

Far From Disgraced In Nine-Four Defeat

Liskeard's Game Fight Against Odds is Feature of Game Here Tuesday Night

New Liskeard Juniors might well be punch-drunk by now, they have taken it on the chin so consistently during the current season, and when they clashed with the league-leading Miners here on Tuesday night they absorbed another bad trimming. The score was 9-4, but the New Liskeard squad was far from being disgraced. Entering the third frame with the count 7-1 against them, with their goalie suffering from a cut above the eye that had necessitated stitches, the lads from the Farming Town stepped into their rivals as though a six-goal lead meant nothing, and proceeded to slap home three nice goals, besides giving the Cobalt net guardian more action than he had experienced in the two previous frames.

Cobalt looked very good in the first two periods, showing everything a first rate hockey team should have—machine-like combination, speed and deadly marksmanship, and the crowd saw very clearly why the Miners are leading the group. Perhaps they looked exceedingly good because the opposition was exceedingly bad, but things were quite different in the final frame when the New Liskeard squad not only outscored them but outplayed them.

New Liskeard had tough luck at the very outset. They had hoped to give the Miners a real fight, but in practice before the game a flying puck caught Lamb, the goalie, above the left eye. That accident settled any hopes New Liskeard might have had. Dr. Lyon was called and Lamb's injury necessitated stitches. With no sub. goalie, he insisted on taking his place in the nets, but he was obviously in no condition to give his usual good account of himself. Cobalt got nine goals during the evening, but plenty of them were of the soft variety, and from Lamb's work in other games it is probable that he would have kept the count to a much lower figure had he been in right shape.

Roberts, who collected five goals during the game to put him well on top of the heap as leading scorer of the group, landed three of the tallies in the first frame and Bennett got the other. Hendry put New Liskeard in the scoring column. In the second period Cobalt tacked on three more goals and New Liskeard was scoreless, but when the final frame got under way, Hendry, Johnston and Nightingale checked in a tally apiece, while Cobalt had to be content with two.

The game was rough enough, with a constant procession to the penalty box for a variety of minor offences, but Referee Austin kept things well in hand. Cobalt, a heavier and faster team, shone in the first two periods because they maintained a consistent pace and made their own breaks instead of waiting for them. They jumped in for every possible scoring chance while New Liskeard showed a disposition to rest up a little after every try or after turning aside an opposition thrust. In every department Cobalt excelled in the early part of the game.

The forward line consisted of Percy Knox, N. S. Macdonald, W. G. Armstrong, A. Freeman, C. Grills, Dr. F. McKee, and Hartman, T. E. McKee.

Local Curlers Win Big Events of Spiel

Moysey and Canada Northern go to Smith Rink, with Abrams Winning Lee Trophy

The three major events in the T. & N. O. bonspiel held last week here were all won by Haileybury rinks in the final struggles of the 'spiel played out on Thursday and Friday.

The Geo. W. Lee trophy, presented by the Chairman of the T. & N. O. Commission and carrying four splendid leather club bags as individual prizes, was won by Jerry Abrams' rink in a close final game with A.E. Stephenson's four from New Liskeard, on Friday morning. It was anybody's game until the last rock was thrown, when Jerry came through with a nice one to count one up at the finish. The personnel of the rinks in this final game was:

J. W. Hughes E. C. Symon
F. L. Fleming J. W. McKinlay
A. P. Knechtel T. Magladery
J. Abrams A.E. Stephenson
Skip—9 Skip—8

In the other two main events, the Canada Northern Power and the Arthur E. Moysey, Emmett Smith's rink went through without losing a game and copped the two big trophies, each with a splendid piece of silver as individual prizes, an electric percolator for the first named and a silver pitcher for the second.

In the Canada Northern the final game was played between Smith and Fred Thompson, the veteran member of the local club who had his two sons on the rink. It was a real battle fought out to the last rock. The rinks lined up as follows:

J. M. Robb H. Clifford
Geo. Sutherland R. P. Thompson
D.E. Sutherland W. R. Thompson
E. E. Smith F. Thompson
Skip—9 Skip—7

In the Moysey event the Smith rink met H. C. Dunbar in the final and scored another victory. This was the last game of the 'spiel and was played on Friday afternoon before a good gallery. The following is the composition of the Dunbar rink, Smith having the same men in the same positions as in the Canada Northern: J. D. Macdonald, lead; Fred Austin, second; L. H. Ferguson, third, and H. C. Dunbar, skip.

In the Board of Trade event, open to rinks not reaching the 'eights' in the main events, there were ten rinks. Two local fours, skipped by H. G. Pickard and Taylor Pipe, played in the preliminary with a win for Pickard, who had two local clergymen, Canon Hincks and Rev. D. A. MacKeracher, with R. Y. Campbell, in his line-up. In the first round he was defeated by Judge Hartman, with a rink from the New Liskeard club, which went through to the finish and won the event. In this round Dr. Martyn, of Englehart, defeated Montgomery of New Liskeard; McKee, North Bay, won from H. A. Carlson, Haileybury, and Wm. Lickley, New Liskeard won from John Clark, New Liskeard.

In the semi-final Judge Hartman won from Dr. Martyn and McKee won from Lickley. Mr. McKee was compelled to return home on Thursday night and defaulted the final game to the Judge. The rinks were:

Percy Knox N. S. Macdonald
W. G. Armstrong A. Freeman
C. Grills Dr. F. McKee
Hartman T. E. McKee

Win Another Game in Junior Group Race

Game Begins Like Pink Tea, but Resembles Donnybrook Before Finish

Haileybury annexed another victory in the group Junior race last Friday night at the local rink when they defeated New Liskeard 3-1 in a game that began like a pink tea and ended like a small section of the annual fall fair at Donnybrook, Ireland.

The clash was marred by the first serious casualty of the season when Kenneth McGinley, colliding with Nightingale on the New Liskeard defence, went to the ice with a broken bone in his shoulder. Dr. Arnold attended to the fracture and although McGinley is now recovering nicely, he will be out of hockey for the balance of the season. The injury was received in a legitimate body check and no penalty was imposed by the referee.

The first period enabled both teams to get some of the sloppiest and most apathetic hockey of the winter out of their systems and neither goalie was seriously threatened. New Liskeard netted the disc on one occasion, but the play was called back. Checking was close and combination was at a minimum. Martin O'Grady opened the scoring in the second frame when he took a pass from Derragh at the goal mouth and beat Lamb for a nice goal. Derragh, who played a good game throughout, again figured in a scoring play toward the end of the frame when he came down centre ice, and flipped a perfect pass to Godin, who drove an equally perfect shot, ankle high, to the corner of the net.

New Liskeard, with nothing to gain by holding back in the final chukker, launched a determined attack that pepped the game up to some considerable degree. Using a four-man forward line they battled desperately for a goal, but Hendry was encouraged by a good defence, and turned in a fine performance. Magee, playing his first Junior game, pulled a neat play by passing up to Godin on the blue line when four New Liskeard players were buzzing around the Haileybury net, and with only one defence man to beat, Godin came in to slam a hard one at Lamb. At that, the goalie took the shot only to bat the disc into the net while clearing.

Third period play was fast and rough, with a few grudges developing to the point where body checking began to pass bounds of clean hockey, but Jack Wilder tightened the reins. He handed out penalties liberally, and saved the clash from developing into a free-for-all. Penalties cost the locals a shutout as the lone New Liskeard tally was scored when Haileybury had two men in the hoosegow. Graham slipped one at Hendry from inside the blue line after the Haileybury goalie had turned aside half a dozen close-in tries.

The final period had the spectators talking to themselves, although up to that time the game had been uninteresting. New Liskeard was always dangerous and combined better than the local squad, whose lack of combination is still a big weakness. Dempster's poke checking was a feature and he broke up many opposition rushes, but offensively he was weak because of selfishness with the disc. Magee's debut performance should assure him a permanent place. Haileybury's defence heretofore has been weak, but there was nothing wrong with it on Friday night. If there are any more aspirants of his calibre waiting to catch a place on the team, the regulars will have to tend to their knitting.

The Fired Two Boilers

It was a heavy job taking care of the apartment house because she had to fire two boilers" as well as do all the sweeping and cleaning, for her husband is permanently disabled. A bad cold was the last straw that broke down her weakened constitution. Her doctor helped her get into the Toronto Hospital for Consumptives, for tuberculosis was now her trouble. Then ensued the long struggle back to health.

Not an easy one for an elderly woman weakened with years of hard work, but it is just such tasks that the skilled doctors and nurses are so often called upon to do. After some months she was discharged, practically herself again, able to take up the burden of her husband's support once more. This hospital is greatly in need of funds.
