Brigade Fights Fire in Fire Hall Saves Building

Boys With Matches Start Blaze in Feed Loft; Damage is Very Slight

Two small boys playing with matches were responsible for a blaze in the local fire hall on Monday afternoon, when a small quantity of hay and oats stored in a loft over the horse stable was damaged by fire and water and the roof of that part of the building also burned slightly.

Smoke was seen issuing from the building by Mrs. S. D. Briden, who lives close by on Main Street. She immediately called the telephone office and then notified Ken. Watson, the truck driver, who was in the front part of the hall at the time. The ringing of the bell brought the firemen quickly to the scene and within a half hour the blaze was under control.

Two boys were seen in the loft just about the time the fire started and Fire Chief Marcella learned their names and that they were seen with matches. The Chief gave them a lecture and let them go, but he says that they are now well warned and there is little danger of their playing the same tricks again.

Had it not been for the fact that Mrs. Briden was so close by and happened to see the smoke shortly after the blaze started, the damage would no doubt have been serious. The stable at the rear of the hall has a lower roof than the main building and the men at the front of the hall would probably not have been aware of the fire until it had got a serious start.

WEST ROAD FARMER DIED LAST WEEK IN HOSPITAL AT WESTON

John C. Fernholm, who for many years has been a resident of the West Road, died on Friday last, July 11th, in the Weston Hospital, Toronto, where he had been for about six weeks suffering from tuberculosis. He was 54 years of age and during his long residence in this district had become well known to many, both in Haileybury and the farming settlements. He was a widower, Mrs. Fernholm having died earlier in the year, and leaves a family of six, only one of whom, a daughter, Miss Anna, is grown. The remains of the late Mr. Fernholm were brought to Haileybury to the undertaking parlors of Thorpe & Branchaud, where the funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. A. Price, Pastor of the Haileybury Baptist Church, and interment was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Many friends and acquaintances were present and all extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

PASSENGER COACH IS DERAILED ON TRESTLE AND DELAYS TRAFFIC

Train No. 47, northbound, was delayed for around three hours on Tuesday, when some trouble was experienced in getting across the new trestle over the washout at Dickson's Creek. A truck of one of the passenger coaches left the rails and, on account of the position of the tracks, some 60 feet above the bottom of the ravine, great care was necessary in getting it on. This was accomplished about 2 o'clock and traffic was resumed. The trains run very slowly across the trestle, but in spite of this the accident happened.

A special train carrying Hon. G. Howard Ferguson on his speaking tour of the district, arrived in Haileybury at 1 p.m. and was held here until the trouble with the other train was overcome. The Prime Minister was driven to New Liskeard for a conference with the party heads there.

A possible serious derailment was averted by the express messenger on the train, Wilfred Dickey, of North Bay, who noticed the coach swaying and jumped for the emergency bell cord. The engineer got the signal and the train was stopped after the derailed wheels had passed over about six ties.

MINISTER OF JUSTICE TO SPEND TOMORROW IN LISKEARD AND COBALT

Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, will be the chief speaker at two meetings tomorrow, Friday, evening in this district in the interests of Col. Mac. Lang, Liberal candidate. The meetings will be held in the Classic Theatre, Cobalt, and the Empire, New Liskeard, both being called for 8.15. In addition to Mr. Lapointe Hon. Nelson Parliment will also address both meetings and there will be several local speakers present, including the candidate.

Arrangements have been made for Hon. Mr. Lapointe to give his address at one meeting and then drive to the other town in time to speak there. It has not been announced at which place he will appear first, but there will be plenty of artillery to keep both meetings going throughout the evening.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson is Speaker at Big Gathering

our own conditions, regulate the tariff from our own standpoint and keep the control in Canada.

There was no one who was more sympathetic or had done more to uphold British connections than he had, but he believed that Canada should have advantageous treatment in any agreement for inter-Empire trade and that by each unit of the Empire building up and extending its own position greater strides would be made towards the up-building of the whole. "It should be Canada for Canadians, Australia for Australians, New Zealand for New Zealanders, and no trade treaties that would allow unfair competition with the native people of any of the Dominions."

Premier Ferguson ridiculed the Dunning Budget, which had been heralded as the panacea for all ills, and which had been referred to as the "May Day" budget and the "Pay Day" budget. He termed it the "Moving Day" budget and stated that he objected very strongly to any movement which "divested the government of control of our fiscal policy." Leaders of finance in Britain, he said, had studied the situation after the budget had been passed and had come to the conclusion that the only real Empire policy was a reciprocal one.

In concluding his address, Mr. Ferguson contrasted the policy outlined by the Conservative leader, Hon. R. B. Bennett, with that of Hon. Mr. Dunning, and stated that there could be no doubt in the mind of any reasonable person as to which was the better. "We want more and better Canadian homes," he stated. "We do not want our products sent to foreign lands for manufacture and our workmen driven out of the country to seek employment. We have in this province spent huge sums in development and in building up the country and we most strongly object to having this wasted by the unwise, unpatriotic legislation passed by the government at Ottawa."
