WEDDING BELLS

BENNETT-TEMPLETON

The wedding of two former Haileybury people, Miss Jane A. Templeton and Mr. Melville M. Bennett, was reported from Sault Ste Marie last week. The bride was formerly a nurse in the Red Cross Hospital here, while Mr. Bennett spent some years in Haileybury as a representative of the Connell interests, later going to Toronto in the same capacity. Mrs. Bennett is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Templeton, prominent residents of the Algoma city, and it was at her parents' home that the marriage took place, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. G. Boyd of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. After a reception held for the immediate relatives and close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett left for a wedding trip to United States points and on their return will reside in Toronto.

Among the guests at the ceremony at the Sault were Mrs. R. C. Lyon, Haileybury, Mrs. Geo. Pratt, Cobalt, and Gordon MacDonnell, who flew from Haileybury to the Soo the morning of the marriage and returned by air the following day.

The Haileyburian joins with the legion of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bennett happy and long life.

MARSTON-DAVIDSON

The marriage of Miss Audrey Davidson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davidson of Cobalt, to Mr. Thos. Marston of Kirkland Lake, was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage in the silver town on Saturday afternoon last, by Rev. C. H. Geer. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Davidson, while her brother, Alfred, was the best man. Following the ceremony the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to southern points and on their return will reside in Kirkland Lake.

HENDERSON-PELLETTE

The Cobalt Baptist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Daisy Pellette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pellette of Val d'Or, Que., and formerly of Cobalt, to John Lewis Henderson of Val d'Or. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Geer, with Mr. Max Crooks playing the wedding music. Miss Josephine Graham was the bridesmaid, while William Pellette, brother of the bride, supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left by motor for a wedding trip to Gaspé, the home of the bridegroom's parents, and other points in the east. On their return they will live in Val d'Or.

per's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ferguson last week-end. They were joined here by Mrs. M. B. Draper, Sr., of Scarsdale, N.Y., who accompanied them back to Kirkland Lake for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Angus and Mrs. Clarence Thorpe returned this week from Kitchener, where they attended the wedding of Miss Dorothy Dickson, niece of Mrs. Angus, at the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe spent a day or two in town and returned to their home in Duparquet, Que.

VALUABLE TALK GIVEN BY WELFARE SECRETARY AT I.O.D.E. LUNCHEON

An interesting and valuable address on "Child and Maternal Hygiene" was given to a large number of local ladies who attended a luncheon at the Golf Club House at noon on Thursday last, arranged by the Haileybury Chapter of the I.O.D.E. to welcome Miss Fyvie Young, R.N., B.Sc., M.A., secretary of the Canadian Welfare Council, who stopped here on her way to Ottawa after a visit to Vancouver.

Following the luncheon, which was a very pleasant function, Miss Young was introduced to the gathering by Mrs. D. G. Wilson, Regent of the I.O.D.E., and spoke on what she declared was the "subject nearest her heart." She gave very valuable advice to the gathering, and the opinion was freely expressed by those present that it was the best talk they had ever heard on the subject.

A hearty vote of appreciation was tendered to Miss Young, with the best wishes of the local laideis for continued success in her work for the benefit of humanity.

Gertrude M. Vage, field secretary for the Associated Blind, was in town late last week on her annual visit to the North. She asked the Haileyburian to extend thanks to local residents for their generous contributions to the cause.

Card of Thanks

OBITUARY

MISS LUCY COOMES

With 18 choir boys of St. Paul's Church, who had been her especial charge over a long period of years, as pallbearers and a guard of honor, the funeral of Miss Lucy Coomes was held on Saturday afternoon last from the home of her sister, Mrs. W. T. Joy, at the court house to the Church, and thence to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Miss Coomes died suddenly on Thursday afternoon last, July 9th, 1936. She had been in poor health for some time, but had been around the day previous to her death.

A native of London, England, Miss Coomes had been a resident of Haileybury since 1913 and was well known throughout the community. A devoted member of the Anglican faith, she had been a tireless worker in St. Paul's Church, teaching the junior Sunday School class for many years and looking after the younger members of the choir right up to the time of her death. Her activities extended to all phases of the church work and a sincere tribute to her faithful labors was paid during the funeral service by Rev. Richard Haines, who spoke of her regular attendance at the services, her care of the altar during many years and especially of the devoted interest she had taken in the choir boys.

Six of the older boys, Robert Pomeroy, Robert Peter, Cyrus Elkins, Robert Carlson, John Cawley and Robert Thorpe, were the pallbearers at the funeral, while the remaining dozen formed the guard of honor, meeting the funeral procession at the church door and later forming in a circle at the grave. The boys all realized that they had lost a sincere friend whose place, in the words of Mr. Haines, "will be hard to fill."

Nearly all the older members of the choir were present and the hymns "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er" and "Abide With Me" were sung, while a large number of old friends attended the service and followed the cortege to the cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Joy and their son, Francis, who came up from Chippewa, were the chief mourners, and a great profusion of floral tributes testified to the esteem in which Miss Coomes was held and to the sympathy felt for the bereaved ones. Mrs. Joy and another sister, Miss Lily Coomes, in England, are the surviving members of the immediate family.

MRS. JOS. METCALFE

Notice of the death of a former resident of Haileybury, Mrs. Joseph Metcalfe, appeared in the daily papers, on Saturday last Mrs. Metcalfe died at the Queen Alexandria Hospital, London, on July 10th, at the age of 35 years. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, with interment in the Park Lawn Cemetery, London.

About two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe, who had been residents here for a long period, went to Southern Ontario. Local friends who called our attention to the notice, had had no intimation that Mrs. Metcalfe was ill.
