Items from the Files of The Haileyburian of Ten Years Ago

A number of citizens have commenced the organizations of a "Ratepayers' Committee" with the object of creating a greater interest in municipal affairs.

Several Haileybury hockey players have signed up to play with New Liskeard and Cobalt this winter, as the town has not been able to provide a rink so far.

The town's issue of debentures for the year were sold to W. A. McKenzie & Company, at a price of 102.9 and accrued interest.

A letter from the T. & N.O. Commission to the town council states definitely that the railway will not provide a public crossing at Russell Street.

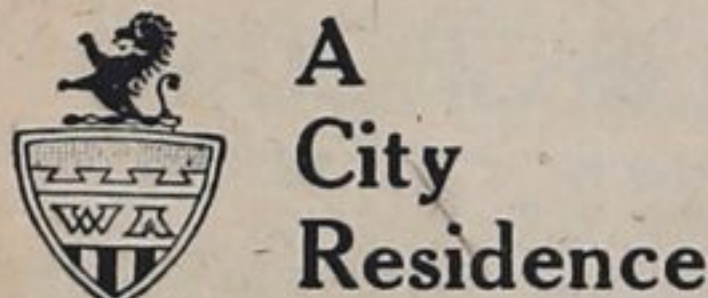

The tax collectors reports complaints over the extreme measures that are being taken to gather in the outstanding taxes before the end of the year.

The local firemen held a dance and euchre in the club room at the curling rink last night and a good time is reported.

Arthur Allard, formerly of Haileybury and now of Ville Marie, is leaving the North Country for Pembroke.

Mrs. O. Mayhew slipped and fell on an icy sidewalk on Lang Street, Cobalt, fracturing two bones in her wrist.

Haileybury's new fire truck was "broke in" early yesterday morning, when the brigade was called to the Haileybury Garage to handle a small blaze under the floor. There was very little damage.

The members of the Lodge conferred a degree in honor of the distinguished visitor and refreshments were served later. Mrs. Keene returned to her home on Wednesday and will visit the Rebekah Lodges in Haileybury and New Liskeard at a later date.

District Ore Shipments

Only one car of ore was shipped from this district during the week ending December 16th, according to the statement of the T. & N.O. Railway. This car went from the Miller Lake-O'Brien at Elk Lake, and contained 70,658 lbs. of ore.

PERFECT MAPLE LEAF

The most beautiful maple leaf, prize winner in the nationwide competition conducted by the Canadian Pacific Railway, was submitted by Mrs. C. McConnell, Fredericton, N. B., York County, New Brunswick. It has a flare of autumn coloring ranging from light yellow to deep blood red, and its perfect symmetry and form won it distinction in competition with 10,000 other beautiful leaves, submitted by enthusiastic Canadians from Coast to Coast. The leaf, a thing of sheer beauty, was selected by such outstanding artists as C. W. Simpson, R.C.A., R. W. Pilot, R.C.A., and James Crockett.

In the largest leaf phase of the competition, six-year-old Bobby Hume, of Revelstoke, B.C., made an astonishing win with a leaf showing an area of 222 square inches.

The success which greeted the original competition this year has encouraged Canadian Pacific officials to plan for another competition on a larger and more comprehensive scale next fall.

STRIKING WOODS MEN RETURN TO WORK IN SECTIONS AFFECTED

Reports in the daily papers over the week-end were to the effect that the various strikes among the bush workers of the North Country, which in some places have been carried on for weeks, have all been settled and the men have returned to the camps under new agreements which it is believed will prove satisfactory.

The men working for the Abitibi Power and Paper Company, gathering at Cochrane and Iroquois Falls, were perhaps the best behaved of the lot, as there seems to have been little trouble at those places compared with the Port Arthur section and the territory adjacent to Rouyn, Que. At both the latter places clashes with the police occurred and in Rouyn there were dozens arrested, while the strikers farther west tried to cause trouble by holding up traffic on the highways.

The reports of the settlements show that the men have had a large part of their grievances removed and it seems certain that conditions in the camps have been greatly improved.

TODAY THEY JUST BUY THEIR TICKETS

Travellers by rail in these enlightened days don't know how lucky they are. All they have to do is buy their tickets, go on board and settle down for a comfortable trip. In the sixties and seventies of the last century it was a vastly different matter, as J. E. Dobb reveals in the December issue of the Canadian National Railways Magazine. Sometimes, he relates, "passengers would find themselves stalled miles trouble or snowdrifts, and the effort to keep up steam consumed all the cord-wood in the engine tender. If no wood supply was readily available, the male passengers would be handed axes and each would be expected to do his bit by felling and splitting trees. If the patrons of the railroad showed any reluctance in this process of "wooding up", the engineer and fireman would settle down for a nap until such time as the passengers took a more favorable view of the matter. Heavy snow would find themselves stalled miles away from a village owing to engine was a serious problem in the days of the woodburners. Sometimes trains would be stuck for days, while fuel for the engine and food for the travellers ran short. The principal snow-fighting equipment consisted of shovels and the strong backs of the male passengers and the crew."
