

Haileybury in 1924

Items from the Files of The Haileyburian of Seven Years Ago

The newly organized baseball club is making preparations for a regular old time sports day, to be held on the King's birthday, June 3rd, at Lakeview Park.

Fire badly damaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harris, Lake Shore Road, the second blaze that has visited their home since the big fire of October, 1922

The Haileybury fire brigade is highly pleased with the present of a fine new clock for the fire hall, which was given them by A. W. Sanderson last week.

Officials of the Children's Aid Society are assured of the early re-establishment of the Childrens Shelter here.

A flock of chickens belonging to J. D. Macdonald was left home less when the brooder in which they were being reared caught fire from the oil lamp used to furnish heat.

Mr. Jas. R. Dey, of the boiler inspection staff of the department of Labor, will be located in Haileybury for several months, it is stated, and his location here may be permanent.

Hold Lodge of Instruction on Monday at New Liskeard

The annual Lodge of Instruction of the Oddfellows of this district will be held on Monday next May 25th, at New Liskeard. In previous years this event has been held on Good Friday, but a change was made this year.

There will be an evening session only this year, as only two lodges, Cobalt and Englehart, will enter the competition. The New Liskeard Lodge will be the hosts at a banquet at 6 o'clock in the basement of the Anglican Church and visiting Oddfellows are asked to meet at the lodge room at 5.30. The lodge session and competition will follow the banquet. There will be no meeting of Haileybury Lodge on that evening.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

The Reason

Sometimes, when cares and sorrows come
To cloud the light of day,
We hear the sufferers complain
That grief has dimmed their way;
And bitterly they voice their woe
At life so strangely marred:
"We might have borne all other loss;
But this . . . it is too hard!"

Yet often those so crushed and torn
By cruel hurts will find
After the flight of many years,
Their pangs not all unkind
A secret compensation lay
Deep-hidden in their pain;
They grew more calm, more brave and wise
To face the fight again.

They learned at last that troubles came
Or loss their pathway barred
To prove the courage that was theirs,
And show no plight too hard.

The Star

Down the winding road I go,
Following a star;
Lovely, luring, is its glow—
Far, oh, very far!

Plodding slowly through the dawn,
Plodding through the dusk,
Patient, weary, I have gone,
Life an empty husk.

Life a burden, life a task
Heavy hands must bear;
Yet the star is all I ask—
Fair, oh, very fair!

So through all the by-gone years
Of this life of mine
Though I scanned the sky
Through tears,
Still my star would shine;

Still I saw its silver gleam;
Still its glamor led
Down the winding road, a dream
Beaming just ahead.

ORE SHIPMENTS

During the period April 17th to May 15th, 1931, there were 13 cars of ore shipped from Cobalt mines, according to the statement issued this week by the T. & N.O. Railway. The total weight of the ore was 939,105 pounds. Of these the Mining Corporation shipped four cars, Nipissing and D. L. Jemmett three each, the O'Brien two and the Temiskaming Test. Lab., one. Six cars were shipped to Montreal, five to Deloro, one to Mar-mora and one to Tadanac.

ON THE LAST LAP OF A LONG JOURNEY

The Prince of Wales and Prince George caught in unconventional poses as they arrived at Bordeaux Aerodrome, France, prior to a flight to England and home. Their Royal Highnesses have travelled almost forty thousand miles on a good-will tour of South American countries. When the photographer made this shot Prince George was having a brief coughing spell, hence the odd expression on his face.

The collection contains twenty samples, including galena sphalerite, chalcopyrite, corundum, chromite, stibnite, and others of economic importance.

Many prospectors from different parts of Canada have obtained these collections from the Geological Survey and have found them a great aid. The price is fifty cents per set, postage prepaid. Applications accompanied by a remittance of 50 cents in the form of a money order should be addressed to The Director, Geological Survey, Department of Mines, Ottawa. The money order should be made payable to the Receiver General of Canada.

This collection of mineral chips is also used for blow pipe work in high schools and universities. A prospector's set of rock chips
