Public School Closing Concert Being Held This Afternoon

The annual closing entertainment by pupils of the public school is being held this afternoon in the Broadway Theatre. Parents of the children have been invited and a splendid program, consisting of music, songs, recitations and one or two short plays, has been prepared. These annual entertainments are very interesting to the grown-ups who can attend and give a great deal of real enjoyment to the children. The program this year is particularly a good one.

Christmas Entertainment Held at United Church

The annual Christmas entertainment for the primary classes in the United Church Sunday School was held on Tuesday evening, when about 70 of the little ones, with their mothers, gathered in the church. There was a very pleasant evening spent, with a Christmas Tree, Santa Claus and everything and a program by the kiddies was heartily enjoyed. One little tot, who was loudly applauded after giving a recitation, was told by her mother that she was to give an encore, when she said "I can't do that, but I'll say another piece."
