

Elwyn Jamieson Hockey Trainer Dies Suddenly

Had Coached Haileybury Team and For Years Handled
South Porcupine

Haileybury people learned with regret of the sudden death of Elwyn Jamieson, who spent a year here during the hockey season of 1928-1929 in charge of the senior team in the N.O.H.A. The following account of his death is from the Ottawa Journal:

TIMMINS, Ont., May 31.—The hockey world of Northern Ontario received a stunning blow today in the death of Elwyn Jamieson at Owen Sound, his former home.

Mr. Jamieson has been for several years the well-known coach of the Porcupine senior hockey team, and he succeeded in taking the "Porkys" into the Allan Cup play-offs at Toronto in two seasons.

He left them in 1928 to take charge of the Haileybury seniors but returned to the Porcupine camp for the following season. Mr. Jamieson with his wife and family, went south to Owen Sound last Sunday for a visit and his sudden death was unexpected coming as a great shock to his wide circle of friends in the north.

The loss of such an outstanding figure in winter sport leaves a gap that will be hard to fill, and widespread sympathy is expressed for his sorrowing relatives.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

Within

What is the cause of Rapture or pain?
Who has decreed your Loss or your gain?
Why are days shadowed?
Why are days bright?
Whence came your portion,
Grief or delight?

Questions keep welling
Up in your heart;
Why do your cherished
Treasures depart?

Still is the answer
As it has been:
Still good and evil
Comes from within.
In your soul's soil grow
Flower or weed;
Yours is the thought that Planted the seed.

Immortality

Some are content to think they will arise
To greet the sun again long ages
hence
In distant regions and in other guise,
Made quick once more in all their elements.
A part of one in some aspiring pine
May cast its shade where joyous lovers stray;
A part in rose-red sea-weed may entwine
The coral reefs that pave a tropic bay.

But other immortality I ask;
One having source in old, familiar ways,
I would take up again the cherished task
That filled my hours in bright, earthly days.
And any heaven would be a bar-ren place
Without the light of my beloved's face.
