Good Deeds

A man's true wealth hereafter is the good he has done in the world to his fellow man. When he dies, people will ask, 'What property has he left behind him?' But the angels will ask, 'What good deeds has he sent before him?'—The Koran.

Hallowe'en Brings No Recess From Country's Law

Memo for Monday next: Fasten the gates securely, take in the chairs of the veranda, and don't leave anything around that can be taken away.

Monday night will be Hallowe'en. That's the time when things are on a temporary ownership temporarily, and one may find a wagon on one's lawn, or a gate, or some chairs.

Hallowe'en can be a time of good fun, especially for the boys and girls who like to "dress up" and go to parties in their disguises. They'd even like to make their own parents guess who they are.

Gradually we are meeting the many people who correspond for The Standard each week. Last week we enjoyed a short visit with R. T. Edwards.

It is a time of fun for older folk also. They like to go to masquerade dances, and some of them go calling as well.

There's lots of good fun to be had on Hallowe'en. But it should not be an occasion for rowdiness. Hallowe'en brings no recess from the law of any other day, and pranksters should remember this fact.

We're all for Gordon Beaton's suggestion at a recent Rotary Club meeting for the organizing of a Boy Scout troop in town.

Let's go out for a good time on Hallowe'en. Let's leave the gates, the chairs, the wagons, etc. where they are. All of us can find some way to enjoy the night without making extra work for others of managing property.

A Reminder Beforehand to Prompt License Buying

Radio licenses should be bought as soon as possible. The inspectors found a number of radios in the district unlicensed also.

Eighteen local people paid $5 and costs, plus the purchase of a license, and all the cases were settled out of court.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank Dr. Mountain and the staff of the Centre Grey General Hospital for their care and many kindnesses while I was a patient, and to my many friends for their cards, and inquiries, which will always be remembered.

It is a very comfortable feeling to have a backlog of ready cash. If emergencies arise you know you can meet them, and you are also making progress towards financial security.

Planned saving is the surest way to build up a "nest egg" for yourself—regular deposits at interest, steadily growing larger.

We invite you to open a savings account at our nearest branch and to use our other banking services also.
