Romantic Picture Scores

One of the sweetest romances ever told on the screen is the Paramount picture "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," starring Mary Miles Minter, which opened at the Grand Theatre, Col. with great success last night.

The star in the role of a comely girl of the Cumberland mountains in Kentucky, is the leading figure of one of the most bloody family feuds ever waged. Antonio Moreno, in the leading man's role of John Hale, is prospecting for coal about the home of Miss Minter (Miss Minter). He finds the site promising and takes possession of the property and finally comes home on the girl's father's estate.

Hale, as an official of the law, arrests a member of the family for murder a year ago, but for reasons of the younger generation as this one example. For years the town had a population of 1000 people.

West families. In the fighting it ensues, Hale is wounded and for by June. The girl's father for Hale is the means of reconciliation. Hale and the Toland hand June and Hale are control which and work properly.

Miss Minter and her party of High School girls, who have spent the past two weeks on a camping trip at McLaren's Bay returned home on Tuesday evening.

In a report of candidates who graduated from North Bay Normal School with their second class certificates, appears the name of Cecile M. Hall, of Haileybury.

The Sudbury Star says: "Miss Thompson, Cedar Street, returned home after spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Macdonald, at Haileybury. Miss Thompson was accompanied by her niece, Miss Johns. Will spend a short time in Haileybury."

W. T. Miller, of Sudbury, is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. J. A. Macdonald, at Haileybury.

on two new houses by the T. and N. O. Railway, one on Browning Street for the station agent, the other just across the tracks from the present station, for the section foreman. The former is well on the way towards completion, while the latter has only the basement walls erected. Both houses will be up-to-date residences and will add considerably to the appearance of the town from the point of arrival by train.

Word reached Haileybury this week of the death of Walter Skudder, for many years a resident of this town. He was well known here some years ago, having been a member of the Choir of St. Paul's Church. His death took place on July 10th last, in the Bantford General Hospital. The late Mr. Skudder leaves a widow and two children.

Mrs. Mary Harkness

The death occurred yesterday morning of Mrs. Mary Harkness, mother of Mrs. W. A. Gordon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon on Rorke Avenue, from heart failure. The late Mrs. Harkness, who was sixty years of age, had been living in Haileybury for the past year. She had been in poor health for a considerable length of time but only confined to her bed for about two weeks prior to her death.

The remains were sent to Owen Sound on Wednesday evening, and will be interred in the cemetery at Annan, near that city, the old home of the deceased. Mrs. Gordon, who is the only surviving member of the family, accompanied the body.

A large circle of friends and acquaintances here extend sympathy to Mrs. Gordon in her bereavement.

Letters to Newspapers Must Bear Signature

We must again remind our readers that all communications sent to this publication must be signed by the writer. This is one of the oldest and best rules that no newspaper can afford to disregard. This does not mean that signatures are to be published, but is simply insisted upon as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the writer.

This week we have received a letter with some severe criticism, and only a pen name appended. Consequently we cannot publish it under the circumstances. We would ask all correspondents to remember this rule.

Any person who wishes to procure gravel for concrete work, at a reduced rate to fire sufferers, should call at the office of the Municipal Clerk and procure an order for same.
