

Hospital Bazaar Was a Splendid Success

Community Dinner Was Popular Feature; Prizes Were Well Distributed

The big bazaar for the benefit of the new hospital opened on Friday afternoon last with a good attendance and plenty of amusement for all present.

On Saturday evening the big community dinner proved a special attraction, the tables were well filled during the hours set apart and it appeared as though very few, if any, of the people downtown at least went home for supper.

On Tuesday evening, the final session of the big event, there was a large crowd present and there was plenty of amusement, the interest centreing towards the close on the drawings that were made for the various prizes offered.

When the drawings were made, the Hope Chest went to Miss Germaine Boileau, of Haileybury, and the other prizes were won as follows:

1. $150.00—F. Farrow, New Liskeard.

Oddfellows Observe Order's Anniversary

Attend Service at St. Paul's in Commemoration of the Founding of Society

Haileybury Oddfellows to the number of about 25, with several visitors from the Lodges of New Liskeard and Cobalt, attended divine service in St. Paul's here on Sunday evening last in celebration of the anniversary of the founding of the Order in 1811.

Rev. Canon Hincks, Rector of St. Paul's, preached on the subject of friendship, dwelling particularly on the fact that the bond of friendship, to be complete, must be reciprocal and mutual.

"Man is a social animal," Canon Hincks said, "and it is necessary that he have friends for he needs companionship, help and sympathy. The friendly attitude between the members of your Order is one of the reasons that it has made such great strides in the world."

Two great tests of friendship consisted of loyalty and self-sacrifice, the speaker said. Disloyalty was one of the most trying things to bear and the traitor was despicable.

In conclusion, the speaker reminded his hearers that there was always the friendship of One on whom they might depend and he urged that He be considered as a God and a Friend and that our part of the bond of friendship be fulfilled.

Grand Maitre, Nedelec. 14. Esmond Blanket—A. Braddette, Cochrane.

The Permanent Wave prize donated by S. R. Rouse, was won by Gary Foster, of Haileybury, who is still looking for help to collect the prize.
