

Social and Personal

St. Paul's W.A. will hold a rummage sale on Friday, May 12.

Don't forget the play in the United Church on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, April 26 and 27.

Mrs. (Dr.) Young of Iroquois Falls, is in Haileybury this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Cottom.

Miss Gladys Davis arrived home this week after spending the Easter holidays with her sister, Dorothy, in Orillia.

All local schools resumed on Monday after the Easter vacation, with the staffs complete and a good attendance of pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. N. Bell and Mrs. R. C. Lyon arrived home on Friday last after spending several weeks in Florida and other Southern States.

The Clover Valley Women's Institute will hold a dance in the Clover Valley School on Friday evening, April 28th. Admission, 35 cents.

Inspector W. H. Hiscock of Iroquois Falls and Mrs. Hiscock were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Cottom here over the past week-end.

The public is invited to visit the Hobby Fair, held by the Rotary Club for all school pupils, which will be open on Saturday, April 22nd, in the I.O.O.F. hall.

Mrs. Louis Guertin and little daughter, Johanne, are in town this week from Sudbury for a visit with Mrs. Guertin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Levert, Main Street.

John White of the Haileybury Assay Office, with Mrs. White and a couple of friends, left on Saturday for a motor trip to Florida. They expected to be away about a month.

Aluminum parts of an aeroplane found at the week-end on the shore of Lake Ontario, near Port Dalhousie, were believed to have come from the plane in which Bert Ashley and Jack Nichols disappeared in December, 1933, while on a flight from Toronto to Fort Erie.

Entries For Hobby Fair Must Be Made This Evening

Intending exhibitors at the Rotary Club's annual hobby fair are again reminded that all entries should be made this evening at the I.O.O.F. hall, with the exception of those in the cooking classes. The latter will be made tomorrow, Friday, from 7 to 9 p.m. The hall will be open this afternoon from 4 to 6 and this evening from 7 to 9.

On Saturday the exhibition will be open to the public, free of admission charge, from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m., when all parents and friends of the school children who take part in the show will be made welcome. There have been some fine displays of the work of the school pupils in past years and indications are that the present show will be no exception to the rule.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IS SEEN AS POSSIBILITY IN DISTRICT CENTRES

While no definite steps have been taken on the question of daylight saving here for the coming summer months, two public bodies in New Liskeard have gone on record as being in favor of adopting the scheme, provided it could be made general in the three towns. Whether Haileybury and Cobalt will fall in line remains to be seen, as apparently these municipalities have not yet been approached on the subject. The New Liskeard Board of Trade and Kiwanis Clubs are the bodies which favor the measure. They will, it is understood, get in touch with similar organizations in the other towns and the proposal will then be placed before the heads of the three municipalities.

It is several years since there has been daylight saving in this district, but it is evident that there is a substantial number of people who favor it. Of course, there are many opposed as well. The usual objection is the confusion resulting from only some sections of the country adopting the plan. If it were made general throughout the country there should be less objection.

Harry Oakes has presented St. Peter's Anglican Church, Kirkland Lake, with the land on which the church and parish hall stand an area of 200 by 104 feet.

Mrs. John Bayliss Died at Sault Ste Marie Last Night

Mrs. John Bayliss, who for several years past spent a part of her time in Haileybury with her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Leishman passed away last night at her home in Sault Ste Marie, Mich. She was in her 88th year and, although in failing health for some time past, her last illness was only of a week's duration.

Mrs. Bayliss, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth Lothian, was a native of the Ottawa Valley and was descended from pioneer United Empire Loyalist families. Many years ago she went to the Michigan city, where her husband died in 1906. Surviving are four sons and three daughters.

TEMISKAMING MUSIC FESTIVAL RECEIVES TWO HUNDRED ENTRIES

Upwards of two hundred entries have already been received for the Temiskaming Music Festival, which is being held on May 10th and 11th. Although the last day for the reception of entries has passed, we understand the committee will still accept any late entries if they are forwarded without delay to Mr. Earl Bartlett of New Liskeard, the secretary of the festival.

There will probably be 140 voices singing in the massed Choir at the final concert, which will be conducted by Mr. Campion Smith of Toronto, assistant conductor to the famous Mendelssohn Choir. Anyone may sing in the massed choir even if they are not affiliated with any organized choir. Practices are being held in the United Church here every Friday evening at 8.30 and anyone desirous of taking part will be welcome to join with the twenty or thirty people from Haileybury who are learning and preparing the various numbers. The massed choir will sing the well-known Tannhauser march chorus by Wagner, a special arrangement of the Volga Boat Song, an anthem "The King Shall Joy in Thy Strength" by R. H. Unwin and the Hallelujah Chorus by Handel. Copies of the music will be available at the practices which will be under the direction of R. H. Unwin.

OBITUARY

MRS. GEORGE DUKELOW

Relatives and friends here learned late last week of the death of Mrs. George DukeLOW, a former resident of Haileybury, which took place at Menlo Park, California on Easter Sunday. Mrs. DukeLOW had been ill for several years and it was for this reason that she went to the western state some 10 years ago with her husband.

Mrs. DukeLOW, formerly Miss Jane Oliver, was born in Barrie and was a sister of R. J. Oliver of Haileybury, and of the late V. R. Oliver, a well known newspaperman. A sister, Mrs. Alfred Morrison, lives at Elk Lake. Mrs. DukeLOW was a daughter of the late Doctor Llewellyn and Mrs. Oliver, well known residents of Barrie. She lived for some years in Haileybury, was married in St. Paul's Church here by Canon F. H. Hincks and had her home in Elk Lake for a year or two before going to California in the summer of 1929.
