

Armistice is Commemorated at Special Church Service

Ex-Soldiers and Citizens Join in Worship on Eve of Eleventh Anniversary of War's End; Hear Impressive Sermon With Peace as Chief Theme

Between thirty and forty war veterans attended the United Church in a body on Sunday night for the annual Armistice Service conducted by Rev. D. A. MacKeracher. The men gathered at the club rooms of the Canadian Legion and marched to the Church, where there was a large congregation and a solemn service in commemoration of the anniversary of the signing of the armistice. There were suitable hymns, an anthem and a solo, arranged by the organist, Mr. R. H. Unwin, who is himself a veteran of the great war.

Speaking from the text, "Jesus answering said unto them, 'Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's'" St. Mark, 12, 17, Rev. MacKeracher gave a very impressive address with peace as the theme. The people have drunk to the dregs the cup of war, he said, and all efforts are now turned toward the securing of an enduring peace. War cannot be avoided unless repentance comes first and public opinion rises up against it. Christ's gospel must first animate the world. The League of Nations, the World Court, the Locarno Pact, were all movements toward peace

ORGAN PRELUDE.
DOXOLOGY.
PRAYER.

HYMN:

'For ever with the Lord'
Amen, so let it be:
Life from the dead is in that word:
'Tis immortality.
Here in the body pent,
Absent from Him I roam,
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent,
A day's march nearer home.

'For ever with the Lord'
Father, if 'tis Thy will,
The promise of that faithful word
Even here to me fulfil:
Be Thou at my right hand,
Then can I never fail;
Uphold Thou me, and I shall stand
Fight, and I must prevail.

READING.

SOLO:

Solemn the drums thrill, Death august and royal
Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.
They fought. They were terrible. Nought could tame them.
Hunger nor legions, nor shattering cannonade.
They laughed. They sang the melodies of England.
They fell.—open-eyed and unafraid.
As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain.
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness
To the end, they remain.

HYMN:

Blest be the everlasting God,
The Father of our Lord;
Be His abounding mercy praised,
His majesty adored,
Saints by the power of God are kept
Till the salvation come;
We walk by faith as strangers here;
But Christ shall call us home.
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
'For ever with the Lord.'
Up to the sombre sky
Thank God for peace.

When from the dead He raised His Son
And called Him to the sky,
He gave our souls a lively hope
That they should never die.
So, when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
Knowing as I am known
Thank God for peace.
Rolled one great thankful sigh,
Rolled one great gladsome cry.

PRAYER.

ANTHEM:

The word came to us as we knelt in prayer
That wars might cease.
Peace found us on our knees, and prayer for peace
Was changed to prayer of deepest thankfulness;
We knelt in war, we rose in peace to bless
Thy grace, Thy care, Thy tenderness.
Join hands. Join hands. Ye nations of the earth
And make henceforth a mighty Trust for peace.
A great enduring peace that shall withstand
The shocks of time and circumstance; and every land
Shall rise and bless you—and shall never cease
To bless you—for that glorious gift of peace.

ANNOUNCEMENTS and OFFERTORY.

HYMN:

Lord, while for all mankind we pray
Of every clime and coast,
O hear us for our native land,
The land we love the most.
O guard our shores from every foe;
With peace our borders bless;
With prosperous times our cities crown
Our fields with plenteousness.

Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth and Thee;
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.
Lord of the nations, thus to Thee
Our country we commend;
Be Thou her refuge and her trust
Her everlasting friend.

SERMON.

HYMN:

O God of Love, O King of peace,
Make wars throughout the world to cease
The wrath of sinful man restrain,
Give peace, O God, give peace again.
Whom shall we trust but Thee, O Lord?
Where rest, but on Thy faithful word?
None ever called on Thee in vain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again.

Remember, Lord, Thy works of old,
The wonders that our fathers told;
Remember not our sin's dark stain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again.
Where saints and angels dwell above,
All hearts are knit in holy love;
O bind us in that heavenly chain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again.

SILENCE and LAST POST.

VESPER HYMN:

Holy Father, cheer our way
With Thy love's perpetual ray.
Grant us every closing day
Light at evening time.

Notes of the North

The depths of depravity have been sounded when a successful attempt was made in breaking into the Presbyterian Church here. Some material was on hand to be sold at the bazaar, such as quilts, etc., were stolen, but worst of all was the theft of the Sunday School pupils' birthday box, wherein they put coppers representing their age on the Sunday closest the birthday. —Cochrane Northland Post.

St. Mary's Hospital, Timmins, last week received a generous donation from the McIntyre Porcupine Mines, Limited, the cheque being for $10,000, and being accompanied by a letter of appreciation for the excellent work carried on by the hospital here. —Porcupine Advance.

Tuesday evening some bold thief stole a calf from a dairyman west of the town. The calf was taken towards town but in the flats near Dalton's bridge the thief or thieves stopped near the side of the road and butchered the animal in apparently approved style. All this may be deduced from the signs left along the route. There had been a snowfall during the evening and it was easy to reconstruct the proceedings from the tracks and marks. —Porcupine Advance.

Road paving work on Government Road, which is being done jointly for the Township of Teck and the Department of Northern Development, by the McNamara Construction Co., Ltd., is completed as far as possible for this season. A small portion of the roadway has been left unfinished, as originally planned to allow filled underground work to properly consolidate, before putting the road surface on. —Kirkland Lake Northern News.

On Saturday afternoon, accompanied by a large number of cars with horns blowing, and commotion in general on Whitewood Ave., Mike Auger paid his election wager to Jim Brown by drawing him in a small boy's wagon (Jim weighs about 220) from the National Auto Sales garage up Whitewood to the Lake Shore Road and down the other side. The procession was headed by Chief Miller, who directed the traffic. —New Liskeard Speaker.

Mayor Sullivan told the council that the Nipissing Mining Co. was taking action to collect tax arrears and ground rentals, and in so doing had made seizures. He declared that some of the citizens were wrongfully blaming him for this action. He declared he had had nothing to do with the action taken, although he was in favor of it. It was, he understood, the intention of the Company to turn all leased lots over to the leasees for the nominal sum of $1, providing their taxes were paid up in full, as soon as the town accepts the subdivision plan submitted by them. —Cobalt Northern News.

"The gold mines are going to come back first," declares John E. Hammell, prominent mining man, to The Northern Miner when the market situation was discussed. "There are three things in Canada which we possess, and that the world needs most. They are wheat for food, timber for shelter, and gold to pay for them. The world needs gold more than ever, and on the basis of securing it apparently are willing to pay a higher price for it. My feeling is that gold stocks are going to be the first to return to high public favor, and that we are entering upon a new era of interest in the development of gold mining prospects," said Mr. Hammell. —The Northern Miner.

Catalogue Competition

The thing for the merchants of this community to do in their own interests is to advertise faithfully, and to make their printed announcements interesting and helpful to those whose trade and favor are desired.

Mail Order Houses and the large departmental stores of neighboring cities with their striking advertisements and catalogues are the serious competition of local merchants.

The poorest way to offset this competition is for our local merchants to remain silent. For them not to "speak up" is to give the Mail Order Houses a better chance to get business from this community.

A Word to the Public

When you send your money to a city store you enrich the great stores and impoverish this community. Strengthen—not weaken—the merchants of this community. It will be returned to you in the form of better service and better values.
