Late Dan McGillis Was Old Timer of Cobat Camp

Dan McGillis, one of the old-timers of the Cobalt camp, died last week at his home in Port Hope, Ont., according to word reaching local friends. He had been in hospital in Toronto, going home a short time before his death.

Mr. McGillis was at one time mill superintendent at the Keeley mine in South Lorrain, and he had gone to Port Hope to take charge of the refinery previous to its establishment. He had continued as superintendent until his health failed. He is survived by his widow, the former Marie Lacourse, well known in Haileybury as a telegraph operator for the T. & N.O. Railway, and a family of young children.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of a little son and brother, Arthur Harold Nelson, who passed away May 11, 1926. Somewhere back of the sunset Where loveliness never dies, He lives in the land of Glory, 'Mid the blue and gold of the skies. Some day we hope to meet again, Some day, we know not when, To clasp his hand in a better land, Never to part again.

In loving memory of our husband and father, John W. Childs, who passed away one year ago, May 19, 1945. They say time heals all sorrow And helps us to forget; But so far has only proven How much we miss you yet; God gave us strength to bear the blow But what it meant to lose you so No one will ever know.

In loving memory of our husband and father, John Childs, VGOC, who died May 19, 1945. However long our lives may last, Whatever lands we view, Whatever joy or grief be ours, We will always think of you. GOLDIE and ERIC CHILDREN—In loving memory of a dear uncle, Private John Childs, VGOC, who died May 19, 1945. There is a mother who misses you sadly And finds the time long since you went And I think of you daily and hourly, But try to be brave and content. But the tears that I shed are in silence And I breathe a sigh of regret, For you were mine and I remember Though all the world forget.

WILEY—BYRNE

Rev. Father Oliver in Holy Rosary Church, officiated at the marriage of Norah Elizabeth Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Byrne, and Douglas Lowe Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Wiley, London, Ont. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of embroidered bengaline fashioned with portrait neckline and full chapel train. A Mary, Queen of Scots, headdress caught her veil of Irish lace. She carried a bouquet of cream roses and white spring flowers. Miss Dorothy Byrne, maid of honor, Miss Margaret Klersy and Miss Sheila Erenhaus, bridesmaids, were gowned in clover pink marquisette, with Mary Queen of Scots, headdresses. They carried nosegays of spring flowers. The groomsmen were Arthur Wiley, Jr. At the reception, the bride's mother received in dove gray crepe gown with fuschia accessories with a spring corsage, assisted by the groom's mother in pale blue crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of pink and blue spring flowers. The bride chose, for travelling to New York, a honey toned suit with lynx trim and brown accessories. The couple will reside in Peterboro.

discovery, said it was not badly damaged and was driven home under its own power, but there was no clue to the identity of the person who had taken it.

Chief Watson said this week that there had been another attempt at a break-in, which had not been successful. This was at the nurses' residence just west of the hospital, where someone was seen trying to enter the building late at night. The police were notified, but the would-be burglar had made off before they could reach the scene.

Owner of the car which disappeared on Friday evening is Alphonse Allard, a driver for the McIsaac Transportation Company. He had left it at the bus terminal on Rorke avenue, in charge of Walter Stevens, and although it was not there when Mr. Allard finished his last run of the night, he merely thought Mr. Stevens had not brought it back. However, the next morning it was realized that it had been stolen and both local and provincial police were notified. The car was found on Saturday night at West Cobalt, where it had got caught in a pile of lumber and been abandoned. Provincial constable S. Berard, who made the
