Library Report Shows Splendid Gifts of Books

Recent Donations Add Hundred and Fifty Volumes; Now Open Twelve Months

The monthly report from the Library shows that 150 books have been added during the last month. This is as a result of two splendid donations.

The Falkland Chapter of the I. O. D. E. in Ottawa, through the good services of Mrs. Rupert Broadfoot, the Education secretary of that organization, sent up 54 volumes, all in excellent condition. The majority of these are good class fiction, which with a few juvenile and non-fiction make a really fine donation, which will be much appreciated by the members of the library.

The Rev. D. A. MacKeracher, who was a member of the Library Board, sent along 86 books as a parting gift before leaving for Unionville. Not only will the members of the library appreciate this donation, but will also recognize with gratitude the services Mr. MacKeracher has rendered to the Library since its formation last year. In addition to the above, the Board has also placed an order for books, some of which have been received.

It is now twelve months since the library opened, and it is interesting to notice that during this time, 9,410 books have been issued. As there are only just over 2000 volumes in the library, this figure demonstrates the appreciation and patronage the library is receiving, and the need it is filling in the town.

Dismiss Charge of Recklessness Against Drivers

(Continued from Page 1) came the car of L. T. Stadelman, Cobalt. Edwards turned into the store lot and exchanged greetings with Welsh, while Foley continued across the intersection on his way north. He was almost over the road when his car was struck in its rear spring by the truck, and the lighter machine went into the ditch and turned over. It developed in police evidence, incidentally, that each of the four roads which comes to this corner is of a different width.

According to Mr. Stadelman, the truck was proceeding at a speed of between 25 and 30 miles an hour, and this witness thought that Foley had speeded up somewhat as he reached the crossroads. Foley went into the box and swore that, although he had seen the Stadelman car, he had not noticed the truck driven by Welsh. The speed of his car was estimated at about 25 miles an hour at the time. It had not been possible to make a detailed examination of this machine by the police, owing to the damage it sustained when it went into the ditch. Provincial police officers who investigated the case were Sergeant George Delves, of district headquarters at Cobalt, and Constable H. R. Allsopp, the road patrol officer.

Conservative Likely Winner in Norfolk Bye-Election

Latest radio reports last night indicate that the Conservative candidate, Dr. Burke, was a likely winner in the Norfolk bye-election, held yesterday to fill the vacancy in the Legislature caused by the death of Hon. John S. Martin, formerly Minister of Agriculture. The figures given in the broadcast were:
Burke, Cons. ----- 5,710
Cross, Lib. ----- 5,554
It was stated that the Independent candidate had lost his deposit.

NOTICE!

Personnel and Men of B Company, Algonquin Regiment, will have to return their equipment and clothing to the armories, at Haileybury, by July 15th. The armories will be open on Friday, Monday and Wednesday, from 7.30 to 8.30.

This must be taken as a command.

O. C. "B" Company.

ALGONQUIN REGIMENT TO HAVE TRAINING CAMP IN DISTRICT LATER ON

A short period of training is to be arranged for the local company of the Algonquin Regiment and a camp will be held in the next few weeks, according to Captain Chas. Eplett, officer commanding the company. The arrangements have not been completed, but the O.C. has issued an order, notice of which will be found in another column, to the effect that all equipment and clothing in the possession of the personnel must be returned to the armories here by July 15th, in order that all property of the company may be checked prior to the holding of the camp.

The money provided for the training of the militia this year has been reduced to such an extent that a brigade camp cannot be held. The period of training will be short, it is stated, but the boys will be given a few days under canvas and some work carried out. Particulars will be published later.

Ship Beer by Truck From Sudbury to Haileybury

A large truck, carrying 375 cartons of beer from the Sudbury Brewing Company, made the trip from that city to Haileybury in just eight hours on Monday. This is the first shipment by that means in the North, but it is expected that other concerns will follow the Sudbury company's example. According to C. H. Liddicot, manager of the local warehouse, there is a considerable saving effected by the truck shipment, both in time and money. The 375 cartons constituted half a car load.

Haileybury Artist Wins Prizes in Manitoba Show

Mr. B. W. Hartley, of Haileybury, was again successful in winning three first prizes at the annual art exhibition held recently in Manitoba. These were awarded him for water colors, portrait in pencil and landscape in pencil, and those who know something of Mr. Hartley's talents will not be surprised at his success. Owing to his work in the physical training classes during the year, he has not had much time for painting and drawing and is to be congratulated on the results of the exhibition.

Coming Attractions at the Empire Theatre, Liskeard

The most intelligent and best liked in Hollywood, is the distinction won by Ann Harding, who heads the all-star cast coming to the Empire Friday and Saturday, July 10-11 in the Fox movietone romantic drama, "East Lynne" A drama that stirs the heart of humanity.

An interesting sidelight on Joan Crawford's latest talkie, "Dance Fools Dance" which plays Monday and Tuesday, July 13-14. A large supporting cast includes Lester Vail, William Bakewell, Cliff Edwards and many others. Based upon a thrilling Chicago gangster story by Aurania Rouverol.

John Boles shares with Evelyn Laye, the English light opera star and the stellar honors of "One Heavenly Night" which comes to the Empire Wednesday and Thursday, July 15-16. Said to be one of the most frolicsome romantic comedies that has been produced for the screen.

Orangemen Hear Historic Sermon By New Minister

Large Gathering for Annual Church Parade Here on Sunday Evening

Members of the Orange Order, ladies of the L.O.B.A. and Orange Young Britons were present in the United Church here on Sunday evening for their annual attendance at Divine Service, which is held each year towards the time of the celebration of July 12th. There was a large gathering of the members of the lodges and, with the regular congregation, the church was well filled. Special hymns and anthems by the choir featured the service.

The service by the new minister, Rev. W. A. Beecroft, B.A., B.

D., was one that was particularly interesting to the members of the Orange Order. He sketched the history of christianity from the early days, showed the part the Order had taken in the upholding of the principles of protestantism and outlined the aims and objects of this widespread society. The religious phase of the Order was particularly stressed by Rev. Beecroft and the members were given a clear vision of what Orangemen should be in order to properly fulfil their obligations.

This was Rev. Beecroft's first Sunday in the Haileybury Church. He arrived in town last week to take Rev. D. A. MacKeracher's place here, the latter having gone to Unionville, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Newlands, with their son and daughter, Jimmie and Annie, of Toronto, formerly of Haileybury, are renewing acquaintances in town.

DADDY DOES THE TRICK

In all the millions that followed the progress of Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, who flew around the world in nine days, none were more intimately interested than the group presented here. Mrs. Harold Gatty, wife of the flier, with her three children, Alan, five years old; Lindsay, three, and Ronald, who is nearly two. They were confident "Daddy" would get back home in "Winnie Mae" after the strenuous flight.
