Mrs. R. McGillivray has gone to Toronto to be present when her daughter, Miss Dorothy, graduates in the nursing profession at St. Michael's Hospital this evening.

Six degrees of frost was the record at the local meteorological station on the night of May 13th, but there was apparently not much damage done to any crops that had come up.

Among the Haileybury students arriving home for the holidays from university, this week are Bruce Seymour and Clarke Campbell, from the University of Toronto, and Jack Jenkins, from Queen's.

The organization of a new Rotary Club at Englehart was completed on Tuesday, when a number of members of the Haileybury Club visited the railway town. The new club has 17 members and will receive its charter next month.

Prizes for the drawing at the I.O.D.E. Street Fair are now on display at the store of Thorpe & Tulloch Limited. First is a walnut chest, complete; second, a silver tea service with tray, and third a portable electric heater. Tickets may be had from any member of the Chapter. The fair will be held on Wednesday, June 16th.

On Wednesday evening, May 26th, at 8 o'clock in the Cathedral Hall, a Travelogue will be given by Father Pelletier of Rouyn showing 12 reels of charming and colorful scenes of the Orient of outstanding merit. Among these will be the magnificent pageant of the Eucharistic Congress recently held at Manila. Admission 35 cents.

The two simple rules (1) ordinary courtesy and (2) taking enough time to get, at reasonable speeds, from place to place, will cut down the number of highway accidents in this Province.

Funeral of Child is Held From St. Paul's Church Here

The funeral of William James Lingstrom, three and a half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. G. Orr, formerly of Haileybury was held here on Thursday afternoon last. The little boy had died in the Sick Children's Hospital Toronto, following an operation for appendicitis. Besides the sorrowing parents, relatives who were present for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bidgood, the former a brother of Mrs. Orr, Coulson Bidgood, and the Misses Kathleen and Hazel Bidgood, all of whom were at one time residents of Haileybury. The little boy was buried in the old Haileybury Cemetery, beside the grave of his grandmother, the late Mrs. F. C. Bidgood.

OBITUARY

MISS META BRADSHAW

The death of Miss Meta Bradshaw, a resident of Haileybury for the greater part of her life, took place unexpectedly in Misericordia Hospital at midnight on Tuesday, May 18th. Although in poor health for some weeks past, it was only recently that her illness became acute and she went to the hospital a few days previous to her death.

Miss Bradshaw was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bradshaw, who were among Haileybury's early residents. She came here as a young girl and spent the greater part of her life in the community where she was well known to a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. H. A. Day and Mrs. N. C. McVittie, both of Haileybury, and one brother, Robert, of Sault Ste Marie, Ont.

The funeral will be held tomorrow, Friday, afternoon, when service will be conducted in St. Paul's Church by Rev. R. Haines and interment will be made in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

HARRY G. FISHEY

The death of little Harry Fishley, in his 11th year, took place at the Orillia Hospital on Sunday, May 16th, 1937. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fishley.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear daughter, Mrs. Gordon Keech, who died May 21st, 1933.

The month of May brings sad memories

Of one laid to rest.

She will always be remembered

By those who loved her best.

Some may think we have forgotten

When they see us smile,

But they little know the heartache

That hides behind that smile.

—Sadly missed by Mother and Dad,

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Smith

Browning Street, and was born in Haileybury. For the past year or two he had been a patient in the hospital and his death was not unexpected. His mother was called when his illness became critical and his father was summoned from Kirkland Lake, where he is employed, both going with all speed to Orillia.

The funeral was held on Tuesday, with the service conducted by Rev. J. McInnis, formerly of New Liskeard, interment being made in the Orillia Cemetery. Surviving are the sorrowing parents, two small brothers, Billie and Tommy, and one sister, Florence.

JOHN MacKENZIE

Another of the old time residents of Cobalt passed away on Friday last, May 14th, in the person of John MacKenzie, who had come to the once famous silver camp in its early days. He was in his 75th year and had been an employee of the Northern Ontario Power Company for 20 years. In earlier life he had been engaged in the lumbering trade and had lived in Waubashene, Creighton Mines, Chelmsford and Biscotaising before coming to Cobalt.

Mr. MacKenzie was born at Gore of Lachaber, in the Ottawa Valley on the Quebec side of the river, and was the son of early pioneers of that section who had crossed the ocean from their native Scotland in a sailing ship. His wife, who survives him, was formerly Miss Lydia Hardy, also of the Ottawa Valley, and in September last they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. There are four sons and three daughters. The sons are Lorne and Lester of Kirkland Lake, Russell of Jordan, Ont. and Clifford at home; the daughters are Mrs. Bernard Kelly of Liverpool, N.S., and Mrs. Thos. Whitbred and Mrs. A. P. Gribb.

PETER MARTIN

Peter Martin, a veteran of the great war and for many years a resident of this district, died in Misericordia Hospital here on May 14th last, after a lengthy illness. He had lived on a farm on the shore of the Montreal River three miles above Mowatt's Landing, and was well known in that area. He was 63 years old, and is survived by his widow and two adopted children.

Mr. Martin enlisted in the 159th Battalion in Haileybury in the early stages of the great war and served overseas. On his re-
