

Show Effects of Hard Battle at Kirkland Lake

Haileybury Prospectors Dropped 4-1 Game at Liskeard on Tuesday Night

Haileybury Prospectors dropped a 4-1 game to New Liskeard Juniors in the Farming Town on Tuesday night after sixty minutes of uninteresting hockey. With the locals still showing the effects of their hard battle in Kirkland Lake the previous Saturday night, New Liskeard was little better and at times the game developed into shilly. Neither team evinced the fighting spirit that made the recent 90-minute soft-ice battle here so memorable.

New Liskeard tallied once in the first period from a scramble in front of the net, when a loose puck slipped beneath Lemay's arm, as he was lying prone on the ice after stopping a fusillade of close-in shots. Durrell and Morris checked in counters in the second period, Durrell on a shot from beyond the blue line and Morris on a lone rush down the right lane, terminating in a hard drive that beat Lemay at an angle. Frost tallied in the final period from immediately in front of the Haileybury net after a scramble. Page paved the way for Haileybury's only goal in the last frame, when he brought Hansman to his knees with a close-in drive and Sutherland shoved the loose puck over the line before Hansman could clear.

Lemay was the best man on the ice for the locals and turned in his usual fine game in the nets. Page was the pick of the players out front. Haileybury's regular forward line was away off color and the defence gave Lemay little protection. The players showed a tendency to bunch and although Elliott worked hard at centre he had no chance to make plays because the wings either lagged or skaed offside. Haileybury's goal came when Frost was serving a three-minute stretch in the penalty box and the Prospectors should have checked in a couple more, but their shooting was terrible. Hansman had only a few hard drives to handle.

Bert Ough handled the game and dished out seven penalties, Provost drawing three for crude checking, and Frost two for his usual slashing and tripping.

More practice seems to be the need of the local squad and Coach Austin is putting them through their paces in preparation for the game with Cobalt here on Friday night. Although the Prospectors were beaten by the Silver Town team in the opening game of the season, they have good hopes of taking them into camp tomorrow night and it is expected that there will be a good crowd on hand.

The good old easy-going days when the visiting team could get to their dressing-room without appeasing the sentinels at the gate with passwords, countersigns and cold cash are evidently disappearing. New Liskeard, with a brand new rink and a highly efficient rink manager who is showing them how it is done in the cities, has gone Big Town. Haileybury Juniors were kept standing in the snow outside the Liskeard rink Tuesday night until the arrival of the coach and manager—because they didn't have tickets. They weren't allowed into the rink until the team mentors duly arrived and received the pasteboards which were solemnly handed back to the gateman, under the diligent supervision of the rink manager. Such metropolitan ways caught the humble County Seaters so completely by surprise that they were not prepared for the innovation which limited the number of free tickets, and since the team carried a timekeeper and rubber, two of the boys who have been turning out for practices but have not yet made the squad, the coach and manager enjoyed the novel experience of buying their own tickets at the box office. The local Junior Hockey Club, which may be poor but is not tight-fisted, will reimburse the officials, of course, and charge it all up to education in the ultra-modern ways being introduced to the backward hinterland by the Farming Town.

THE HARD HITTING RIGHT WINGER

Here is a close-up of Charlie Conacher, the hard fighting right winger of the Toronto Maple Leafs, who is proving the bad man of the League so far as opposing defencemen are concerned. He is in the top flight of scorers and so far has scored more goals than any other forward in the National League. He is a member of the "Kid" forward line, with Primeau and Jackson as his mates.

Juniors Lose to Gold Miners by 12 Goals to 3

Kirkland Lake Piles Up Big Score When Haileybury Goalie Hurt by Puck

Out-scored, out-played, out-luckied, but game to the core, the Haileybury Juniors went down to defeat at the hands of the Kirkland Legion team on Saturday night by the score of 12 to 3. Haileybury has a team of youngsters who are just breaking in, and while it is admitted even by the most rabid supporters from the District Seat that Kirkland Lake have one sweet team, the youngsters, when on the ice paid no attention to the reputation of their opponents, but just sailed in and took their bumps with a smile and even when a few off-side plays resulted in goals they never raised a holler.

An unfortunate accident to George Lemay, the goalie, about halfway through the first period had a demoralizing effect on the play of the Prospectors. The score was 2-0 at the time, and Dickenson had worked his way to the defence and shot a high hard on. The puck struck the netminder on the forehead, opening up a cut that required medical attention. His place was taken for the rest of the period by Burns, and it was while he was in the nets that the majority of the goals were scored. Lemay came back at the commencement of the second period, but appeared "puck shy," but even at that he stopped plenty.

Poppleton was the scoring ace of the game with four to his credit. Porcheron was responsible for two, while Ash, McKeown, Sampson, Kenty and Gleason got one each. For Haileybury, Elliott, Valentine and Provost found the twine. Art Throop handled the game, calling only six penalties, Kirkland getting four and Haileybury two. Art is not keeping up with the play in the way he used to, and several of the winners' goals were made on palpable off-sides. The line-up: Kirkland Lake—Gosselin, goal; Dickenson and Porcheron, defence; Kenty, centre; Poppleton and Ash, wings; Briden, Sampson, McKeown and Gleason, alternates. Haileybury—Lemay, goal; La-

COMING STAR

Bob Gracie, youthful forward, who was signed on by the Toronto Maple Leafs at the end of last season, is proving his worth. As a member of the Finnigan-Darraugh forward line the former North Bay boy is getting quite a bit of action this season.

Carte and Prevost, defence; Elliott, centre; Burton and Valentine. Sutherland, Day, Page, McLaughlan, Burns, alternate.

Clifford Wins Competition in Haileybury Revolver Club

In the competition of the Haileybury Revolver Club, H. Clifford's team had the high score and were awarded ash trays as their prizes. The other members of the team are Thompson, Morton, Whorley and Mosher. The Club has selected the following members to shoot in the D.C.R.A., as they had the highest scores in the competition: Dr. Lyon, F. R. Bertrand, Inspector Creasy, Roy Thompson, L. Morton and J. W. N. Bell. They will shoot eighteen rounds at three targets on January 29th, February 29th and March 29th. Provincial Constable Pretorius has been elected Range Officer.

Senior Game on Monday Night Won by Cobalt

Puck Rebounds off Back Screen and Drops Into Goal for Winning Counter

A lucky rebound from the wire screen back of the goal gave Cobalt Seniors the winning tally in their game with Haileybury here on Monday night. The score was 6-5.

Carl Hutt, playing his first game this year, started a rush from his own blue line, eluded a couple of forwards and let fly from about fifty feet in front of the local net. His shot was very high and hit the wire screen, then bounced onto the Haileybury goalie's back and thence into the net.

Cobalt presented a re-vamped line-up with Gordy Gauthier in goal, Joe Southall and Carl Hutt on defence, and two juniors, Morin and Carboneau, on the front line, and seemed to go much better than in previous starts.

Haileybury started each period strong but faded towards the end, and the regular front line were so closely checked that they were only dangerous on a few occasions. Bagshaw and Renaud, the sturdy defence duo, did the bulk of the scoring, each notching two tallies. Renaud's first was a beautiful corkscrew rush which terminated with the puck in the twine, after eluding the whole Cobalt squad. Bagshaw's second was a beauty also. Going down right boards it looked as though he had been effectively skated into an impossible sooting angle, but Bill's backhand shot caught the far upper corner of the twine for a pretty goal. The fifth Haileybury counter came on a passing play between O'Grady and Derrough, the latter getting the goal from a few feet out.

Wright scored Cobalt's first in a minute after the opening bell, letting fly from the blue line to beat St. Louis. Morin and Southall combined for the second with the former netting Joe's pass. The other Junior, Carboneau, got Cobalt's third on a smart shot from a bad angle, and Len Nolan hit the twine on a slow lift from a scramble twenty feet out.

Carboneau and Southall combined for Cobalt's fifth midway in the second frame, and Carl Hutt's lucky hoist finished the tallying.

Harry McKnight, New Liskeard, handled the game in first class style, very strict on off sides and checking every attempt at illegal play. He handed out an even dozen penalties with Haileybury receiving eight of them. Bagshaw and Renaud each spent time in the hoosgow three times, while Dempster and Derrough drew the other pair. Morin drew two while Southall Wright divided the other pair of penalties awarded to Cobalt.
