Local Veterans Visit Comrdaes at Liskeard

Two local war veterans, Wm. Short and Adam Keddie, represented the Haileybury branch of the Canadian Legion at the banquet by the New Liskeard branch on Monday evening. Both were called upon for speeches during the program which followed the banquet and both stressed the friendly relations which have existed between the two branches during the past ten years.

Messrs. Short and Keddie state that the New Liskeard veterans held a particularly pleasant and fitting celebration of Armistice Day.

Rheumatism no Part of Nature's Plan

She offers her healing herbs to stop suffering
When America was wilderness, Indians were using herbs successfully. From the Redmen, 50 years ago, James Gallagher learned herbal secrets and compounded Gallagher's Herbal Household Remedies. His famous Kidney Remedy has helped many a sufferer from Rheumatism. This fine, time-proved remedy, drawn from the heart of Nature, heals and cleanses kidneys. Quickly stops backache, dizziness and other nagging kidney and bladder ailments. Try it! For sale by

WEDDING BELLS

CALDBICK-JOHNSTON

Timmins United Church, beautifully decorated with ferns and tall standards of golden and white 'mums, was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding, when Ruth Wilhelmina, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Johnston, of Timmins, and Joseph Smith Caldbeck, second son of Mr. and Mrs. George Caldbeck, of Haileybury, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. J. D. Parks officiating. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Ada Graham, the bride entered the church, on the arm of her father. The dainty, girlish bride made a winsome picture in her period gown of ivory satin, with fitted bodice and long skirt, with which she wore matching hose and satin slippers. Her veil was of silk net embroidered with pearls and was attached to a bandeau of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Caldbeck, sister of the groom, preceded the bride, in a bouffant dress of maize chiffon, with close fitting green felt hat. She carried a sheaf of bronze 'mums.

Mr. Sam Caldbeck supported the groom.

During the signing of the register Mrs. J. R. Todd, of Schumacher, sang "Because," in a very lovely manner. Mrs. J. W. Faithful played the accompaniment.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a Roman gold bracelet; to the groomsman, a Parker pen outfit; to the organist, a dainty pearl necklace; and to Mrs. Todd a silver card case.

Immediately after the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served to the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom at the home of the bride's parents at 54 Balsam St., south.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, tokens of the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Caldbeck are held. Several showers were given in honor of the bride-to-be in the past week or two.

To Form Rotary Club In Town of Cochrane

That a Rotary Club would be formed in the town of Cochrane

Followed by the good wishes of hosts of friends the young couple left on the noon train for Kapuskasing. The bride's going away dress was a smart frock of golden brown crepe-backed satin trimmed with ecru lace, with brown suede shoes, and stockings to match. She wore a close-fitting two-toned velvet hat and muskrat coat.

was the decision arrived at by a gathering of business men in the northern city last week. Two members of the Haileybury Rotary Club and two from the North Bay club attended the meeting and outlined the work that is being carried out in these two places, together with setting out the general aims and objects of Rotary as it has become known almost throughout the entire world.

After going into the prospects from all angles and making a general survey of the town and its possibilities, the meeting decided on the organization of a Rotary Club. This will take some time to complete, but the preliminary work is now under way and it is expected that within a reasonable time the organization will be completed.
