In Memoriam

In loving memory of our husband and father William Short, who died Feb. 6th 1936. As a wonderful husband I think of you In memories that are fond and true.

There wasn't a thing too big or small That you wouldn't try to do for all.

I miss his love, his cheery ways, With him I spent my happiest days.

I miss him when I need a friend, On him I always could depend. 'Tis' sad but true I wonder why The best are always the first to die.

Quickly and quietly came the call, His sudden death surprised us all.

I have lost but God has gained One of the best the world contained.

—Sadly missed by his wife, Beatrice, and sons Edwin and Gordon.

OBITUARY

Frederick A. Kirstine

Word of the death of a former resident of the West Road, near Haileybury, comes this week from Walkerville, Ont., where Frederick A. Kirstine, who farmed in Bucke Township for a number of years, was well known, died on January 26th. He had undergone an operation and failed to rally, according to the report. Mr. Kirstine was in his 68th year. The Walkerville Times says:

"The late Mr. Kirstine was born on the South Line, Brant, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kirstine, pioneer settlers of that section. He received his education there and in early manhood went to New Ontario, where he took up land near Haileybury, and successfully farmed until 1933. In 1922 his home and farm buildings were consumed in the great forest fire, which swept that northern country, but undaunted by the holocaust he remained to rebuild his home and begin again his successful endeavors as an agriculturalist.

Three years ago deceased retired from active life and returned to the scenes of his childhood and since then has made his home with his brother, William, on the South Line. He never married and is survived by four brothers, Messrs. William, Walter and Andrew Kirstine, all of Brant, and David H. Kirstine of Summerland, B.C.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon with service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William

DANIEL A. MYERS

Daniel Albert Myers, well-known employee of the Canadian National Express in the Temiskaming district and who, as a young man, fought on two fronts in the World War, died at the Cobalt Municipal Hospital on Sunday afternoon after an illness of over a month. Stricken with pneumonia in the closing days of last year, he had appeared to be making good progress toward recovery when he suffered a relapse. He was in his 40th year.

Born at Barrie on September 17, 1897, Mr. Myers was a son of the late Samuel Myers and of Mrs. Mary Myers, now of Angus, Simcoe county. The family moved from Barrie to Copper Cliff and then to Cobalt in the earlier days of the silver camp, and the deceased had spent the greater part of his life in Cobalt. During the war, he enlisted in the 228th battalion when that unit was being raised in this district and he served on both the Western Front and in Palestine before returning to Canada.

Associated with the express company for most of his adult life, Mr. Myers was attached to the Cobalt office for years. Latterly, he had been stationed at Swastika, and just before his illness had been acting as express messenger on the run between Swastika and Noranda. For a time, he had been bullion guard on trains operating between Timmins and Ottawa, escorting gold from Porcupine destined for the Mint. Mr. Myers was a member of the Canadian Legion. The funeral on Tuesday was from St. James' Anglican church, with Rev. E. A. Irwin in charge.

Surviving are the widow and two young daughters, Raymonda and Shirley, also his mother, three brothers and one sister, the last named Mrs. George Forbes, of Kirkland Lake. The brothers are Thomas, also of Kirkland Lake, Frank, in Toronto, and Cecil, at Angus. One brother, George, was killed overseas, and a sister, Lizzie, died in Cobalt many years ago.

CHARLES L. BRYDLE

Charles L. Brydle, who came to the Cobalt camp in its earlier days from his native Nova Scotia, died at his home in Cobalt last week-end in his 63rd year. He had been in failing health for four years and had been confined to the house for five months, but the end came suddenly early Saturday morning. Mr. Brydle died in his sleep.

Mr. Brydle, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Brydle, was born at Sonora, Guysborough county, on October 11, 1874. A miner throughout his adult life, he followed that vocation in Nova Scotia before coming to Cobalt 28 years ago, his family following some years later. Mr. Brydle had been employed at many of the mines of the camp, particularly in the Kerr Lake district, where the family lived for years before moving into town. His last active work was on a lease he held there on the Drummond property with James Price.

Surviving are the widow, three sons, Wilbur and Fred, in Cobalt, and Edgar, of Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. James Price, of Cobalt. There are two brothers, Joseph, in Kirkland Lake, and William, in the United States, and two sisters in Nova Scotia, Mrs. C. Chisholm, of Salmon River, and Mrs. John Lintop, Isaac's Harbor. A daughter lost her life in Giroux Lake eleven years ago in a double drowning there. The funeral on Monday was from the Baptist Church, of which Mr. Brydle had been a member. Rev. C. H. Geer, pastor of the congregation, conducting the services there and at the graveside in Silverland cemetery, where burial was made beside the body of his daughter.

Small Girl Fractures Leg While Walking on Skates

Margaret Lyon the small daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Lyon, Browning Street, sustained a fractured leg on Saturday night while walking on the street with her skates on. She had been at a neighbor's place skating on an open air rink, and was coming home before taking off the skates. The injured limb was set by her father and this week she is reported as resting easily at her home.
