

News Photos and Cartoons for Readers of The Haileyburian

Their Excellencies in Vice-Regal Attire

Viscount and Lady Willingdon in state dress, from a very recent photograph. His Excellency will leave Canada for India in March, though his full term as Governor-General of Canada does not expire until next August. —Photo by John Powis, Ottawa.

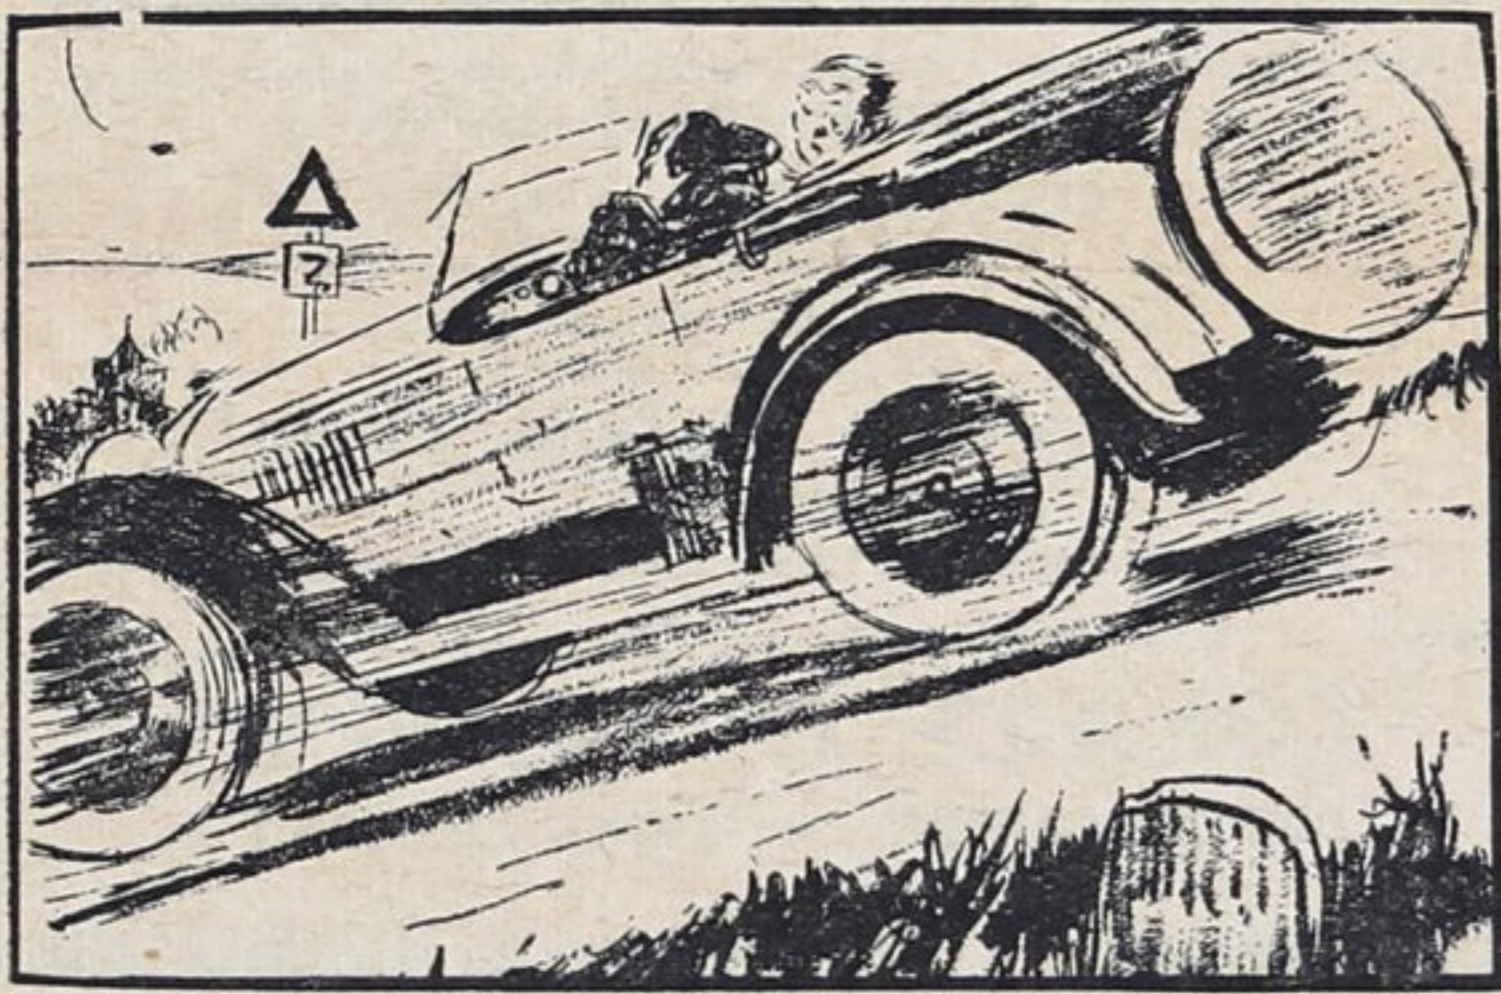

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Famous British Flier Reaches Vancouver

Hon. Mrs. Victor Bruce, famous British lady aviator, who is attempting to fly around the world, is here seen being decorated with a lucky token by Miss Eileen Dodge, Secretary of the Women's Aeronautical Association of Vancouver, on the occasion of the British flier's arrival at the Pacific City.

DRIVER: "I should like nothing better than to leave my job in the city and bury myself in the country down here!"
PASSENGER: "Well, if you don't slow down a bit on this hill you're practically certain to realize your ambition!"
—The Humorist, London

THE TIMELY ARRIVAL OF EINSTEIN
—Shoemaker, in the Chicago Daily News

Baden Powell Christens Scout Engine

Two new British Railway engines of the "Royal Scot" class named "The Boy Scout" and "The Girl Guide," have just been built in the Motherland and Sir Robert Baden Powell is here seen unveiling the plaque on the "Boy Scout" engine. Next to him is Sir Josiah Stamp.

Eton Stages Its Annual Freak Game

Above is a picture showing a bunch of hustling, scrambling, muddy Etonians playing their favorite pastime, the Wall Game. To understand the rules you must go to the famous English college and after studying the rules of soccer, rugby, hockey, lacrosse and all the other games you will be able to follow with interest this Wall Game which Eton claims for its own.