Motorists should have their 1950 operator's permit, a local citizen told The Standard this week. He said the police have received instructions to prosecute motorists found still driving with 1949 permits.

TRAVERTON
January goes out with but a sprinkling of snow on its green, fall wheat fields—a month to be remembered. The country roads are in a humpity, bumpy condition. Fasten in well your false teeth!

Not many saw logs are being cut, owing to the lack of snow.
Wayne Semple and Whitney Edwards are great chums. Wayne spent the week-end with Whitney.

Miss Craven of Holland enjoyed the week-end with Miss Shirley Cook.
Ministers found it difficult to read the Scriptures or their written sermons on Sunday p.m., owing to the dense fog.

They are a hustling bunch of fellows along the 6th concession of Glenclg. With R. T. Cook in charge of the saw, they cut our big pile of wood drags in 4 1/2 hours. They seem there are 30 cords in the pile. 'Tis snugly piled up to boot.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mays and Gwen Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cook and Shirley, and Christein Kloosterboer were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bryan at a fowl supper the early part of last week.

A goodly number from this vicinity attended the funeral of Mrs. Harvey Gomm, the early part of last week. She was a most highly esteemed wife and mother of five gifted daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tosh of Kenilworth and Mrs. Agnes McNally and Marshall visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Timmins and Evelyn visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Whitney at Holford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden of Orange Valley visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Cook and Mrs. W. J. Cook the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Jackson and Donald and Mrs. Barbara McArthur of Walkerton were guests one day recently with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cook. We've been wondering what sort of weather February will bring to Ontario. She generally has some ugly mood.

Mr. and Mrs. William Coburn celebrated their golden wedding on Monday evening, and quite a number of residents of the surrounding district celebrated with them.

Warns Against Getting In Way Of Fire Truck
People should not get in the way of the fire truck when it is on the way to a fire, Constable George Shaw told The Standard on Friday. He especially warned against the practice of children getting on the truck. As a result, he said, the truck is loaded with children instead of firemen. Prosecutions will follow, he warned, if people do not stay out of the way of the truck, and if the children do not keep away from it. Constable Shaw also said the provincial law requires motorists to keep 500 feet behind the fire truck.

TWO RINKS TO BONSPIEL
Two curling rinks from Markdale High School will make the trip this week to Guelph and Galt. The High School bonspiel, which was usually held in Guelph, has grown so large that it has been split in half. The rink of Don Mercer, Ray Hunt, Ronny McCutcheon, and Don MacMillan will go to Guelph, and Hugh Merriam, Wayne Kidd, Curt Ryan, and Jim Perkins will go to Galt.

Card of Thanks
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Coburn and family wish to express their thanks and appreciation to all their friends and neighbors who honored them on their golden wedding anniversary, especially for the lovely gifts, letters, flowers, and cards, also to Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Lee and those who helped with the program.
