FIRE SLOWS WAR EFFORT

Fire Prevention week concludes on Saturday, so there are still a few days in which to do something towards preventing or at least reducing the great annual waste that has been a drawback to this young country. This year in addition to the regular warnings issued by the government and the fire underwriters, we have had the intimation from higher up that fire on the home front paralyzes the men on the fighting front; and he who burns up time and materials in a Canada at war is menacing our war effort.

So preventing fire becomes more than mere protection of the pocket book or bank account. It is a national duty of the highest importance, and it is not a duty that can be discharged by the mass. Rather it is a job for the individual citizen, and it is not a difficult job at that. It simply calls for continual vigilance on the part of each one of us and the determination never to take a chance with fire. If we make and keep a vow to do our part in prevention, not only during this week but continually, we will be helping to carry out that reconsecration which we undertook only a few weeks ago at the request of our government.

A CURIOUS SITUATION

A curious situation in one of our Ontario districts is revealed in an editorial last week in 'The Burk's Falls Arrow'. The writer expresses himself as worried over the fact that in his vicinity, in Muskoka district, there is a tendency towards what he calls an "infiltration of Germans." Men of that nationality are buying up stores, farms, garages, service stations, etc. There have been many changes in the ownership of local business places, the writer states, and invariably the new owners are people of German extraction. In the surrounding parts of the district it has also been noted that almost all the road contractors have alien names and are of alien birth.

The Arrow editor has no suggestion as to a remedy for the condition, although he admits, he "doesn't like it." He would like to have some investigation made by the authorities, with a view to ascertain whether there is any concerted movement to secure control of that particular district for any ulterior purpose. If what he says is correct, and he can surely size up the situation fairly, it should not be overlooked. Many parts of Canada are too well supplied with alien residents for a country at war, but it is a big problem. People cannot be interned in a wholesale way just because they have foreign-sounding names, but still there should be nothing overlooked at a time when all-out war effort is being urged upon the whole population.

Noted in Passing

The recruiting convoy visiting here over Tuesday night was composed of a well disciplined and well behaved bunch of men, according to opinions expressed by local residents yesterday. They spread around during the evening, a number of them took part in a street dance on Main Street, and later in the Oddfellows' Hall, where a part of the detachment was quartered, mixed in with the local people and in general showed themselves as good soldiers. Their return visit next week will be looked forward to.

And while no direct result of the visit was reported yesterday, so far as Haileybury is concerned, it was stated that three men in Cobalt signed up with the officer in command while the convoy was there on Tuesday afternoon. In Haileybury there are few of the young fellows left, but it was expected that farther north there would be good results from the trip.

For those who did not get a chance to enjoy a little shooting when the partridge season opened on Saturday last, there is the "long week-end" coming, with Monday next being Thanksgiving Day. There will likely be plenty of birds left, as from all directions come reports that they are more numerous than usual this year.

HAILEYBURY SOLDIER ADVISES MOTHER OF SAFE CROSSING

That the company of Royal Canadian Engineers from the North Country, with several boys from Haileybury in its ranks, had arrived safely in Great Britain was the word contained in a cable to Mrs. L. Beaudry here at the week-end, from her son, Fred. The wire simply said that the company had landed, "all well and safe," and was a welcome assurance that another contingent of Canadians had made the perilous crossing. Fred Beaudry, Robert Peter, Bert McNaught, George Mawhinney and Alex Dunn are among the local men in the company.

SET DATES FOR NEXT FESTIVAL OF MUSIC AND ELECT OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of Temiskaming Festival of Music, held Friday, Oct. 3rd, it was decided to hold the next Festival on May 6th and 7th, 1942. It was also decided to have as many classes for boys' solos as for girls' solos instead of just one class for boys. Also there will be a number of classes for boys and girls taught in rural schools.

The financial report showed a balance of $26.94 on hand with no outstanding accounts. The election of officers resulted as follows:

- President—T. Magladery, New Liskeard. Vice-Presidents—Mrs. C. J. Donegan, Cobalt; Miss M. Beals Haileybury; Mrs. W. M. Mitchell, Englehart. Sec.-Treas.—P. R. Craven, New Liskeard.

Postpone Council Meeting To Avoid Holiday Session

The regular meeting of the Haileybury town council, scheduled for next Monday evening, will be postponed to avoid the holding of a session on Thanksgiving, Town Clerk H. Briden said this week. The meeting would likely be put over until Thursday evening, the town clerk said. One item of business will be the setting of a date for the annual Court of Revision to hear appeals against the assessment. A larger number of appeals than usual is in prospect, following the re-assessment of the municipality made during the past summer.

Steel production in Canada during the first seven months of 1941 amounted to 1,345,751 tons as against 1,127,823 tons and 691,290 tons in corresponding periods of 1940 and 1939, respectively.

Canada is now manufacturing glass, in a factory built early this summer near Montreal where skilled Belgian craftsmen who left their own country when it was overrun by the Germans have trained Canadian workmen in the art.

A new style of rivet, perfected in Canada, has a tiny charge of explosive in the end, which is exploded by a rivetting iron and expands, forming a blind head and setting the rivet without the usual hammering.

The hall needs a new rug. More towels are needed for the bathroom and the kitchen floor could certainly stand a coat of paint. The children need shoes. The car will soon need tires. Well, we buy a hundred new things every year.

Scattered throughout Canada are manufacturers who make the very things we need. Their products are on sale in certain stores within easy reach. Certain of these products, and certain of these stores, are especially fitted to take care of our special need. But which products and which stores? Which can we afford, and which do we think best? We must look to advertising for advice.
