OBITUARY

Mrs. Margaret McAulay

Particularly sad was the death, on Monday, of Mrs. Margaret McAulay, widow of the late Angus McAulay, which took place at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Boyd, in Toronto. She had been seriously ill since about the first of June and on June 26th was taken to Toronto for treatment. Following a few weeks in hospital, when it was found that there was little hope for her recovery, she was taken to the home of her sister where her death occurred.

Mrs. McAulay, who before her marriage was Miss Margaret McKee, was born in Westport, near Brockville and came to the North with her parents some 15 years ago. Following her marriage she lived in North Cobalt up to the time of leaving for the city this summer. Her husband died in December last and four small boys, Clayton, John, Boyd and Grant, are left to mourn the loss of their parents. Clayton is only nine years old and Grant is 11 months. Mrs. McAulay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McKee, two sisters, Mrs. N. J. McAulay and Mrs. J. C. Boyd, and one brother, W. J. McKee, are the surviving members of the family. They have the sincere sympathy of a great circle of friends in this district.

Mrs. McAulay was a member of the United Church and of the Rebekah Order, taking an active part in the work of both. Members of the local Rebekah Lodge lent their assistance in making the funeral arrangements and in taking care of the home at North Cobalt, where the remains were brought from the city on Tuesday. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. Fred Smith, Pastor of the Cobalt United Church, and interment was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, at Haileybury. There were many friends present to pay their last respects and a great profusion of floral tributes testified to the esteem in which Mrs. McAulay was held by all.

William Berry

A pioneer resident of Haileybury, Mr. William Berry, passed away at his home in Woodstock on Friday last, after an illness which had lasted since November, 1929, and from which there was little hope of his recovery, even in its early stages. He was 77 years of age and a brother of Messrs. John and David Berry of Haileybury.

The late Mr. Berry was born near Deseronto, Ont., and spent about 25 years of his earlier life in Wisconsin. He came to Haileybury in 1906, engaging in the building and contracting trade, and was joined shortly afterward by his brother, John. Many of the buildings which existed here before the fire of 1922 were erected by the Berry Brothers.

In 1920 Mr. Berry left the North Country and went to Woodstock. He continued active in the building trades until a few years ago and was well known there. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. R. T. Irwin of Woodstock, and by three brothers and one sister. The third brother is R. J. Berry, of Toronto, and the sister is Mrs. F. Warren, Red Deer, Alta.

The remains were brought to Haileybury on Monday for interment in the old cemetery here, where a son is buried in the family plot. The funeral was directly from the train, the service being conducted by Rev. F. Smith, of the Cobalt United Church, in the absence of Rev. D. A. MacKeracher. A large number of old friends and acquaintances attended to pay their last respects to a former neighbor and friend, and to extend their sympathy.

Mrs. Walter S. Spencer

The death of Mrs. Walter Spencer, formerly of North Cobalt, took place at the Red Cross Hospital, Kirkland Lake, on July 14, after an illness which lasted a few days only. She had suffered an infection from mosquito bite which resulted in her death. She was well known and esteemed by a large number of friends there, in addition to those who had known her during her residence in Cobalt and North Cobalt.

Before her marriage Mrs. Spencer was Miss Edith Blanche Stuckey, of Cobalt. She was a member of the Anglican Church and of the Rebekah Order and was an active worker in both organizations.

The funeral, which was held on July 16th at Kirkland Lake, was conducted by Rev. E. Dymond, Rector of St. Peter's Church, after the impressive funeral rites of the Rebekah Order had been solemnized at her late home.

Mrs. Spencer is survived by her husband and two children, Margaret, aged 14, and Buddy, 7; also three brothers, Vincent Stuckey, of Silver Centre; Harry, relieving agent on the T. & N. O. Railway, and George, in England. There are also four sisters surviving, Mrs. B. Williams, East Windsor; Mrs. A. Williams, Haileybury; Mrs. W. Harrill and Miss Lucy, in England.

Many friends of the family in the district deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones.

James McCrea

James McCrea of BostonCreek a well known prospector and the principal owner of the Boston-McCrea Mines, died suddenly at Kirkland Lake on Saturday afternoon. He had gone to the mining town to spend a day or two and on Saturday he complained of not feeling well. He lay down in the afternoon and died in his sleep.

The late Mr. McCrea was between 40 and 50 years of age and had lived in Boston Creek and other parts of the district for many years. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Ethel McFarlane, of Cobalt. The funeral was held on Tuesday.

Mrs. Damase Gauthier

A resident of Cobalt for the past 25 years, Mrs. Damase Gauthier, aged 60 years, died on Saturday last after a long illness from heart trouble. She had been in poor health for about four years.

Mrs. Gauthier was a sister of Fred LaRose, whose early connection with the development of the Cobalt camp gave his name to the LaRose Mine. She is survived by her husband and a grown-up family. The funeral was held on Monday from St. Therese's Church, with interment in the Roman Catholic Cemetery at 104.
