OBITUARY

MRS. SIDNEY ANDERSON

Haileybury people will learn with regret of the death of a former resident, Mrs. Sidney Anderson, which took place in St. Joseph's Hospital, Sudbury, last week after an illness of some 10 days. With her husband and family she had been living for several years past in Copper Cliff.

Born in Liverpool, England, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cryer, Mrs. Anderson had been in Canada for some 28 years. While in Haileybury she had been a staunch member of St. Paul's Anglican Church, and in Copper Cliff she belonged to St. John's, from where the funeral was held on Saturday, February 15th. Surviving are her husband, Sidney Anderson, one daughter, Gladys, and a son, John. Mrs. Sarah Langley of Kirkland Lake is a sister, and a brother, Walter Cryer of Liverpool, also survives.

In Memoriam

BOWMAN—In loving memory of A. H. (Sandy) Bowman, who died February 16th, 1935. As a wonderful husband I think of you in memories that are fond and true. There wasn't a thing too big or small that you wouldn't try to do for me. It's sad but true; I wonder why the best are always the first to die. Quickly and quietly came the call; His sudden death surprised us all. I have lost, but God has gained. One of the best the world contained. —Sadly missed by his wife, BEATRICE.

In Memoriam

BOWMAN—In loving memory of our dear father, A. H. Bowman, who passed away February 16, 1935. Today we are thinking of someone Who was loving, kind and true, Whose smile was as dear as the sunshine, That someone, dear daddy, was you —Sadly missed by daughter and sons, Margaret, Alex., George.

WEDDING BELLS

O'GRADY—HURST

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Therese's Church, Cobalt on Monday, February 17th, when Mr. John J. O'Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O'Grady of Haileybury took for his life partner, Miss Lellita Hurst, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurst of Cobalt.

The wedding ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, the bride entering the church on the arm of her father, dressed in crepe with white paten trimmings, dark hat and gloves. Her bouquet was of carnations. She was attended by her sister, Myrtle, dressed in beige crepe and dark accessories. Her bouquet was of talisman roses.

The groom was assisted by his cousin, Mr. Joseph Dwyer of Kirkland Lake. Rev. Father Chapleau, parish priest, performed the ceremony and Mass was celebrated by the curate during the time the children's choir sang. After the ceremony the bridal couple returned to the home of the bride, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party and immediate relatives.

The happy couple left amid showers of congratulations for a short honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Haileybury, the groom being one of the employees of the Melsaac Bus Company. Their many friends and relatives wish them both much happiness.

NEW VIOLENCE FEARED AT PEKIN GENERAL STRIKE

Women at strike front

Troops mobilized

Deputy's home bombed

Refusal of a distilling company at Pekin, Ill., to grant workers' demands for seniority rule and a closed shop, resulted in a general strike and mobilization of national guardsmen after the home of George Gibbons, deputy sheriff, had been bombed, inset right. Capt. Edward Johnson, inset left, is shown placing his company at the disposal of his superior while women strikers warm themselves in a shelter after being relieved from picket duty.
