LOCAL VETRANS BEAT LISKEARD COMRADES IN CRIBBAGE GAMES

In the first cribbage contest of the season, between the war veterans of Haileybury and their New Liskeard comrades, played one evening last week at the farming town, the men from here scored a substantial victory, winning 14 out of the 20 games played. A return match is being arranged and, while the local veterans are known to be experts, they are by no means certain that they can hold this record.

In regard to last week's contest, one hears vague accounts of someone counting a hand with "19" and one of those present even went so far as to call at this office and attempt to demonstrate on paper, how it was done. He was told that further proof would have to be forthcoming if the story was to be believed, however, and up to the present that proof has not been produced.

Survives Husband By Only Eight Days

Mrs. W. H. Jeffery passes in Toronto on Tuesday; left here on Sunday

Just eight days after the death of her husband, Mrs. W. H. Jeffery, for over twenty years a resident of Haileybury, passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Davis, in Toronto on Tuesday morning. Haileybury friends received the news of her death on Wednesday by letter from the city and, although she had been in feeble health and suffered greatly from the shock of her husband's death, it came very unexpectedly. Mrs. Jeffery had gone to Toronto on Sunday evening to stay with her sister there.

The late Mrs. Jeffery had been a resident of the North Country since 1907, when she came here with her husband in the days of the silver boom at Cobalt. She was well known to a large circle of friends and highly respected by the entire community. The death of Captain Jeffery the previous week proved a great blow to her and, although she bore it bravely, it proved too great for one of her age and feeble health. The funeral is being held in Toronto this afternoon, according to word received by friends here yesterday.

HOUSING COMMISSION DELINQUENTS GIVEN CHANCE TO MAKE GOOD

Following the announcement last week by the Haileybury Housing Commission, to the effect that all citizens in arrears with their payments would be asked to attend and make some arrangement for the re-payment of their loans under penalty of having their agreements with the town cancelled, the commission met on Monday night and interviewed the majority of those in arrears. A list of all delinquents had been prepared and each case was taken up separately and dealt with on its merits.

While no public announcement of the proceedings was made, it is understood that in the majority of cases a satisfactory arrangement was arrived at. In no case where it was shown that a householder was making an honest attempt to keep his payments up was there any harsh treatment. All who found themselves in difficulties were given an opportunity to prove their good intentions and it is expected that only in a very few instances will drastic action be necessary.

Pastor Carries On in Spite of Sprained Ankle

Although suffering with a severely sprained ankle to such an extent that he is unable to walk, Rev. A. Price, pastor of the Baptist Church here, has carried on his services each Sunday morning and evening since the accident a couple of weeks ago. Last Sunday he was taken to and from the church on a sleigh and, despite his sufferings, which anyone who has had the misfortune to sprain an ankle will know are intense, he conducted his regular services and preached his sermons.

Mr. Price is highly thought of
