GAUNT MOUNTAIN TO DISASTER

Ravaged by fire and flood this gaunt chimney and tangled wreckage of the burned Crosley plant unit at Cincinnati stand as expressive tokens of the terrific toll taken by the Ohio River as it spread over its banks leaving death and destruction in its wake.

FLOOD VICTIMS FIGHT PESTILENCE

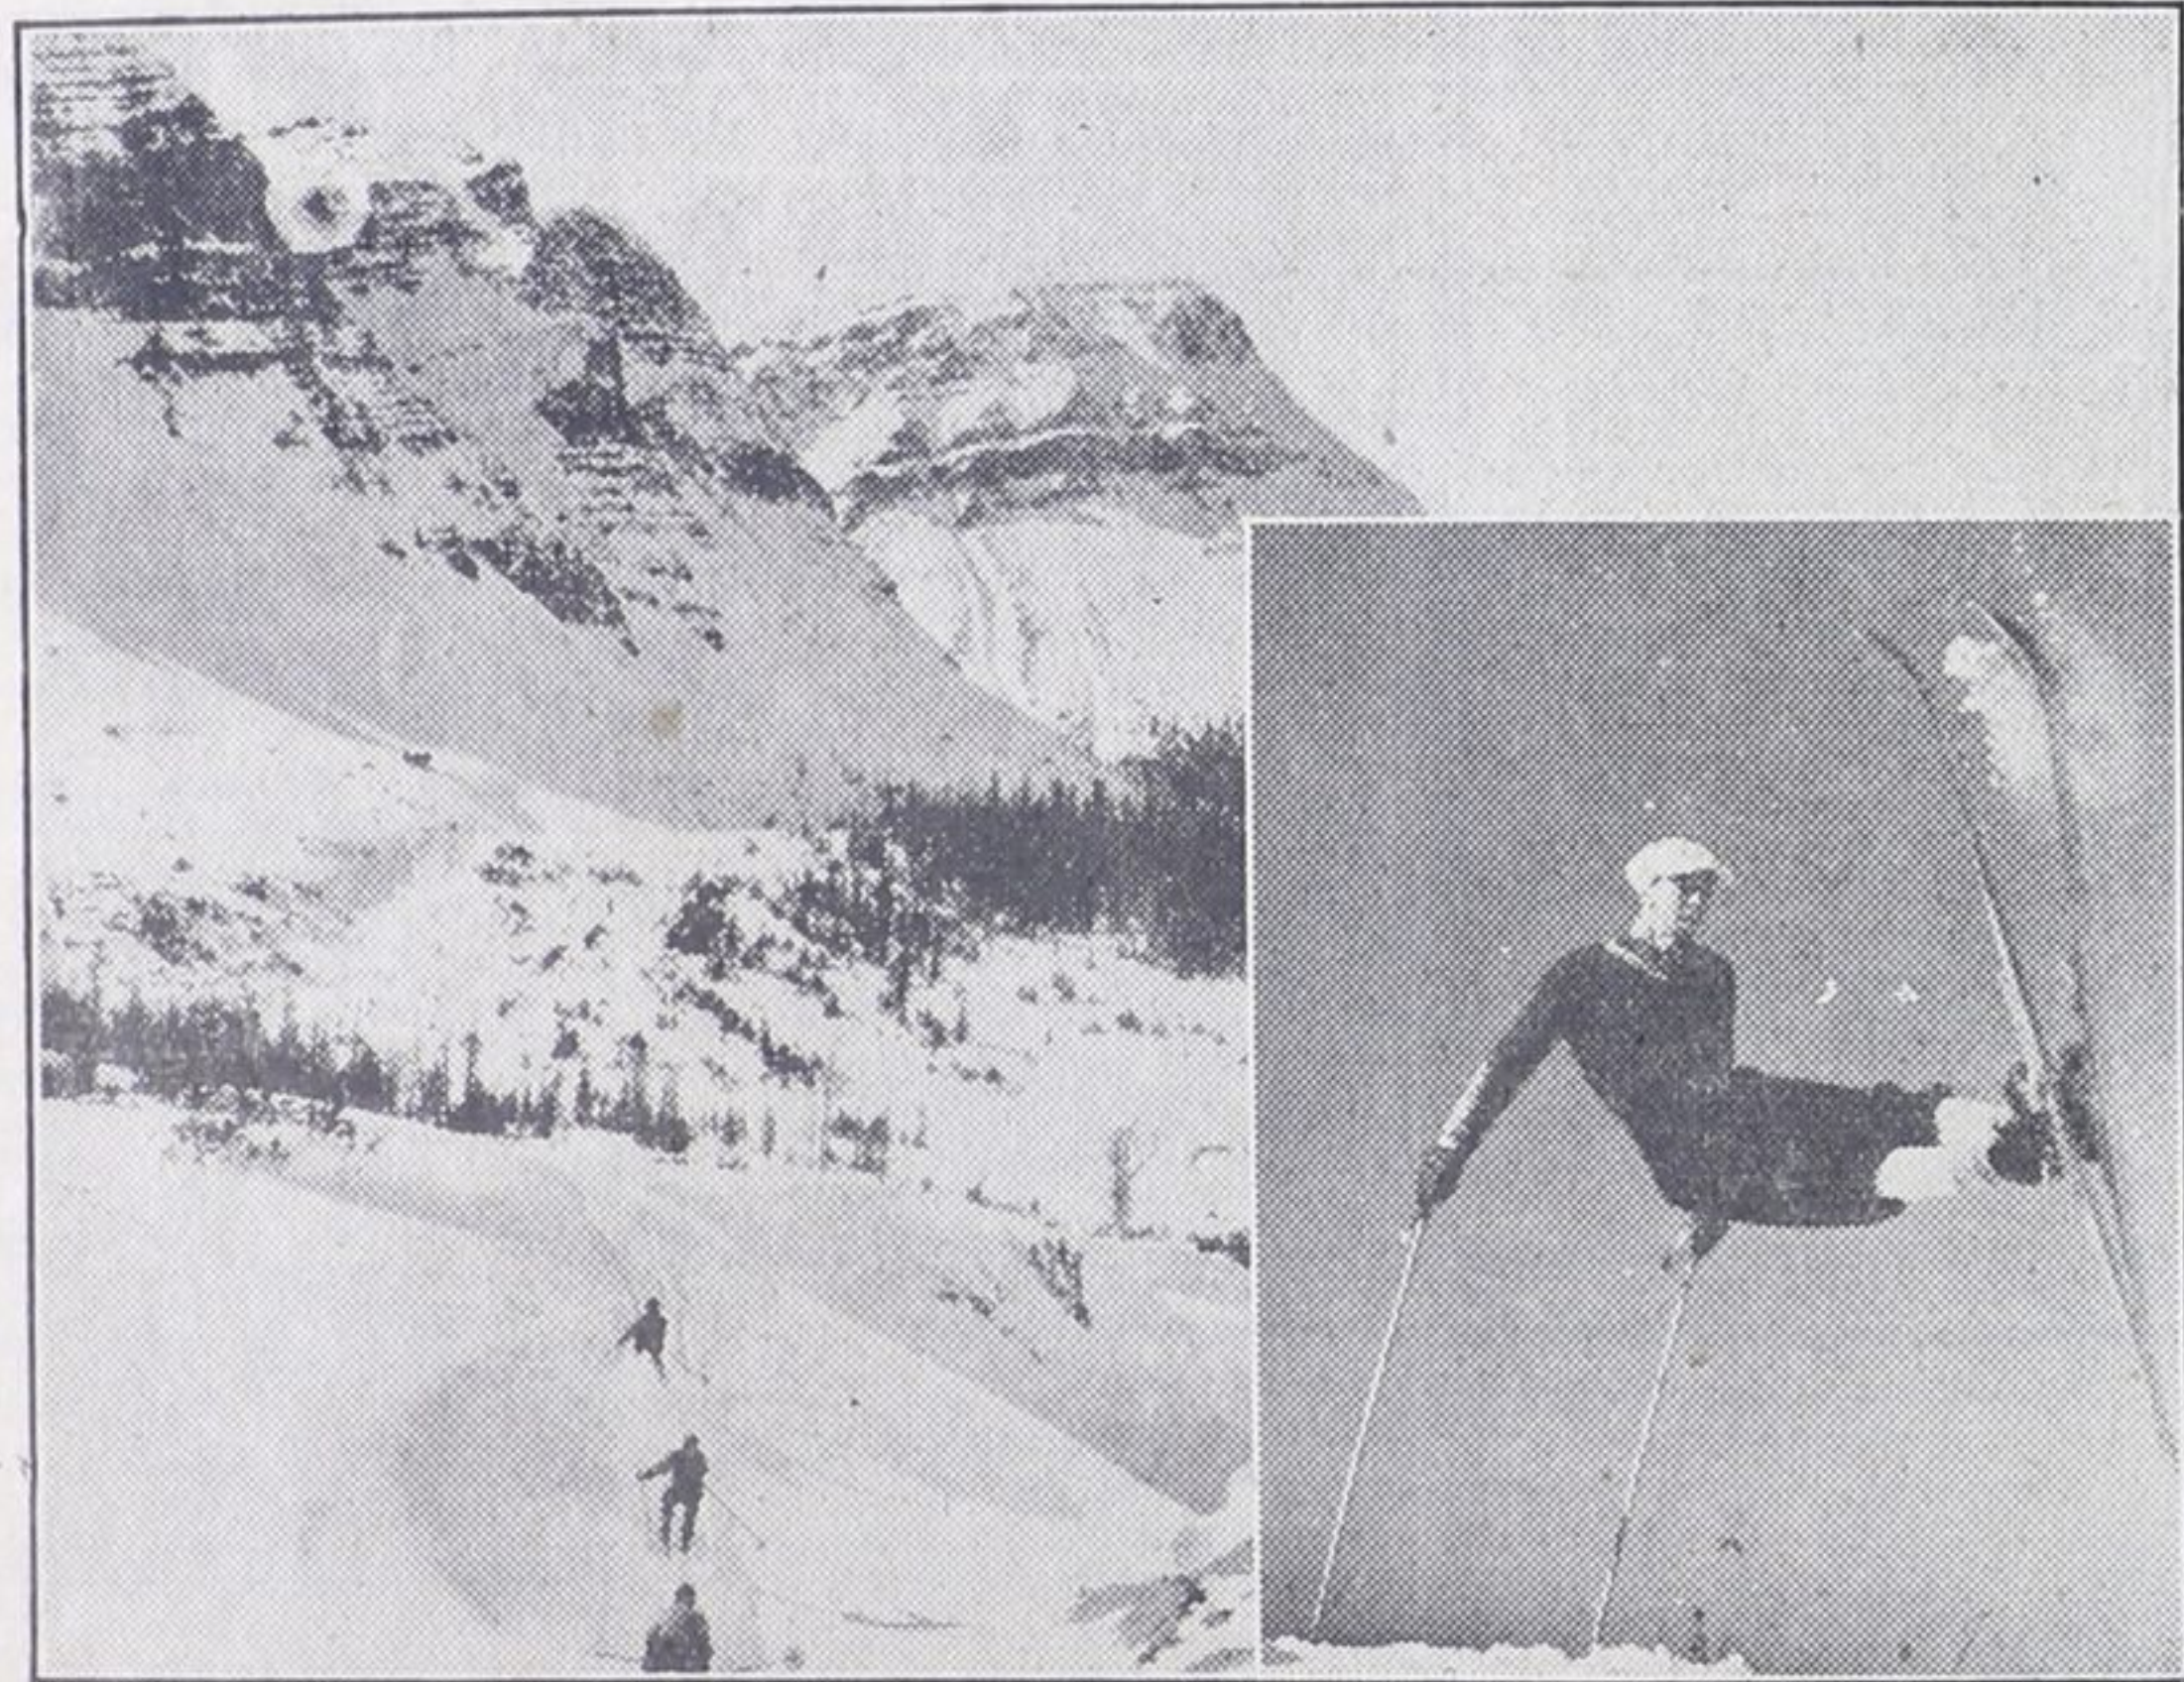

This sign above a Cincinnati emergency cafeteria, warning volunteers to wash their hands in solution, is graphic indication of the precautions taken to avoid a widespread epidemic as a result of unsanitary conditions following the flood.

FAMOUS MOVIE STAR FOLLOWS THE HOUNDS

Following the hunt of Sir Jocelyn Lucas and his pack of seal-hounds at Elstree, England, Miss Ann Harding, the famous film star, is shown above with her daughter, Jean. Miss Harding, who recently married again, was prominent in the news some months ago when she evaded the efforts of her former husband when he endeavored to stop Miss Harding from taking their daughter from the United States.

SKI EXPERTS TO CONTEST CANADIAN CHAMPIONSHIPS IN THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS

This year the Dominion Championships for men of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association will be held from March 5 to 8 on the steep slopes of Mount Norquay near Banff. Situated in a circle of peaks, with almost perfect ski-ing conditions, the steep slopes of the 8,275-foot mountain should provide stiff competition for the experts. Above is apicure of the skiers' paradise and (inset) one of the western stars practicing to get into shape for the annual classic.

PESTILENCE ADDS TO TERRORS OF FLOOD VICTIMS

Their residents forced to flee for their lives before the rushing torrents of the Ohio river, these buildings echo hollowly to the battering forces of the floodtide as it swirls through the deserted streets of Lawrenceburg, Ind., above. One of the most severely stricken of cities along the Indiana border, this distillery centre suffered terrific losses because of its position at the juncture of the Ohio and Big Miami rivers.
