British Contenders for Fox Trophy

Members of the representative team of English, Scottish and Irish bowlers on their arrival at New York on their way to California to take part in the contest for the Charles J. Fox trophy. After the western contest, the team will play in tournaments in various United States and Canadian cities.

Channel Aspirants of 1930

Jabez Wolfe (centre) with Micky West (left) Welsh swimming champion, and Laddie Sharp (right) holder of the women's British Channel record, as they appeared at Brighton, England, where Wolfe is training them for the arduous swim across the English Channel. They are after Gertrude Ederle's record. Both the aspirants are nineteen years of age.

Canadian Youth's Daring Rescue

Fearlessly facing death in the icy water and the danger of being crushed between two ships rolling in a heavy swell, Millard Trenholm (left), 22-year-old deck boy of the Canadian National Steamship "Champlain," plunged into Halifax harbor recently and saved the life of Oscar Lucassen, Norwegian sailor (right). This was the third time for Trenholm to enact the part of hero in near-drowning tragedies, and each time he has been successful in saving the life for which he risked his own.

Vows to Find Slayer

Mrs. Mamie Lange of Lawrenceburg, Ind., was sworn in recently to fill the unexpired term of her husband, the late Sheriff Herman Lange, who was shot and killed. Mrs. Lange has sworn she will not rest until the slayer, or slayers, are brought to justice.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

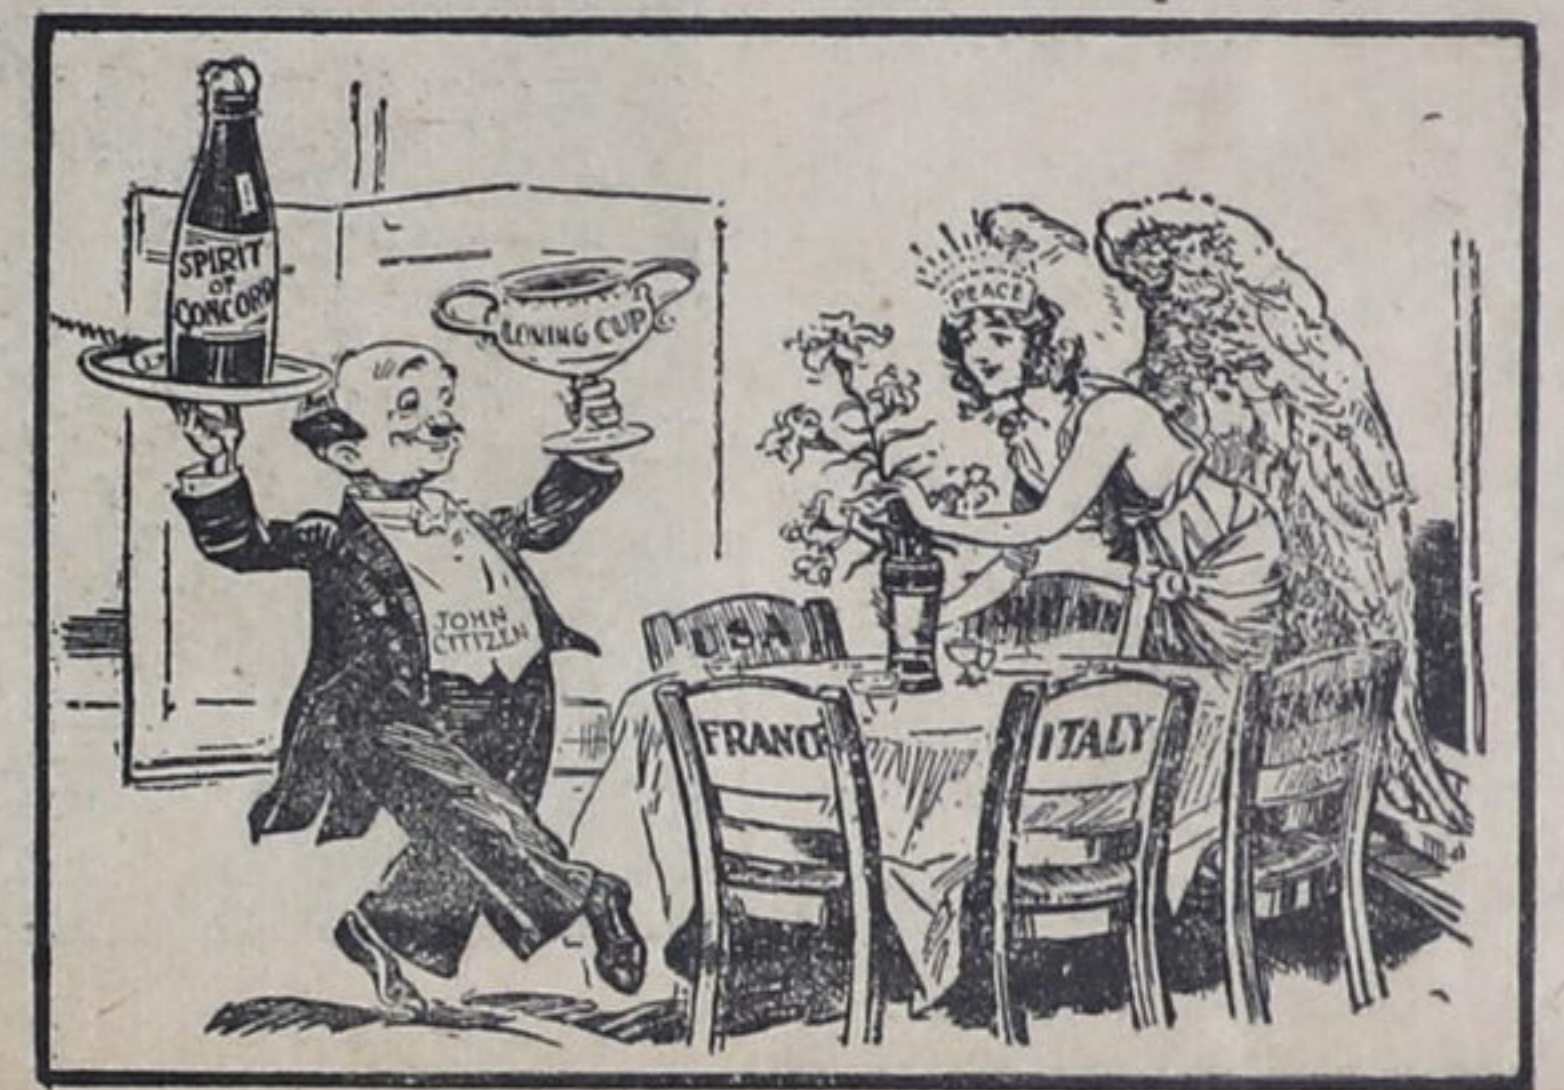

Minister's Daughter in Talkies

This latest recruit to the British talkies is Miss Kathleen Greenwood, 24-year-old daughter of

Rt. Hon. Arthur Greenwood, British Minister of Health. She has already done beginner's duty as one of the mob in a two-language feature, and is now ready to tackle the part of a peasant in a new sound and color picture dealing with the Charge of the Light Brigade.
