

Late News Pictures and Cartoons

RESCUED 1,120 FROM RUINS ON ALCAZAR

This is what the historic Alcazar fortress in Toledo looked like, after seven weeks of battering by shells, bombs, and mines. Strangely enough only 80 persons were killed outright and about 1,120 came out alive, although hundreds of them were wounded.

BABY SHOW OVER-TAXED JUDGING ARRANGEMENTS

Owing to a hitch in the plans for the National Baby Show at Crystal Palace, London, England, only one doctor was engaged to act as judge, but there were 25,000 competitors. Eight additional doctors were quickly secured and the police also assisted.

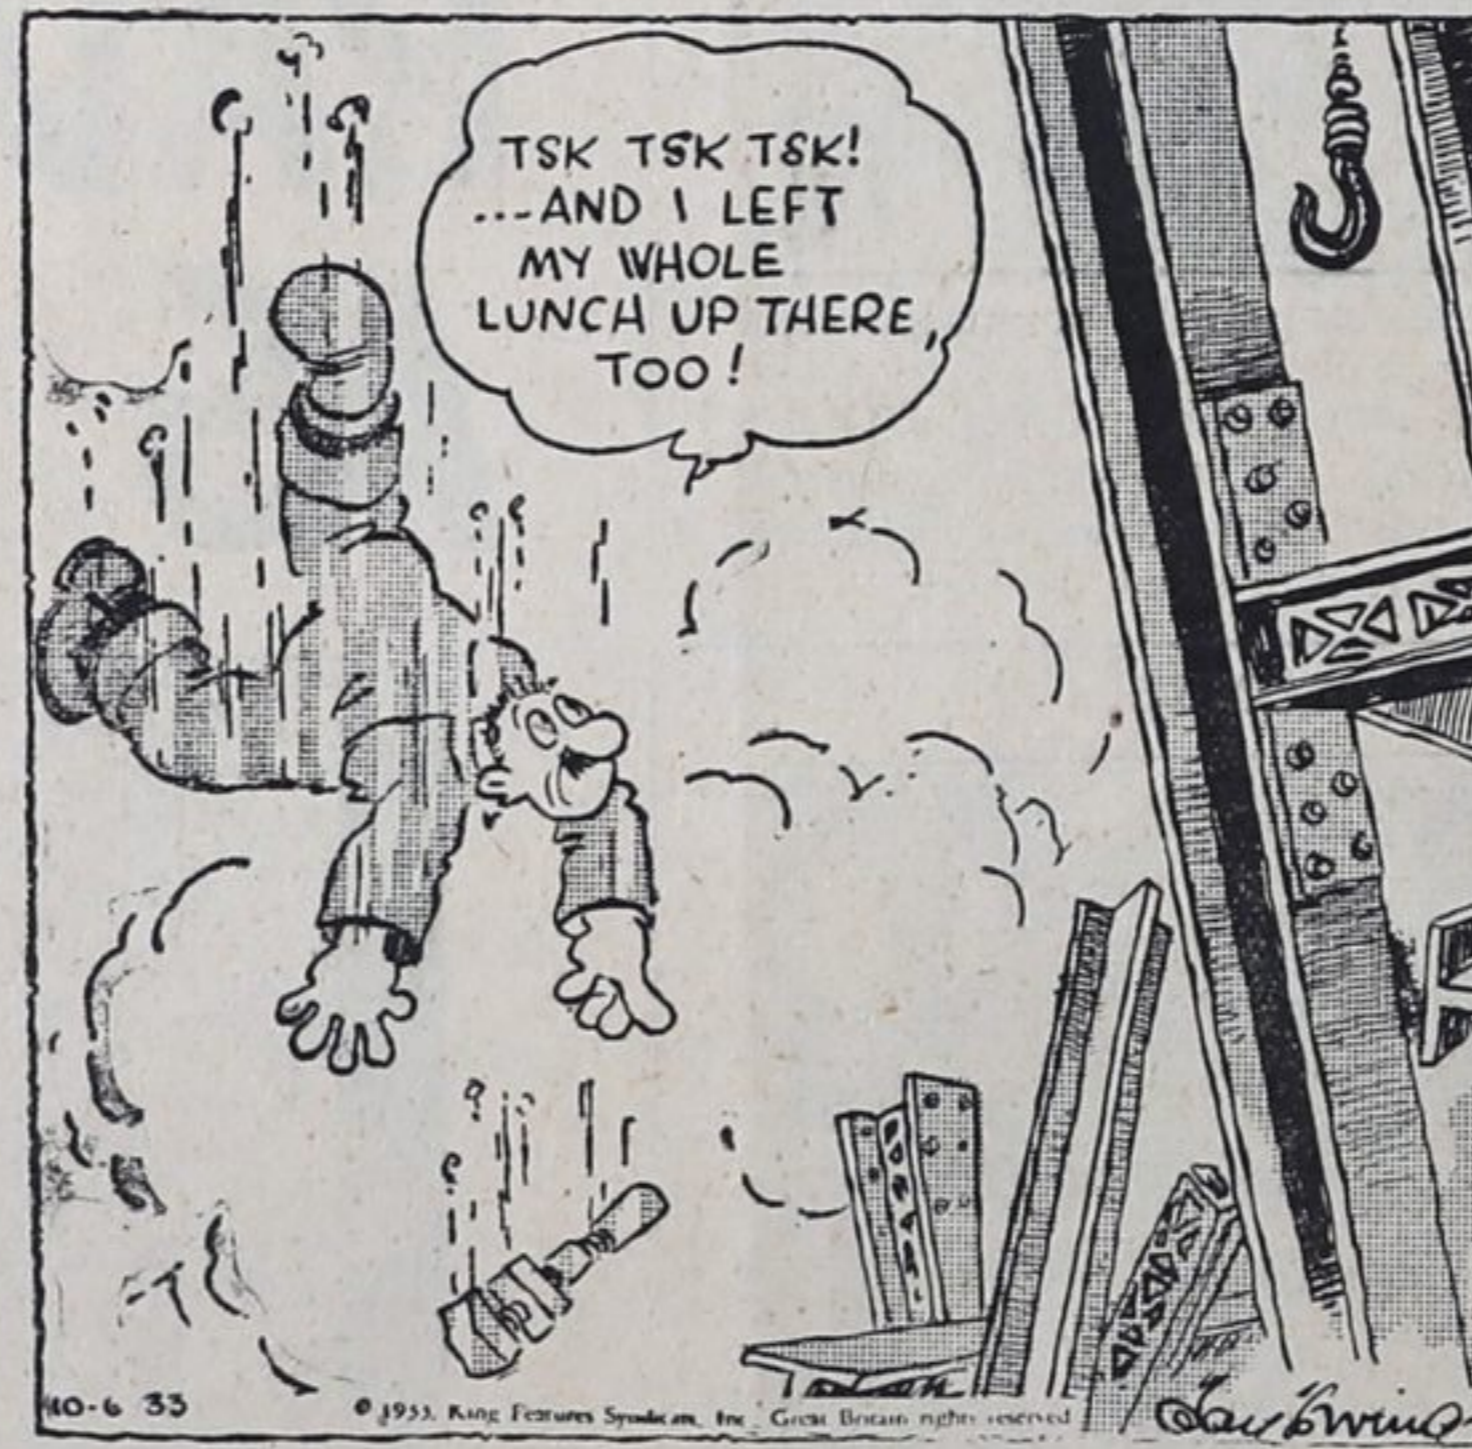

STAR OF SILENT FILMS RECOVERS

Bessie Love

Flowers and telegrams which poured in on Bessie Love, star of the silent films, as she prepared to leave a Pasadena Cal., hospital after an illness, proved that the former movie heroine still has a large following. She recently returned to Hollywood from England, where she has been making movies, to obtain a divorce from her husband, William Hawks.

FANCIFUL FABLES

FIRST LORD OF THE ADMIRALTY

Sir Samuel Hoare, coming ashore at Portsmouth after inspecting the Mediterranean fleet—an inspection to which the Italian press ascribed very ulterior motives.

CAPTAIN OF VARSITY

Gus Greco, star middle wing of the Varsity seniors for the past three years, has been elected as Captain of this year's team. Greco hails from Sault Ste. Marie and is a fifth year dental student.

FOUR DIED IN THIS PLANE CRASH

Trying to accommodate its pace to that of a streamlined train speeding 100 feet below it, a cabin plane manned by photographers taking moving pictures of the train crashed in a field near Naperville, Ill., killing its four occupants. This photo shows all that remained of the plane.

"When will this armament race end?"
"When each nation has twice as many as the other."
—From "Ahorá", Madrid