip overseas.

World Communion Sunday was observed in the church on October 2nd, with the pastor, Rev. W. M. Lee, in charge. Seven new members were added to the church roll.

The junior choir of Vandeleur Church led in the service of song at the anniversary services in Salem Church, near Swinton Park, on Sunday evening. The leader, Mrs. Buchanan, also Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Graham, Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson and Mrs. Victor Brodie, accompanied the choir.

Andy Fawcett and Lorne Ormsby have been doing considerable under-draining on their farms recently, and a good many rods of tile have been placed under the ground. T. S. Cooper did the surveying.

Yes, we saw the eclipse. The weather man didn't co-operate to any marked degree, but the skies cleared for a short time at the crucial period and we had a good look.

Mrs. J. J. McGee of Toronto spent the week-end with the McGee and Ratcliffe families.

Mrs. Gordon Wyvill spent a few days with Mrs. Wyvill, Sr., of Markdale, who has been critically ill. Her many friends are pleased to hear that she is somewhat improved.

There were many happy family gatherings over the holiday week-end, and the delightful weather added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Howard Graham is busy harvesting his big apple crop. The apples are good this year.

John Wyvill spent a few days in Toronto.

Extend Medical Services At a ratepayers' meeting held recently in Vandeleur School, it was decided to extend the medical services being given to the pupils to include urinalysis, and complete inspection may also be added after a further discussion at the annual meeting.

Trustee Jim Cargoe presided, and called on Mrs. Howard Graham, health convener in the W.I., to explain the various tests. Vandeleur School has already been protected against small-pox, diphtheria, whooping cough, etc., and has gone through prophylaxis and a dental clinic. Last June, eye and throat inspection, and T.B. reaction test was included, and it was felt that this had been a great protection to the children.

The Department of Health pays a 30 per cent. grant on medical health services.

The meeting also discussed calfhood vaccination and warble-fly control.

Directors Meet

At a meeting of the directors of the Grey County Federation of Agriculture, held recently in the office of the Department of Agriculture in Markdale, it was decided to hold the annual convention in the town hall, Flesherton, on Friday, November 4th, with H. H. Hannam of Ottawa, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, as the speaker. It was also decided to have the finals in the county public-speaking contest as part of the program, and to have sessions morning and afternoon.

Financing of the Rural Co-operator magazine, and many other important matters dealing with the position of agriculture throughout the county, were discussed. The president, Howard Graham, presided, and Wes. Magwood was the secretary for the meeting.

BERKELEY

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gidley and children of Hamilton visited over the holiday with Mrs. Gidley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe of St. Catharines were holiday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Art Stafford.

Miss Mamie Mitchell of Toronto spent over the holiday at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. David spent over the holiday in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Kirk of Holford visited on Sunday at the Allen home.

Mrs. W. Smith and children and the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Smith, and sons of Mount Brydges spent a couple of days last week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stafford.

A fowl supper was held in the hall on Friday evening for the Berkeley softball team, followed by a dance.

PLEASANT VALLEY

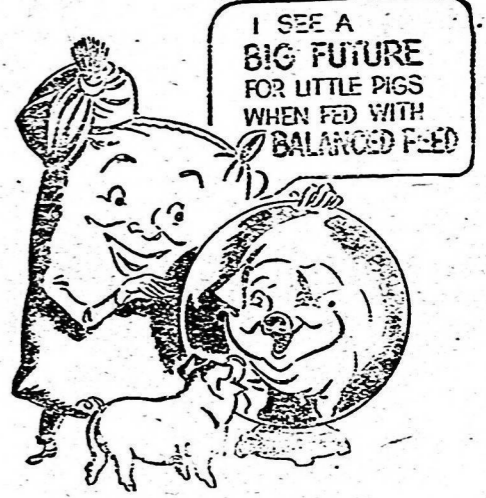

A number from this line attended the Sunday school rally at Berkeley on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rae and Marie were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Tolton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Winterburn were with Mr. and Mrs. J. Bowles for Thanksgiving.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Garfield McInnis on the birth of a son. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McInnis of Berkeley are spending a while on the farm.

"A Full Sack Will Take a Clout on the Side". That's what the proverb says. If you've filled your bank account through steady saving, it will stand up to many a knock. If you haven't any sack at all, go along to the Bank of Montreal tomorrow, and start filling one.

I SEE A BIG FUTURE FOR LITTLE PIGS WHEN FED WITH BALANCED FEED. Balanced feeding from the day he's weaned to the day he's marketed assures you of a husky, heavy, fast-growing hog that'll bring you a top price.
