

Anglican Laymen Hear Bishop Talk on Advance Appeal

Men From Three Parishes Meet in Haileybury For Planning of Campaign

Laymen of the Anglican parishes of New Liskeard, Haileybury and Cobalt met in the parish hall of St. Paul's church, Haileybury, on Wednesday evening last when they were given an outline of the Anglican Advance Appeal presently being carried out throughout Canada co-incident with other churches. Right Rev. W. L. Wright, Bishop of Algoma who has been visiting this section of the diocese, was present for the meeting, and in an interesting talk to the men gave an address in which he set out the aims and objects of the appeal together with other matters pertaining to the work of the Anglican Church in the territory over which he has charge.

Rev. Stephen Turner of New Liskeard and Rural Dean for Temiskaming, was chairman of the meeting and before introducing His Lordship spoke of the first part of the Advance Appeal made during the past few weeks in the form of visits to every member of the Church of England in the parishes.

In opening his address, His Lordship referred to the fact the meeting was being held on the anniversary of the close of the war in Europe. It was significant he said, that the Advance Appeal co-incident with this anniversary especially as it was planned to take the form of a thank offering and an "expression of our gratitude to God for the victory won." All churches, Bishop Wright said were joining in the movement as a tangible expression of this gratitude, and the spiritual side of the appeal had been taken care of by the visitation.

Explaining the financial set-up of the campaign, Bishop Wright said that an objective of $4,300,000 had been set for the church in Canada. The amount set for Algoma diocese is $73,500, and all parishes and missions have been allotted a certain amount based on their respective abilities. Canada is divided into 27 dioceses, of which 15 are missionary and the balance self-supporting. Algoma is in the mission class, the Bishop said, and receives $12,200 annually from the whole church, while making an annual contribution of $4,600. Of the money to be raised through the appeal, $1,300,000 will go to augment the pension fund, a substantial amount will be allotted to the various mission dioceses and there will also be a portion set aside to help build new churches and provide for young men the opportunity of attending college with a view to entering the ministry.

Part of the fund will go to help restore the bombed churches of Britain, His Lordship said, and at the same time he paid a great tribute to former Prime Minister Churchill and the British people for what had been done during the war years. "We can't sit back and see them struggling towards restoring their churches without extending help, just as they did for many years to the young diocese of Algoma," the Bishop said. He made a strong plea for success in the campaign. "Money is men in action," he said, "and we must not let Algoma fall behind. There is no sounder investment than the souls of the people of this country."

The balance of the evening was spent in discussing plans for the campaign, and those attending were entertained to lunch by the ladies of St. Paul's W.A.

GELAS GUIGNARD HAS LEADING PART ON SUDBURY FIGHT CARD

Local friends of Gelas, or 'Stan' Guignard will be interested in the following item from the North Bay Nugget:

"Stan Guignard, who'll be remembered for the beard he cultivated and the 'chariot' he drove during carnival week last winter steps back into the boxing ring next Wednesday when he meets Wilf Sauve of Sudbury in the main bout of the regular Inco Club fight card.

Guignard, an ex-army heavyweight champ, has fought only once before in Canada, and that was at Camp Borden. Overseas he won a title and took a cup from the Metropolitan Police at Hammersmith, London.

Stan has been training for a week. He runs five miles every morning, works during the day and goes after the punching bag in the evenings. Next Wednesday's bout will be his first since his discharge from the army."

New Liskeard's "grand old man," Thomas McCamus, celebrated his 88th birthday on Monday. He came to the district in 1896 and was one of the principals in the formation of the present Northern Telephone Company Limited.

Society Honors Quebec Woman on Mothers' Day

Mrs. Alex. J. Rioux, Mother of Fifteen and Sister of Resident of Haileybury

Mrs. Alex. J. Rioux, whose home is in a suburb of Quebec City and who is a sister of Sergeant-Major Albert Tessier of Haileybury, was signally honored at a meeting of the St. Jean Baptiste Society, held in Quebec on Wednesday last, May 8, as a pre-observance of Mother's Day. She was presented with the "Merit of Motherhood," an award of the Society which includes a silver medal and a written testimonial of service.

Mrs. Rioux, whose husband is director of agricultural clubs in the province of Quebec, is the proud mother of 15 living children. Mr. Rioux sometimes visits in this part of the North Country on his various trips into Northwestern Quebec, and Sgt.-Major Tessier is a member of the Algonquin Regiment (R) with company headquarters at the Haileybury Armories.

The meeting at which the presentation to Mrs. Rioux was made was held in the Victoria hotel and was attended by about 150 members of the society and guests. Among the latter was Major Abbe Edouard Froidure of Brussels, Belgium, and principal chaplain of the Belgian armies. Lady Eugene Fiset, wife of the Lieutenant Governor of the province, made the presentation on behalf of the Lieutenant Governor, and Mrs. Rioux received many congratulations and good wishes from the gathering.

LOCAL POLICE COURT HAD SHORT SESSION OF FIFTEEN MINUTES

Having liquor in his possession not purchased on his individual permit was responsible for the imposition of a fine of $100 and costs against Albert Beaulieu of Rouyn, Quebec, when he appeared before Magistrate Atkinson in weekly police court at Haileybury on Friday last. He had been arrested in New Liskeard by Chief J. J. Evers. A love for strong drink also proved disastrous to Simon Lebreche, who appeared at the same court to answer a charge against Walter a fine of $10 and costs in each case, and one of driving a car case, and made up the short do-ness. He was given three months in the district jail. A plain against Regine Montany brought session lasted just 15 minutes.

"THAT'S A LOAD OFF MY MIND!"

Mrs. Mason's husband gets his pay in cash. Since he's working all day, his wife banks it for him, and she says she's always jittery 'til she gets it safely there. And her brother, who runs a store, says he worries too about the money from the cash register! Safeguarding your money is one of the prime services rendered by your bank.

What a relief it is when you have deposited your money in the bank! No more worry lest it should be lost or stolen! You need only keep a little ready cash in your pocket or in the house. Bills can be paid by cheque and your cancelled cheque is your receipt.

When the teller hands you your pass book, you glance at the balance and know to a cent how much money you have. You are so accustomed to your bank's accuracy that you seldom bother to check the figures.

The very fact that you—and some 5,000,000 others—take all these conveniences as a matter of course is a daily demonstration of your confidence in the dependability and efficiency of your bank.
