Decoration Day to be Observed by Canadian Legion

Will Honor Memory of Those Who Have Gone in Ceremony on Sunday Next

On Sunday next, August 17th, Haileybury Branch of the Canadian Legion will hold their annual Decoration Day Service in memory of the men who have given their lives in their country's cause during the years of the Great War. The service, as in past years, will be held at the Memorial Plot on Main Street, where the veterans will gather at 2.30 and where it is hoped a large number of the citizens will be present.

In connection with this service, members of the Legion would be grateful for offers of flowers from citizens. It is planned to decorate every known grave of a soldier in the three local cemeteries, besides the offerings that will be placed on the memorial itself. If those who can spare flowers will kindly telephone either 248 or 29 on Saturday, the bouquets will be called for.

The officers of the Legion will welcome cadets or members of the 97th Algonquin Rifles who wish to come and join in the parade. The meeting place is in the Legion Club Room on Browning Street and the hour is 2 p.m. The men will march from there to the Memorial Plot for the service at 2.30. All graves will be decorated previous to that time. The public is cordially invited to come and join with the veterans in their service of Remembrance.
