Encampment Members From North Bay Visit With Brethren Here

A degree team from Gateway Encampment, I.O.O.F., of North Bay, visited Haileybury on Saturday last, when a large gathering of members of this higher branch of Oddfellowship was present in the Temple on Broadway Street to witness the visitors confer the First, or Patriarchal Degree. There were between sixteen and twenty men in the degree team and they were accompanied by several other visitors from the south.

The brethren of Argentum and Temiskaming Encampments entertained the visitors and the gathering with refreshments after the Lodge session concluded. Among those present were two District Deputy Grand Patriarchs Mr. Crichton, of New Liskeard, who heads this district, and Mr. Greeney, of North Bay, in charge of the district to the south.

Fraternal visits among the Encampments have been held in the past and greatly enjoyed, but the gathering on Saturday night was particularly pleasing to the Northern members, who attended in force.

The fall competition in the mixed doubles at the local Golf Club, was played Wednesday afternoon, with Miss D. Dwyer and D. E. Sutherland carrying off the trophy with a net score of 68 for the 18 holes. About a dozen couples participated in the event and the scores were, on the whole, considerably better than in the spring competition, owing chiefly to the fact that the members who took part have been practising steadily all summer.

Injured Hummingbird Found On Street Corner Tuesday

Mr. H. E. Blackwall picked up an injured hummingbird on the sidewalk at the corner of Main Street and Ferguson Avenue on Tuesday, when the little creature had apparently been stunned. Although he took it up to the court house and attempted to revive it, the bird was too badly injured and died shortly afterwards.

Curious to know just what size the hummingbird is, Mr. Blackwall took it to a drug store and had it weighed. It tipped the scales at 41 grains, or about one-tenth of an ounce. Its plumage was a beautiful shade of green, and apparently full grown.

Perky Porcupine Parades and Departs Unmolested

Residents of the downtown section who were out early on Tuesday morning were treated to the somewhat unusual sight of a porcupine ambling along the Lake Shore Road in a northerly direction. Just how the animal came to stray into town was not learned and no one apparently thought it interesting enough to watch where it went. On different occasions in the past porcupines have ventured into town, usually with the result that they were captured and shipped, either to the woods they came from or to a zoo, but this one was not molested.
