WEDDING BELLS

Fernholm-Scholl

The wedding of Miss Cora Scholl to Mr. Herbert Fernholm has been announced, the ceremony taking place at North Cobalt on Saturday last, September 10th.

Lafleur-Caron

Holy Cross Cathedral, Haileybury, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Blanche Caron, West Road, daughter of the late T. Caron and Mrs. Caron, to Mr. Q. Lafleur, also of the West Road. The ceremony was performed at 8.30 a.m. on Wednesday, September 14th, by Rev. Father Pelchat, in the presence of immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties, and later the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother. A reception for the newly wedded couple was also held there last night and Mr. and Mrs. Lafleur will reside on the West Road.

Belanger-Lafleur

The marriage of Miss Blanche Lafleur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Lafleur, pioneer residents of Earlington, to Wilfrid Belanger, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Belanger old time residents of Haileybury, was solemnized in Holy Cross Cathedral, at 7 a.m., on Monday, September 12th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Pelchat in the presence of immediate friends and relatives of the young couple, who are well known and popular among a wide circle of acquaintances.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's parents on Amwell Street, and in the evening a reception and dance were held at the home of the bride's parents at Earlington. Mr. and Mrs. Belanger have taken up their residence in Haileybury, where they are receiving the congratulations of all their friends.

OBITUARY

Roland E. Larocque

The death of Roland E. Larocque, which took place on Sunday evening, September 11th, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Larocque, on the West Road just outside of Haileybury, brought to an end many months of suffering. He was 21 years and two months old and had been ill for the past eighteen months, during which time there was little hope for his recovery, in spite of all that medical skill could do.

Born in St. Joachim, Essex County, he spent his early years there, coming to Haileybury with the other members of the family four years ago. During his residence here Mr. Larocque made many friends who all regret very much his early death, and extend sincere sympathy to the family.

Surviving are his parents, six sisters and six brothers. The sisters are Mrs. J. A. Daigle (Marie Anne), Marguerite, Alida, Hortense, Alice and Germaine; the brothers are Raoul, Armand, Zephir, Arthur, Maurice and Valence, all at home.

The funeral was held yesterday morning, with the service in Holy Cross Cathedral conducted by Rev. J. M. Pelchat, Chancellor of the Diocese, and interment in the Roman Catholic Cemetery. The large attendance at the funeral services and the many floral tributes and spiritual offerings testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held and the great sympathy which is felt for the family. The pallbearers were Valmore Chevrette, Nelson McCurdy, Donat Vachon, Romeo Allard, Osias Rochon and George Lemay, all intimate friends of Mr. Larocque. Out of town relatives who were present included Mr. and Mrs. O. Larocque and the Misses Noella and Clemence Larocque, of North Bay; Mr. and Mrs. J. Bellehumeur, Lorrainville, Quebec.

Following is a list of floral tributes, masses and spiritual offerings:

Mr. and Mrs. Art. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Rice and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Whorley and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Campbell and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. ROYALTY AT A CHRISTENING
