Paragraphs Pertaining to Happenings of Interest During the Past Week

A "Harrowing" Experience

The Krugerdorf correspondent of the New Liskeard Speaker wrote last week:

"We are sorry to report Alex. Bazowsky met with a painful accident on Friday of last week, when upset with the disc harrows, the horses pulling same over him. Alex. was pretty badly cut up and is at present in the Red Cross Hospital in Englehart where he is doing as well as can be expected."

Had Poor Sports Year

With the fall season rapidly approaching and talk already beginning of the forthcoming hockey season, the sports year just past for Timmins has been a very gloomy one indeed. Since this time last year very few athletic honors have come the way of Canada's richest and largest town. In practically everything except curling and lacrosse, Timmins teams—when there were teams—proved to be little better than doormats for the playful shoes of outside contingents.

Overworked Waitresses

Two North Bay restaurants were assessed the minimum fine of $10 and costs by Magistrate J. H. McCurry Tuesday morning on charges of overworking waitresses. The charge was preferred by George L. Fenwick provincial inspector from the Ontario Department of Labor, Toronto, who has been investigating labor conditions in hotels, restaurants, etc., here. One of the establishments was charged with working waitresses before 7.00 a.m., the other with working them after midnight.

To Aid Spanish Red Cross

They almost fought the Spanish civil war out conversationally in the council chamber yesterday afternoon when the local executive of the C.C.F. applied for permission to hold a tag day in Timmins on Tuesday, September 15th, the proceeds to go to the National Executive of the C.C.F., to be forwarded to the Spanish Red Cross.

After a good deal of discussion irrelevant but highly illuminating the council decided to grant the permission.—Porcupine Advance.

Given Memorial Vault

With the intention of erecting a memorial to his late beloved wife, Mr. Richard Brownlee has obtained the permission of the Municipal Cemetery Board to erect a vault and mortuary chapel in the centre of the roadway in the new municipal cemetery. This is to be known as the Brownlee Memorial Vault and is to be for general use regardless of race or creed.—Chapleau Post.

Bears Are Plentiful

Bears are exceptionally prevalent in the district surrounding the Twin Cities this season and Mrs. Sweeney, wife of one of the settlers in the new Farmborough colony in Joanne township had a somewhat unpleasant experience while returning to her home from the store on the highway on Friday afternoon last, when two large black bears ambled out on to the roadway in front of her. She had nothing with which to protect herself, but did not become greatly excited, as the animals did not show any disposition to molest her.—Rouyn-Noranda Press.

"Dumped" at Hospital

A Cobalt despatch last Friday said: "Louis Burube, 51, who has for the past few years made his winter home in Cobalt, is in a serious condition in the Municipal Hospital here, suffering from heart trouble.

Burube was taken suddenly ill in New Liskeard last Thursday, on the street, but managed to make his way into a doctor's office. Learning that he came from Cobalt, some one in authority in the farming town had him loaded into a taxi and brought to Cobalt, where he was rather unceremoniously dumped at the door of the local hospital. The taxi then drove off. He is stated to have crawled up to the door of the hospital and medical aid was immediately summoned.

AIRPLANE FACTORIES SPRING UP LIKE MUSHROOMS IN ENGLAND

The Royal Air Force expansion scheme has so accelerated output of planes in England that factories and aerodromes are being constructed all over the country to meet the demand for machines. Here is a typical "busy" day in an aircraft factory of the Mother Country, with the employees working day and night to make aeroplanes.

Paper to Have New Home

Another open air theatre started Saturday when Caswell Construction Company's steam shovel swung into place, with lots of spectators to watch the digging, as the excavation was made for the foundation of the new Northern News Building which will rise at what was formerly 6 and 8 Duncan avenue, on the east side of the street.
