

News Photos and Cartoons for Readers of The Haileyburian

HEAD BRITISH REPARATIONS DELEGATION

Sir John Simon, British Foreign Minister (left), and Right Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer (right), who will lead the British delegation to the Reparations Conference at Lausanne, according to reports from London.

HERR HITLER AS BRIDAL GUEST

It is hard to imagine the doughty Adolf Hitler, leader of Germany's National Socialist Party, in the role of a follower of Cupid. But here he is shown aiding and abetting the little god with the bow and arrow. The photograph shows Dr. Goebbels, prominent in Hitler's Fascists, leaving Church following his marriage to Magda Quanti, in the little village of Severin. Walking beside the bridegroom is the son of his new bride, while Hitler is in the rear. Note the Fascists who lined the bridal route giving the familiar salute.

BEAUTY BETROTHED TO BRITON

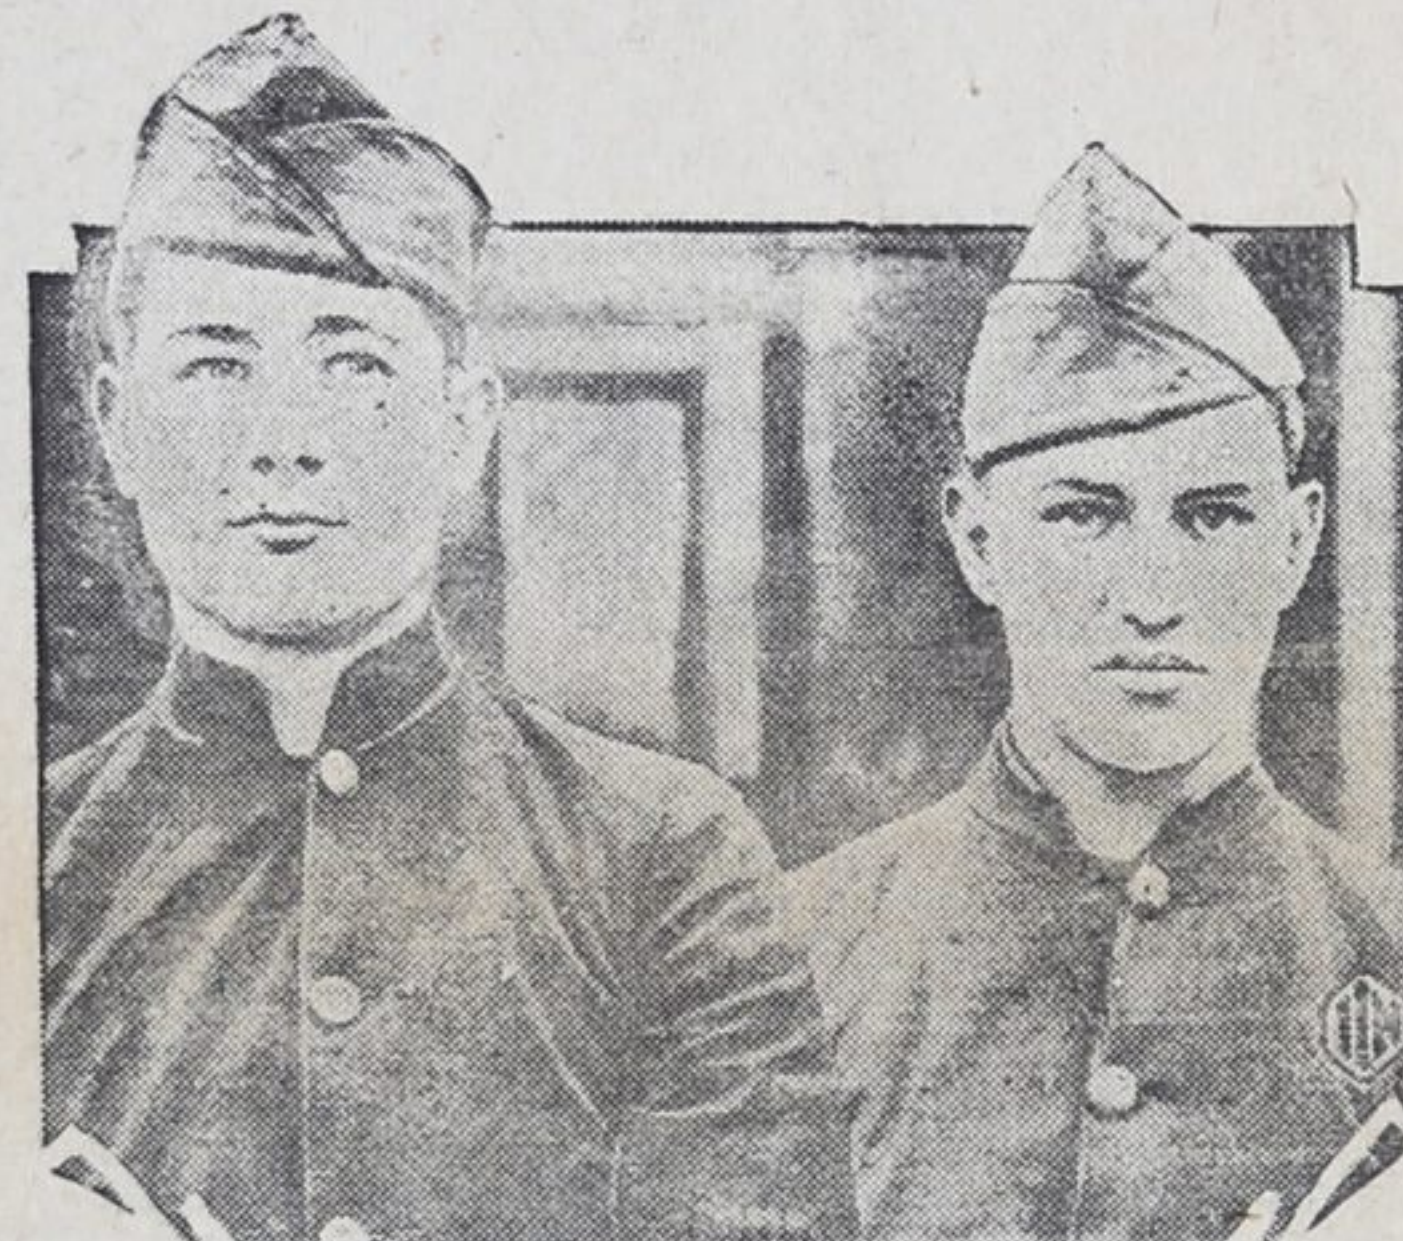

Here is a charming portrait of lovely Frances Bosworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bosworth of Evanston, Illinois, whose engagement to Dr. Trevor Charles Stamp of London, England, has just been announced. Dr. Stamp, is a son of Sir Josiah Stamp director of the Bank of England and co-author of the "Dawes Plan." By a curious coincidence Miss Bosworth is a cousin of Ambassador Dawes

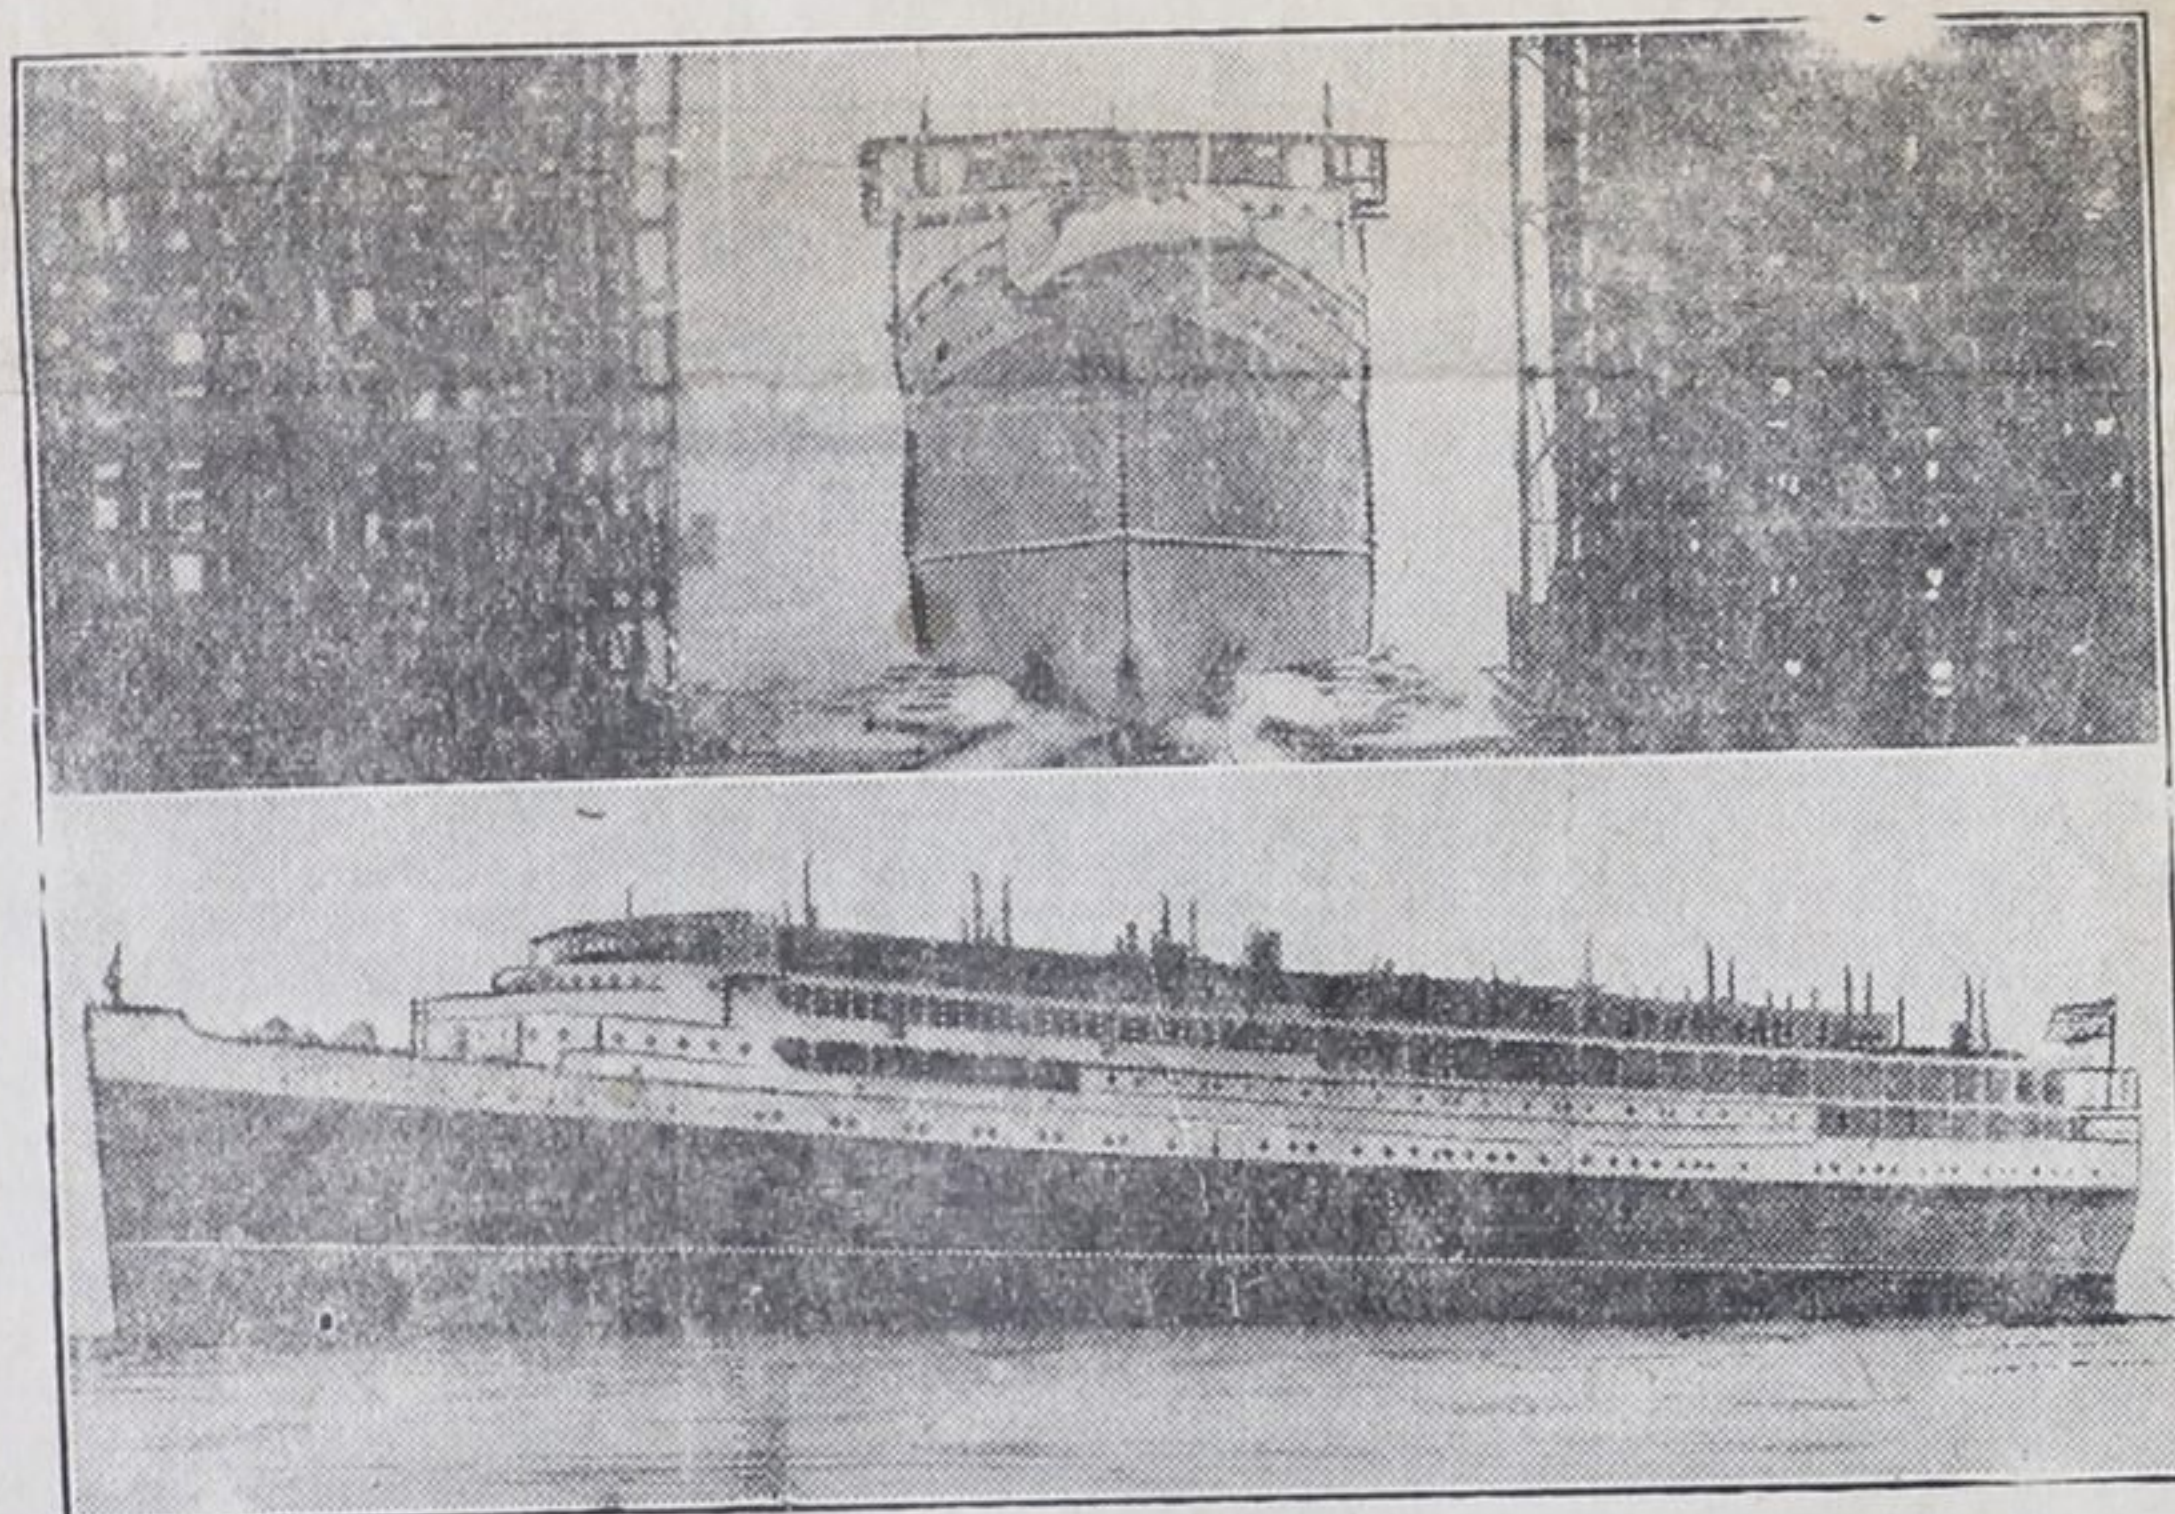

THE CHORUS ABOVE: "What impudence! Advertising his own goods in his own country—and on our bill poster too!" —Strube in the Daily Express, London

SAY THEY CREMATED EIGHT

Because he had beaten one of them in a fist fight, Ellsworth Mowyer 17, (left), and Albert Reymier, 15 of the Ohio Industrial School at Lancaster, cremated James White and his seven children, according to their own confession. Following the quarrel, which occurred last spring, the boys say they nailed up the windows and door of White's log cabin, set fire to the building and watched it burn with its eight occupants.

MAGNIFICENT LINER NAMED AFTER NEW BRUNSWICK SEAPORT

Above are two pictures taken at the launching at Newport News, Virginia, of the palatial steamship Saint John, which will ply between Boston and Saint John, New Brunswick, beginning next May. This 10,000-ton liner, constructed at a cost of $3,500,000, was christened with a bottle of water taken from the famous Reversing Falls at Saint John. The photograph shows her sliding down the slipway, while below she is being towed back to the dock for finishing—Photographs courtesy N.B. Bureau of information.

"SWEET JENNIE LEE"

Promising (her opponent would say threatening), to run for office again, Miss Jennie Lee of North Lanark, Scotland, is shown on her arrival in Boston. Miss Lee is only 27, was a member of the British House of Commons at 24. She is in the United States for a lecture tour, when she will compare the present regime in Great Britain with that of the Cromwellian era.

CANADIAN BUSINESS MAN SHOT TO DEATH IN LONDON

Above is the scene of the murder which took place at London, Ontario, when Samuel Weinstein (left) was fatally wounded in his little grocery and refreshment stand by a hold-up man whom he attempted to resist. Two hours after his death his alleged slayer, Wallace Ramesbottom (top, centre) was arrested and formally charged with murder, and Henry Quinn (right), a former convict, was also charged. Both the men reside in Sarnia, according to reports. It is alleged that Ramesbottom fired the fatal shot, while Henry "Green River" Quinn kept watch outside.

FINISHES LIQUOR REPORT

Lord Amulree, Chairman of the Royal Commission on Liquor Licensing in Great Britain, has just brought in the report of the Commission after two years and a half of investigation.

MEMBER OF RESCUE PARTY (to one of the castaways on tropical island): "How long have you been here?" CASTAWAY: "Well, we had been here six months an' four days before Joe discovered 'ow to make cider." —London Opinion

"Why do ye sit up like that, faither?" "Well, if yer lucky, ye get things given tae ye, and it also rests the feet!" —The Passing Show, London