SUCCESSFUL DANCE IS HELD MONDAY NIGHT BY I. O. D. E. CHAPTER HERE

A very successful Christmas dance was held on Monday night by the local chapter of the I.O.D.E., in the Oddfellows' Temple, with a good attendance and everyone having a splendid evening. This was the final event of the Chapter's year, and the officers have asked us to extend sincere thanks to the people of Haileybury for the continued support that has been extended. The kindly co-operation of the people has made it possible for the ladies to carry on their good works. They wish to mention especially Mr. N. D. McIsaac for allowing them to advertise their various dances and street fair on the buses, free of charge, and The Haileyburian for the support and free publicity accorded them during the year.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chapter will be held at Hotel Haileybury on Monday January 4th, at 3 p.m., and the members are requested to be present for nomination of officers. They are also reminded that the annual fees are due and payable now.

Choir Boys Sing Carols at Sunday Evening Service

The congregation of St. Paul's Church greatly enjoyed the singing of Christmas carols by the choir boys at the evening service on Sunday last. There was a good attendance of the boys and their young voices blended nicely in the familiar carols and made a pleasing finish to the services held over the Christmas festival. In an old favorite, "The Three Kings of the Orient," the boys did exceedingly well, three of them, Jack Lishman, Billie Inch and Garnet Ross, each singing a verse as a solo in the order named. As is the custom at Christmas, the open collections that day will be divided among the boys. The congregations were small on account of the rain-storm, but any who wish can still contribute to the fund by either handing their donations to the rector or placing them in special envelopes next Sunday.

STRIKES TIE UP GLASS INDUSTRY

The flat glass industry of the United States is virtually paralyzed as nearly 6,000 workers in plants at Toledo, Shreveport and Charleston are on strike with other strikers who closed down the five plants in Pittsburgh. Wage increases and seniority rights are among the demands made by the strikers of whom are engaged in a sit-down strike at Toledo (above).

Needy Children at North Cobalt Receive Gifts

Ladies of C. C. F. Club Provide Funds From Sale of Tickets on Two Quilts

The sale of tickets on two quilts, made during the past few months by the ladies of the C.C.F. Club of North Cobalt provided funds for the bringing of Christmas cheer to the needy children of the village, according to a report to The Haileyburian by one of the male members of the Club. There were 85 children whose parents had no means of providing toys and other things to make them happy on the great festival, and these would undoubtedly have gone without had not the ladies come to the rescue. There was a ready sale of the tickets among the better-off members of the community and a careful distribution of the proceeds made it possible to care for old people in the township, who all the needy ones.

In addition to providing for boxes were sent to the Hailey-the children, the ladies found it bury hospital as well. All distri-possible to send parcels of butions were made on Wednes-Christmas things to a half dozen day, December 23rd.

Observe Silver Wedding on Christmas Day Here

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Whorley, old residents of Haileybury, celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage, or "Silver Wedding," on Christmas Day at their home here, when a number of friends gathered to offer their congratulations and to wish them many happy returns. They received a number of beautiful presents from friends

In the evening there was a pleasant gathering at the home of Mr. Whorley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Whorley, and among the guests present was Jos. Meredith, who acted as best man for Mr. Whorley at the wedding, which was celebrated at Mattawa on Christmas Day, 1911.

OBITUARY

KEVIN P. O'GRADY

Many Haileybury people learned with regret this week of the death of Kevin Phillip O'Grady, of New Liskeard, which took place in Toronto at the week-end. He was 27 years of age, the son of Mr. Henry O'Grady and the late Mrs. O'Grady, and had spent the greater part of his life in the North Country. He had been ill for a short time previously, suffering from a heart affliction. The funeral was held in New Liskeard on Tuesday morning, with the service in the Roman Catholic Church.

Mr. O'Grady is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Bertha McCurdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCurdy of Haileybury, and one child, aged about three months. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. O'Grady in her bereavement.

JOHN BAKER

John Baker, a resident of Haileybury for some 25 years, died at Misericordia Hospital early on Monday, December 28th, after a long illness. He had been a patient there for a year and eight months, one of his close friends states, and his death was expected.

Mr. Baker was born in England 54 years ago and came to Canada while in his early twenties. He was a miner and worked for many years in Cobalt, having his home in Haileybury, but for several years past he had lived retired. He was unmarried and had no relatives in this country, but is survived by two brothers and a sister in England.

The funeral was held on Tuesday morning from the undertaking parlors of P. H. Perrier to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Rev. R. Haines, rector of St. Paul's Church, conducted the services and the following former friends of Mr. Baker acted as pallbearers: John Gold, John Metcalf, W. H. Rice and Archie McFarlane.

When the Easiest Way Is the Best Way

There are no two ways about it! Certainly the easiest way to get the most for every dollar you spend is to buy products that you know about through the advertisements in your local paper. You don't have to go out and look for buying opportunities. The advertisements bring them to you. And all you need do is consider the facts, compare values and decide on the soap or the sedan that best fits your judgment and your pocketbook.

Certainly the best way of making your money go farthest is to buy merchandise of proved value. Advertised merchandise. Merchandise that is bought and used by many people. Merchandise that must be superlatively good enough for its maker and your local retailer to keep calling it to the attention of people week after week and year after year.

This is the service - of convenience and profit - that the advertisements offer you. It will pay you to read them regularly and take advantage of everything they can do for you!
