A MERRY CHRISTMAS

It seems only the other day that we last wished our readers a Merry Christmas, but at the risk of appearing monotonous we are going to do it again. We would like to make it something original or at least different, and have given some thought to the matter. We would like to convey to you something of a personal nature that would let you know what we feel towards the community, but it all apparently simmers down to the old, old greeting, "Merry Christmas." We have gone over in our thoughts the doings of the past year and have tried to ascertain thus whether we can sincerely extend the greeting this year. We have tried to recall any differences we may have had with other members of the community, with a view to having them straightened out in our own thoughts at least. In this we have discovered that our relations with some have been much more cordial than with others, we have found that there are some people we like much better than others, and we are convinced that some members of the community are much better men and women than others, but we have failed to think of a single person to whom we cannot sincerely and truthfully extend the "compliments of the season" in the spirit which has marked the great festival from the earliest times. We have nothing but the very best wishes for all, whether they read this column or not, and in all sincerity we wish you

STILL TIME TO DO GOOD DEED

There is still time to do a good deed before the holiday by contributing to the Christmas Cheer Fund. The response to the appeal of the committee in charge has been encouraging so far, but there must be greater efforts put forth on the part of all if some of the needy ones in our community are not to be left without a little something to brighten up the festival. The committee has long lists of those who must be taken care of in this way, those who have absolutely no means to provide anything except the bare necessities, and in many cases little children will not have anything to confirm their faith in Santa Claus, if we do not all do what we can to help.

We again draw your attention to the subscription lists that are open at both banks in town, and to the call sent out through the grocery stores for contributions in goods. Every contribution will be gratefully accepted, no matter how small or how large, and that it will be faithfully applied goes without saying. We can all make our own holiday happier by doing what we can to increase the Christmas Cheer Fund in order that no one among our neighbors will have to go without something in the way of extras for the Christmas dinner at least. Remember the little children at this time, who perhaps are the greatest sufferers.

END OF CHACO WAR NEARS AS NATIONS ACT

The Gran Chaco War, between Paraguay and Bolivia, which may soon come to an end as the result of threats of drastic action by 17 republics participating in the Pan-American Conference at Montevideo, in the first "official" war since 1918. During the past year and a half, the struggle, waged over 100,000 square miles of jungle (shown in map) cost more than 100,000 dead and wounded, a higher percentage of casualties than was suffered by the United States forces in the World War. Bolivia believed victory assured when General Hans Kundt, German military genius, took command of her army last year. But the general could make little headway in jungle warfare, and was recalled from command recently when 10,000 of his men were taken prisoners by Paraguay.

"For the Children's Sake" An open letter to every motorist in Ontario

We have learned to think of Christmas as the children's festival—the time when child-hopes and happiness are lifted high in every home in city, town, and village.

But Christmas-tide is very often a season of icy roads and slippery streets, when driving becomes difficult and dangerous, and cars slide and slip over the treacherous surface. It is the time when accidents and fatalities can happen without warning—unless drivers realize the imperative need for added care and extra caution.

Throughout the province to-day, thousands of children are eagerly anticipating the coming of Christmas, and the joy of the days to follow when the presents and pleasures of that day will bring renewed happiness and enjoyment.

If, by any fault of driving or from any neglect of some simple rule of safety, you were to deprive one of these children of health and strength, even of life itself—what a responsibility would be yours! For the children's sake, this appeal is made to you, and to every motorist in Ontario: that throughout this winter, you undertake to drive carefully, cautiously, sanely, and safely, lest one child's life be lost, or one little form crippled or torn? Don't let any home in Ontario be darkened by sorrow and sadness this Christmas-tide because YOU did not drive carefully enough.

This is an objective worth the effort—and its cost is only a little more care as you drive.

More and more the considerate motorists of Ontario are realizing how much depends upon them, in the campaign for safety driving on our roads. It is a matter of deep gratification to know that fatalities in which automobiles are concerned are decreasing in this province. From January 1st to October 31st, 1933, there were 71 less fatalities of that character than in the same period last year.

For this marked improvement in safety-driving the Government of Ontario offers its thanks and congratulations to the motorists of the province. It is a definite indication that the majority of drivers of automobiles in Ontario are co-operating in a real endeavour to reduce the death-toll of the open road.

To ensure that this gratifying improvement is maintained during the dangerous days of winter, as well as throughout the coming year, will YOU not make this resolution, if for no other reason than "for the children's sake": to protect life and health by driving with care and caution, by observing the simple rules of the road, and by making safety your motto as you drive along the highways and the by-ways of the Province?
