

Haileybury in 1924

Items from the Files of The Haileyburian of Seven Years Ago

Mayor G. F. Summers has been re-elected for 1924 and there are eight candidates running for the six seats on the council.

Services will be held for the first time in the new St. Paul's Anglican Church on Sunday, January 6th.

According to Mr. Geo. T. Smith the lake was open until Christmas Day 40 years ago, but not since that time, so it is safe to say that the date of the freeze-up this year, December 30th, is a record.

At the evening service last Sunday, Rev. J. O. Watts gave an explanation of the position re the point of view of the whole gardening Church Union, both from Dominion and that of the local Church.

Haileybury has fallen into line with Cobalt and North Bay as approving the route of the proposed highway from the latter city via Temagami and Cobalt into this section of the North. A resolution to that effect was passed at a special meeting of the council.

Flowers, motor cars and golf marked Christmas in the North this year. Pansies bloomed in a garden at Timmins, a motorist drove from Matheson to Iroquois Falls and Judge Hayward played a round of golf on the course here on December 24th.

As In Venice

No need to go to Venice now!
The city pavements stream With rain; the auto's shining prow
Speeds on through streets
aglean

The traffic signals, green and red,
Go climbing up the hill;
Block after block the glow ahead And quivering, never still.

Along the incline black and steep,
Their clear reflections play,
As in Venetian water deep Gondolas' lanterns sway.

Across the lights the swooping rain Flings lances, swift and bright,
And, as in Venice, once again,
I float into the night.

O ancient city, famed and fair,
I glimpse, an instant's space,
The garb of beauty which you wear,
The wonder of your face!

Contrast

Winter is walking down the world today,
Wrapped up in ermine cape,
with staff of oak,
Bare as the forests shivering on his way Whose icy petals fall upon his cloak.

The land is all asleep, the farmhouse sends A shuddering wisp of smoke to leaden skies,
And, as dim day with vague reluctance ends, Stars lend a splendor that the sun denies.

Winter today is ruler of the land, Yet in my heart, the primrose blooms anew;
Joy's sceptre flowers in my happy hand,
My mind's domain is sweet with thoughts of you;
Why should we heed old Winter's chill and dearth
When in our spirits well this April mirth?

A valuable violin, said to be over one hundred and fifty years old, is the object of a search by the police of Noranda, who have a warrant for the arrest of one Mike Yoworskie, who is believed to have stolen it.

Coming Attractions at the Classic Theatre, Cobalt, Ont.

"Maybe It's Love," romance of college days with a cast headed by Joan Bennett, Joe E. Brown, and James Hall, is the attraction at the Classic Fri. and Sat., Jan. 2nd and 3rd. A fast moving story of campus life, it presents one of the most authentic pictures of undergraduate days.

No actress in recent years has attained such fame, success and such world-wide acclaim after having made but one picture as has Marilyn Miller. Miss Miller will appear in her second talkie, "Sunny" from one of her famous stage successes at the Classic, Mon. and Tues., Jan. 5th and 6th. Unfolding a real mystery of identification mingled with a very poignant drama, "Road to Paradise" plays the Classic Wed. and Thurs., Jan. 7th and 8th. Loretta Young plays the dual role in this picture and does it with a wistful charm and tenderness which will stamp her as one of screenland's leading actresses; on the same program with "A Throw of Dice," a story of India, love and adventure, the greatest sound spectacle yet.

Advertised Goods Are Lower

ADVERTISING turns over stocks rapidly, and therefore multiplies profits. This means that prices in a shop which advertises can be short rather than long

Of this you may be sure: Prices in a shop which advertises are not MORE than in a shop which does not advertise. The chances are that they are oftentimes lower.

This, also, is generally true: You will find better goods, better values and better service in those shops which turn over their stocks rapidly. This means, as a general thing, shops which advertise.

A Note to Merchants

Advertising costs you nothing—it is paid for by the profits on increased sales

Advertising is easy—it is simply saying in writing what you say to the customers in your shop. Turn over stocks quickly, if you would make more money.
