THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

Violin

Speak to me, voice divine,
 Telling of words unguessed;
 Stir those vague dreams of mine,
 Longed for, but not possessed!

Sing of bright realms afar
 Where yet no step has pressed;
 Regions no care can mar,
 Longed for, but not possessed!

Mimic the skylark's note,
 Or the tide coming in;
 Out of your golden throat
 Sing to me, violin!

Whisper of love serene,
 Passionless, free from sin!
 Murmur what peace might mean;
 Sing to me, violin!

Dominion Stores Purely Canadian in All Respects

Personnel From President Down Canadian or British Born Empire Preference

"Dominion Stores is Canadian in management and personnel from the President down to the junior clerks, and is not affiliated with any other company in Canada, the United States or elsewhere. Its shareholders' list includes numerous shareholders residing outside of Canada, but this same situation as to shareholders is equally true in the case of most large Canadian companies."

This emphatic statement came to-day from Morley Smith, vice-president and treasurer of Dom-

RELEASED BY SCARED KIDNAPPERS

Relieved to be back home after harrowing experience in the hands of kidnapers, who threatened to blind her if $75,000 ransom were not paid for her release, Mrs. Nell Quinlan Donnelly is shown with her chauffeur, George Blair, in her Kansas City home after being freed by their abductors. Police believe the desperadoes were frightened by the amount of publicity their crime received and abandoned their plans. Kidnapping is punishable by death in Missouri.

inion Stores Limited. "We are proud," continued Mr. Smith, "that Dominion Stores Limited is not only Canada's largest retail grocers, but also that this forefront position has been achieved under Canadian Management with a personnel consisting wholly of Canadians, either native or British born." "A steadfast policy of Dominion Stores Limited" he added, "is to purchase and distribute Canadian produced merchandise wherever practicable, to the exclusion of foreign merchandise. Our purchases from other countries are confined largely to commodities such as spices and tropical fruits, which are not produced in this country at all. Moreover, so far as practicable, we buy within the British Empire those goods which are not available in Canada, rather than purchase them in the country to the South of us, or other foreign countries. We buy enormous quantities of such articles as bananas, raisins, dried fruits, oranges and grapefruit from the British West Indies, Australia or South Africa. These Empire-produced goods are of excellent quality, and are giving entire satisfaction to our customers." Mr. Smith went on to say that Dominion Stores now has more people on its payroll than at any previous time in its history. The company has opened around 35 additional stores this year, and this has given employment not only to more store managers and clerks, but to larger warehouse and office staffs. It has also employed more labor as a result of enlarging many stores for the installation of meat markets and otherwise. In every instance this has meant more employment in the town or city in which the store is located. "Dominion Stores Limited is one of the few large companies", Mr. Smith added "which has not reduced wages. The annual payroll of the Company is now almost $3,000,000.00.

Hope springs not from what we've done, but from the work we've just begun.
