

Late News Pictures and Cartoons

NEW PRINCIPAL INSTALLED AT QUEEN'S

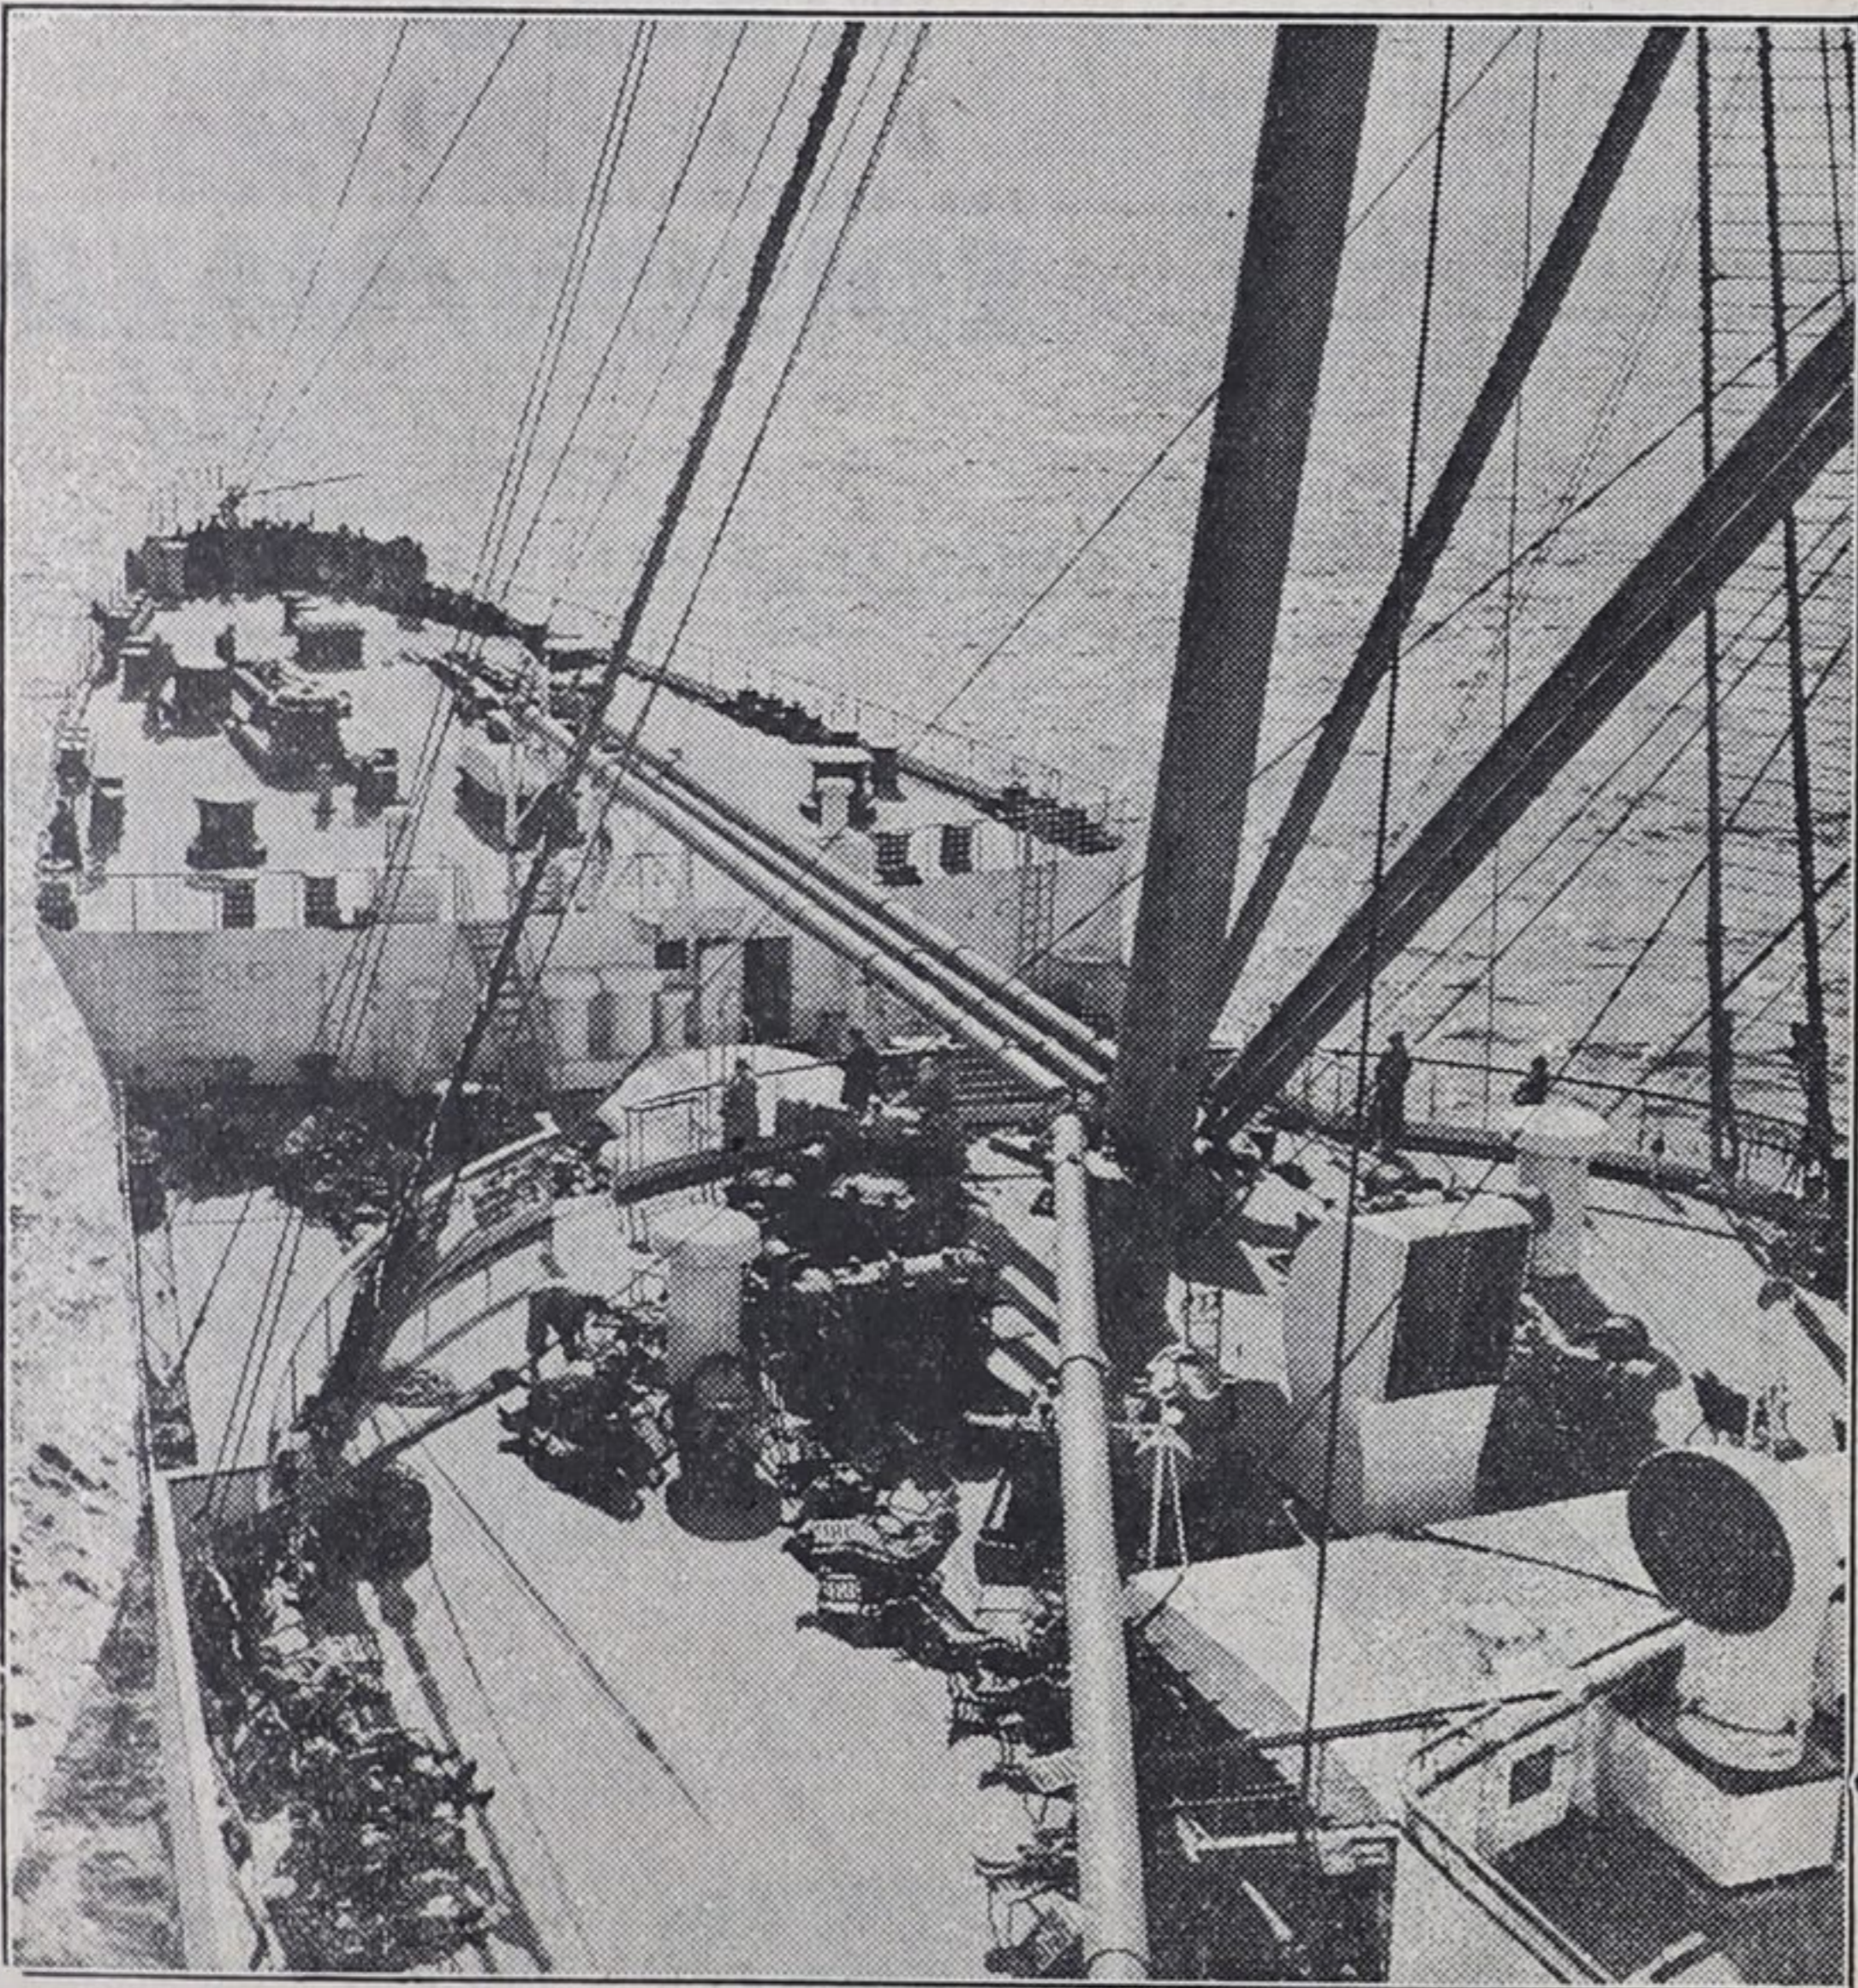

Dr. Robert Charles Wallace (right) installed as Principal of Queen's University amid a gathering of educationists from all parts of Canada. Dr. Wallace, who for the past eight years has been president of the University of Alberta, is seen here with Chancellor James Richardson of Winnipeg (left), just before the latter administered the pledge of office and presented him with his robes.

MADRID FACES POSSIBLE DESTRUCTION

A general view of the capital city of Spain, showing the Grand Via. The insurgents are rapidly advancing on the city and threaten it with aerial and artillery bombardment unless it is surrendered.

FROM THE BRIDGE OF THE "QUEEN MARY"

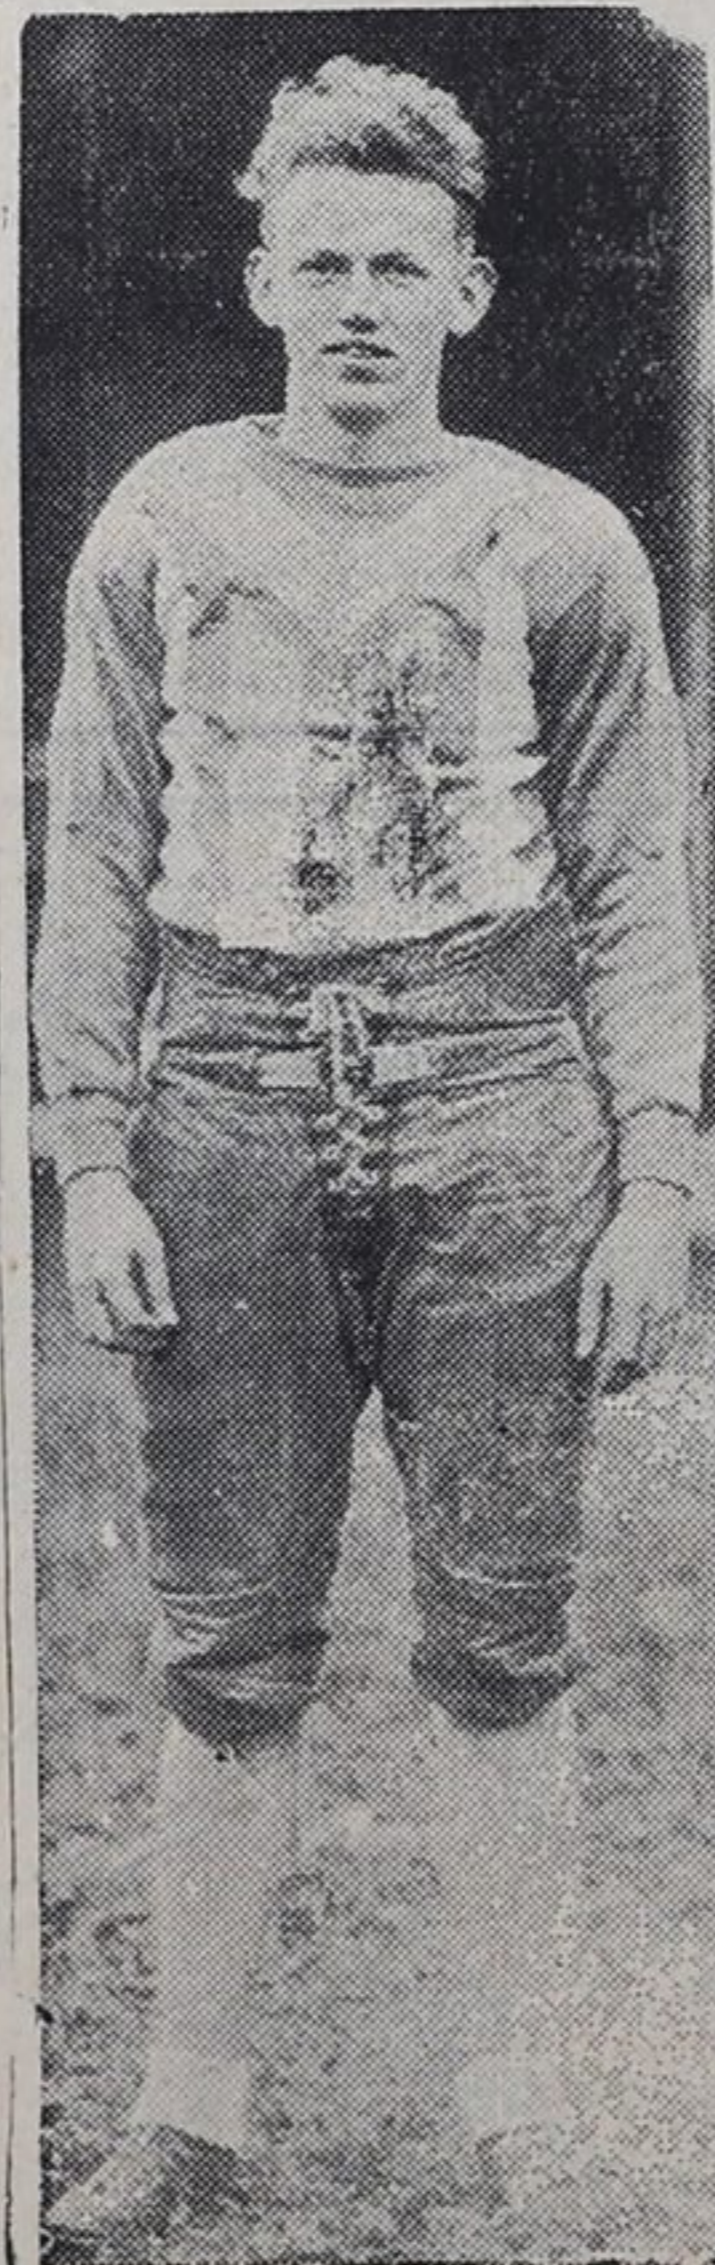

A striking picture taken from the bridge of the world's greatest liner, as she set a course due west from Southampton, England, to New York

ALL IN THE DAY'S WORK FOR A NEWS PHOTOGRAPHER

This picture shows a real charge in a real war, and shows Government forces in Spain dashing through a breach in a wall to take a house used by rebels as a sniping post on the Talavera front. The camera man had to stand practically in front of the charging soldiers long enough to get this picture. Then, it is to be assumed, he "went away from there".

CAM GRAY

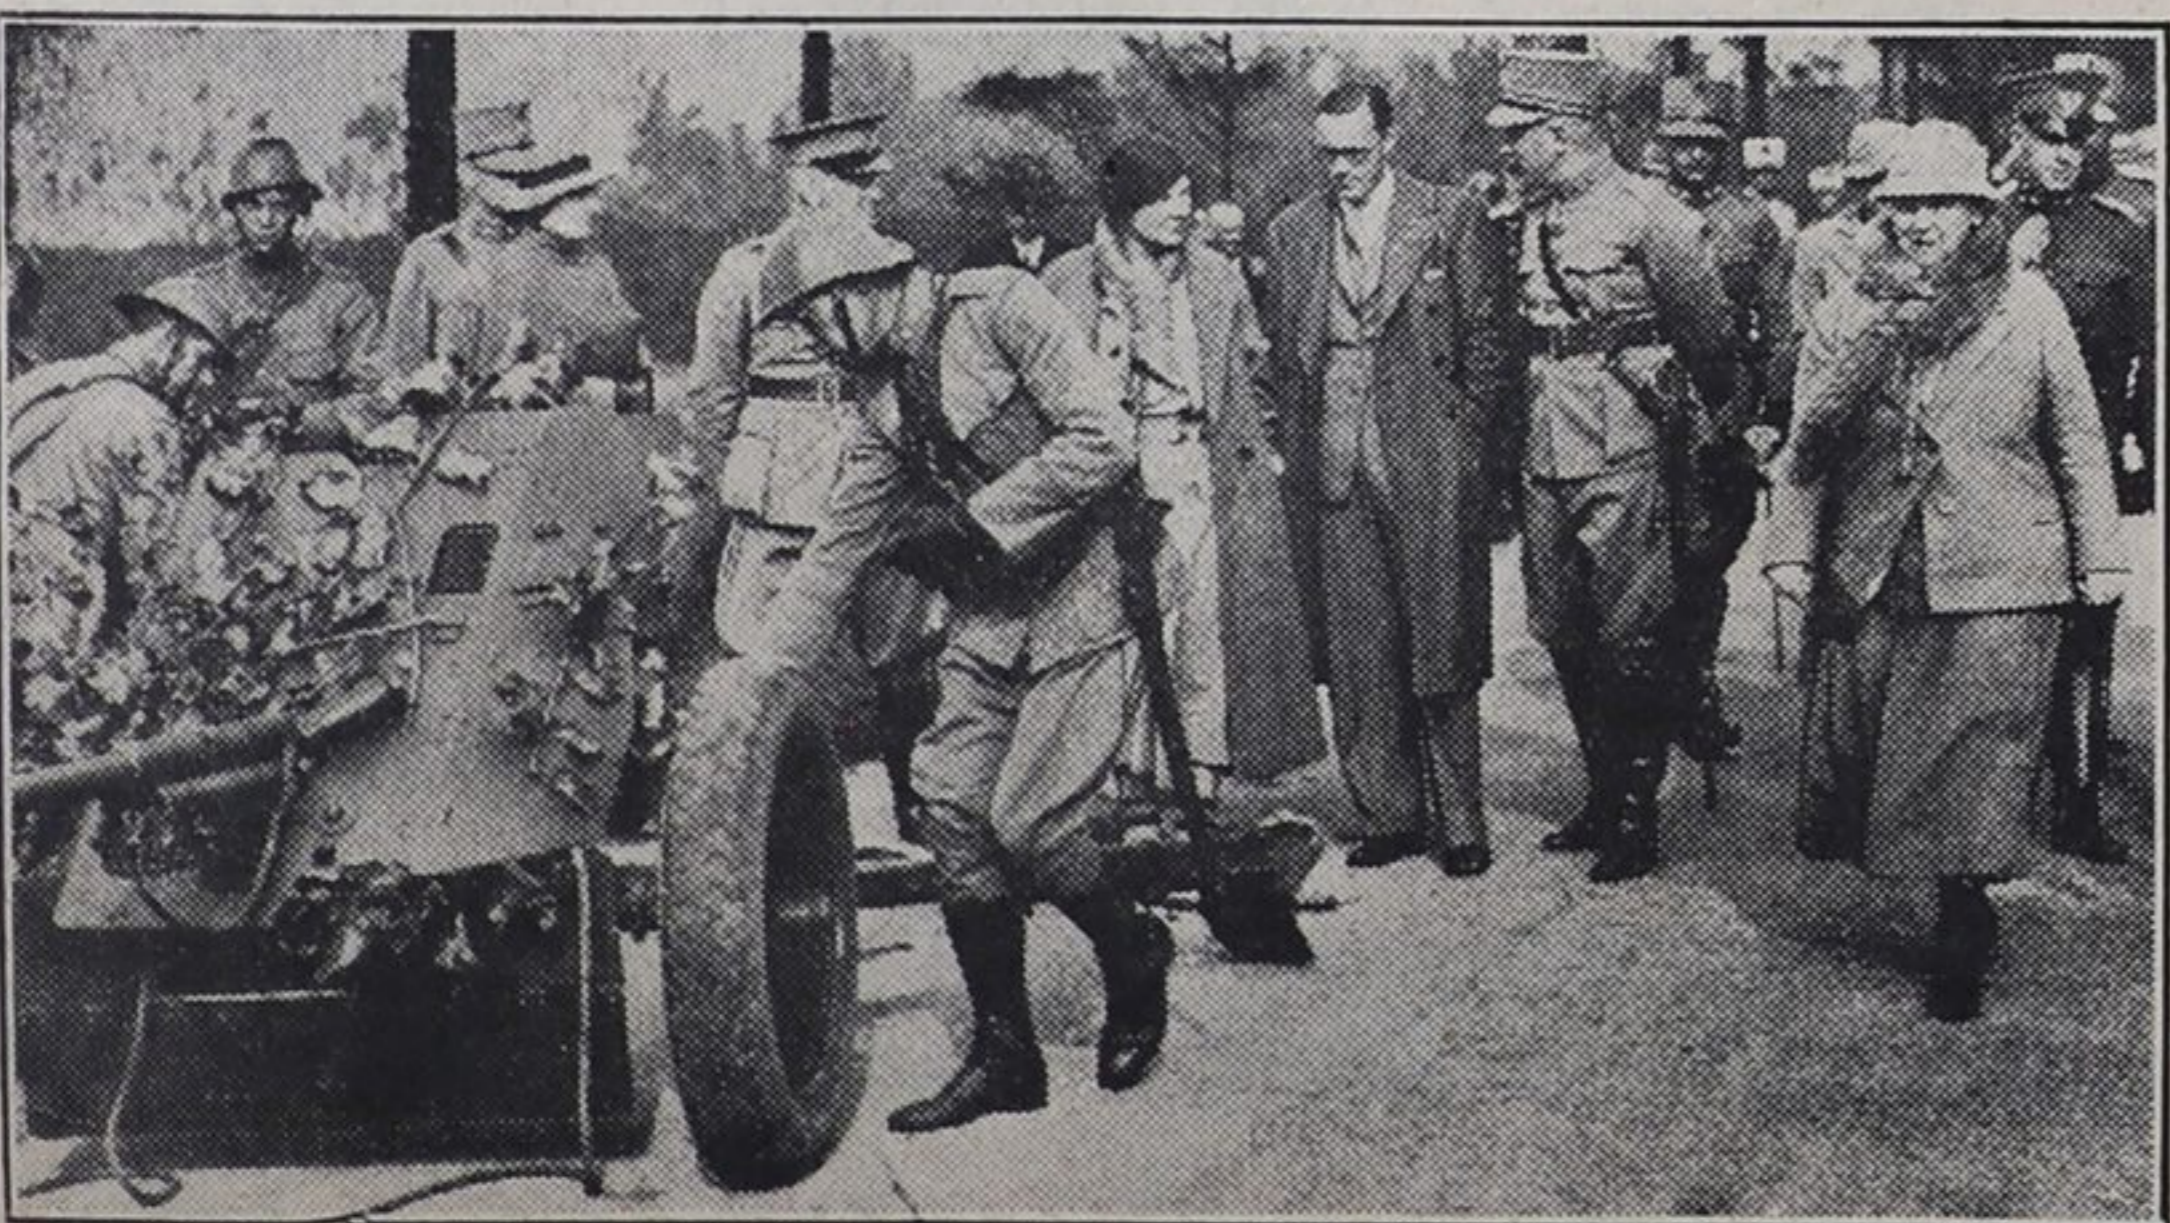

Varsity plunging and kicking half, who has put on about 15 pounds since last season. The Blues' supporters expect great deeds by him this fall.

WHERE THE SHOE PINCHES
There was an old woman who lived in a shoe,
She had so many children she didn't know what to do
—From News of the World, London

ROYAL LOVERS ATTEND ARMY MANOEUVRES

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland (extreme right), accompanied by Princess Julianna and Prince Bernard Zur Lippe Biesterfeld, inspecting a camouflaged light field-piece during army manoeuvres in the southern part of Holland. The engagement of the Princess and the young German Prince was announced recently.