Local Veterans Enjoy Movies of European Trip

A. Giachino, Cobalt Merchant, Has Fine Record of His Overseas Journeys

Mr. A. Giachino, well known Cobalt merchant, gave an interesting and entertaining lecture in the armouries hall, Haileybury, on Thursday evening last, in the course of which he showed moving pictures of several European countries which he visited during the past summer, besides some taken right in the silver camp. He came here under the auspices of the local branch of the Canadian Legion, members of which with their wives and friends, were present.

The series of pictures shown commenced with the Cobalt scenes, which included views of Mr. Giachino's store in the silver camp, crowds of children on the streets during a carnival, familiar scenes around the Cobalt station and a hockey match in the rink. The entertainer then took his audience on a trip to Montreal and thence down the St. Lawrence to the sea, showing a number of interesting scenes in Quebec province.

The European countries which Mr. Giachino visited included France and Belgium, Italy, Austria, Spain and Portugal. These were some fine views of Rome, Athens, and other old world cities and scenes from his native town in Italy. In many of the pictures the lecturer appeared and the whole made a very interesting entertainment.

I. B. Roger, president of the Legion, welcomed those present and extended a vote of thanks to Mr. Giachino, who he said, had refused to accept any remuneration for his services. When the portable moving picture machine was being set up, Fire Chief Joe Marcella was on hand to see that there was no danger of fire and the visitors were made comfortable in the hall.

Had a Fine Fishing Trip But Bear Got the Big One

C. H. Liddicott, one of the most enthusiastic of local anglers, has an ew alibi this week for the "big one" that he failed to bring home. It was a black bear that deprived him of a 10-pound pike, caught in the waters of Mendelssohn Lake while on a trip last week-end. Mr. Liddicott, with Jas. Dey and Herb. Somerville of Elk Lake, had been having pretty good luck and late in the evening the big pike was caught. It was apparently too large to be taken into the camp and was left lying under a tree nearby. During the evening some noise was heard, but little attention was paid to it, and in the morning the fish was gone. Bear tracks in the vicinity of the camp led to the belief that the prize catch had made a good supper for the prowler and the anglers had to be content with ordinary five or six-pounders, among them several nice bass. That's the story, "Believe it or not."

WEDDING BELLS

Fernholm-Schol

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Zon, North Cobalt, on September 10th at 3 p.m., when Miss Cora Schol, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schol, Amsterdam, Holland, was united in marriage to Mr. Herbert Fernholm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fernholm, West Road, Haileybury. Rev. S. Scott Milley, of Latchford, performed the ceremony.

The bride was charmingly gowned in a pale blue taffeta with biege shoes and stockings to match. She carried a bouquet of pink and white gladiolas. The bridesmaid, Miss Noella Aubrey, of Rouyn, wore a guardsman blue gown. Best man was Mr. S. J. Schol, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. A reception was also held on September 11th at the home of the groom.

Hosts of friends extend their sincere good wishes to the young couple.

large circle of friends and acquaintances.

During his long residence in Haileybury and the North, Mr. Elliott was identified with many enterprises. He was interested in the mining industry, followed contracting and farming, owning a choice piece of land in the Uno Park section. It is recalled by old timers that he hauled the lumber from Haileybury for the first frame building ever erected in Cobalt, being associated with the Little Brothers, who operated the first sawmill in Haileybury. With his brother, the late James Elliott, he was the original owner of the Elliott Kirkland Gold Mines, now the Macassa, at Kirkland Lake, and was interested in many other mining ventures.

In June, 1913, Mr. Elliott was married to Miss Edith Laird Menzies, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Menzies, of Pembroke. Mrs. Elliott died in May, 1914, since which time Mr. Elliott made his home with his niece, the late Mrs. John Dunn, and Mr. Dunn, Marcella Street, Haileybury.

Mr. Elliott was a Liberal in politics, a member of the United

Rotary Club is Planning to Hold Dance at Early Date

The Haileybury Rotary Club is making plans now for a dance to be held in Hotel Haileybury at a date to be set in the near future. At the regular meeting on Monday the dance was discussed as a means of raising funds for some of the Club's public welfare work, and it was expected that the dance would be the first of a series to be given during the autumn months. A definite announcement of the date will likely be made next week, when plans are nearer completion.

Church and always took an active interest in public affairs. He was one of Haileybury's good citizens who had earned the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact, a fact that was clearly evidenced by the many expressions of regret that were heard on all sides when news of his death reached town on Friday evening. Among his recreations the Haileybury Curling Club had a prominent place, and many years ago he donated a silver cup to the club, to be played for each season for the benefit of the Children's Shelter, an institution that he always supported heartily along with many other good works.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon when, after the service at his late residence on Marcella Street, conducted by Rev. W. A. Becroft, Pastor of the Haileybury United Church, he was buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Geo. T. Hamilton, J. E.

McCuaig, A. J. Murphy, H. C. Dunbar, S. Norfolk and Dr. W. R. Somerville, all old friends and close associates of Mr. Elliott. There was a large gathering of townspeople, over 40 motor cars following the hearse to the cemetery, and a great number of floral tributes testified to the genuine sorrow that was felt at the passing of a good citizen and a man who had taken no small part in the affairs of the community in which he spent so many years of an active life.
