A. S. Macdonald Died Suddenly While on Train

Succumbs to Heart Attack While en Route to Haileybury From Toronto

Archibald S. Macdonald, a well known citizen of Haileybury up to last year, passed away suddenly early Saturday morning last on the train by which he was coming from Toronto to Haileybury. He had suffered an illness from heart trouble over a year ago, and had not entirely recovered, although recently he had been feeling much better than for months previous. He was in his 49th year.

The late Mr. Macdonald was born in Richmond, Quebec, and was a veteran of the great war. He served overseas as a Captain in the R.C.H.A. and on his return spent some time in Vancouver, B.C., coming to the North Country as a representative of Peacock Brothers, an English machinery firm, in 1920. He lived in Haileybury from that time until last fall, when with Mrs. Macdonald he moved to Toronto.

Shortly before his death he had decided to move to Ottawa and had accepted a position with the Hull Iron and Steel Works. Mrs. Macdonald had come to Haileybury for a visit and he was on his way to join her here when his death occurred.

Surviving are his widow, who was formerly Miss Theodora Carlisle, of Vancouver, and one daughter, Charlotte, aged eight. A sister, Mrs. Alexander, of Richmond, Que., and a brother, James N. Macdonald of Elbourne, Sask., also survive. Mrs. Alexander was in Haileybury for the funeral and is staying with Mrs. Macdonald for a time.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon under the auspices of Haileybury Lodge A. F. & A. M., of which deceased was a member, and was attended by many old friends here. The ser-

Bereaved Family Extends Thanks for Kindness Shown

Miss Anna Fernholm, the eldest of six children who have within the past few months suffered a double bereavement in the death of both their mother and father, has written the following letter of thanks to all relatives and friends who have shown them kindness and sympathy:

"Following the death of my father, Mr. J. C. Fernholm, I wish to express my sincere thanks to all the relatives and friends who were so kind to us in our bereavement. To those who came to pay a last tribute to my father and sent so many beautiful flowers, we are very grateful. It is only a little while since we lost our loving mother and father and, as we are six children left behind, the world seems very empty. Our hope is that God will provide for us and that we shall meet our dear parents again on the Resurrection Morning."

ANNA FERNHOLM

vice was conducted in St. Paul's Church and at the graveside by Rev. Canon Hincks and the last Masonic Rites were observed both at the home and the cemetery by the brethren of the Lodge. The pallbearers were Messrs. G. H. Dickson, H. Jemmett, F. Carnegie, Leo Erenhouse, F. H. Todd and J. Denne.

Card of Thanks

The members of the family of the late Mrs. McNeely wish to extend their sincere thanks to their many friends for the great kindness and sympathy shown in their recent bereavement.
