

Late News Pictures and Cartoons

WHICH WOULD YOU PICK AS "MISS AMERICA"!

Difficulties confronted by judges responsible for selecting "Miss America" at the annual beauty contest at Atlantic City are evident when one views these attractive contenders, shown as they arrived at the resort for the big show, which was won last year by Henrietta Leaver, Pittsburg.

VACATION OVER, MEMORIES LINGER

"Among my souvenirs"

Although the school bell signalled curfew for vacation activities, memories of the summer holiday enjoyments hang over for these two youthful students as they resume their struggles with the "three R's"

ANNO 1950

League Secretary: "If some country would only pay its subscription we could send for a plumber."—Dublin Opinion.

SAVE 212 AS SHIPS CRASH IN BLINDING FOG

Steamer Romance

Rescuing victim

One of the most thrilling maritime rescues in recent history was accomplished when 212 passengers were saved from the steamer "Romance" after she had been rammed by the steamer New York during a dense fog off the Boston coast. The steel prow of the New York knifed the ancient excursion boat 10 miles off shore and sent it to the bottom in 20 minutes.

SCENES IN SPANISH WAR ZONE

Rebel machine gunners.

Youngsters training for war

Spain's bitter war rages on as rebel troops advance relentlessly toward the capital, Madrid. In the top photo, a rebel machine gun unit is pictured advancing on the run to improve its position in the vicinity of San Sebastian. A detachment of young boys who are being trained for war by rebel leaders is shown in the lower photo riding through the streets of Seville on a truck. Youngsters are being trained in army tactics in several cities held by rebels.

"KING BESSIE" CAPTURES CHAMPIONSHIP WITHOUT EFFORT

The kingly beast shown above is not turning up his nose with contempt, but merely expressing his autocratic breeding. King Bessie Ormsby Pietertje 37th captured Senior and Grand championships at Ottawa, Canadian National Exhibition and London last year, and this year he is doing his best to repeat. With the Ottawa championship already tucked away he has just won the Senior and Grand Champion titles at the Canadian National Exhibition. This remarkable Holstein is owned by Hon. George S. Henry, former Premier of Ontario.

CHAMPION COW WINS HIGHEST AWARD AT CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION

No wonder the smooth-coated "lady" in the picture looks so self-satisfied. She captured the Senior and Grand Champion title for Holstein cows at the Canadian National Exhibition, the highest award possible among over 200 entries. Her name is "Wonderland Toitilla Lady" and is owned by C. C. Haviland, Wilsonville, Ontario.