Noted in Passing

The Haileyburian, publishers and staff, enjoyed last week free from the daily grind and to say that the holiday was a very pleasant one is to put it mildly. It is hoped that the delay in the usual service caused no great inconvenience in the community, and to those of our customers who had to wait a bit longer for their goods we extend sincere thanks for their patience. It will be a year before it happens again, as far as can be foreseen, and the customary facilities at the office will be available continuously.

Part of the holidays was spent in travelling, and the one feature of the country covered that is particularly noticeable this year is the bountiful crop that is being harvested or waiting to be taken care of. In all sections passed through on the trip the farmers appear to be having a real inning, while in the towns and villages there is abundant proof of healthy growth in the gardens, and in some places the orchards. With the continued scarcity of food in the war-torn countries, this province will be able to take care of a large part of the country's share in provided the needed supplies.

Not the least interesting event of the trip was the fact that we had the opportunity of sitting in on a reunion of two old timers who had travelled together over "the Trail of '98" to the Klondike and were having their first get-together in 40 years. It was a treat to hear them recall their varied experiences during the famous gold rush and since those days. One of the pair was Ed. Lothian of Vancouver, who had searched for silver in the Cobalt area shortly after the first discovery, without much success, according to his own accounts, and the other was Jos. E. Bayliss of Sault, Mich., and Richard's Landing, Ont., who has been in Haileybury at odd times to visit his sister, Mrs. J. T. Leishman. He is a former sheriff of the Michigan city. Mr. Lothian is the father of George Lothian, chief pilot for the Trans-Canada Air Lines, who had treated him to a trip east by air. They were having a grand time going over their earlier experiences.

pected to rejoice over the recent action of the government in granting amnesty to some 14,000 deserters and absentees from the services, even if some money is being saved by the discontinuance of efforts to round them up. They feel that these men should have been forced to do their share of the fighting, or take the punishment that is coming to them. However, there is nothing that can be done about it.

PUPILS OF DISTRICT AWARDED PRIZES IN BIG POSTER CONTEST

Pupils in schools of this district, under Inspector J. L. Runnalls, were awarded several prizes in the Fire Prevention Poster Contest sponsored by the Department of Lands and Forests. The contest was open to pupils in grades VII and VIII in all public and separate schools in the northern districts. The prizes were: 1st, $15; 2nd, $10; 3rd, $5; consolation prizes, $1, all in war savings certificates and stamps.

Winners in the district were: 1st, Lee Sweetnam of New Liskeard public school; 2nd, Verna Gibbons of Englehart public school; 3rd, Violet Rozell of Barber and Cane school area. Consolation prizes went to Georgette Cayen of Englehart, Georgina Bernache of S.S. No. 2, Lorrain south, Marjorie Eplett of New Liskeard, Leonard Allen of Hilliard township school area, Elizabeth Baxter of New Liskeard and Lorne Othmer of Cobalt public school.

In an effort to raise $2,000,000 for maintenance and expansion next year, the Salvation Army 1946 campaign will be inaugurated across Canada on Sunday September 15.

Two War Brides Included Among Recent Arrivals

Two war brides for this district are included among recent arrivals from overseas, according to lists sent from headquarters of Military district No. 2 during the past week. They are Mrs. Patricia Maurice, wife of Gnr. A. Maurice of North Cobalt, and Mrs. Mary Cook, wife of Gnr. S. R. Cook of Cobalt. Mrs. Maurice was accompanied by her young son, Pellatt, aged three years. She came on the Queen Mary, while Mrs. Cook crossed on the Aquitania.

LIVE AND LAUGH

Laughter, recreation and amusement are tonics for mind and body alike, and the department of National Health and Welfare suggests clean, healthful fun should form part of everyone's way of life. Centuries ago, many people believed it was sinful to laugh or have fun. Today, we know that "moroseness and gloom are often the handmaidens of illness and decay."

CLEAN LIVING

If you want to see how surroundings can affect you, just pass from a crowded, noisy city street into a quiet suburban area with trim lawns, cosy residences and tidy yards. This, at least, urges all Canadians, for health's sake, is the advice of the department of the environment in which they live and work.

THE CO-OPERATION between the Bank of Nova Scotia and many of the business firms it is privileged to serve is like the teamwork between engineer and conductor.

The client controls the run, calls the stops and starts, takes the fares and records the progress. The Bank of Nova Scotia provides financial motive power, avoids delays, watches the road ahead and observes the fiscal block signals. In any business, success depends a good deal on timing. Timing is largely a matter of good teamwork—and it helps a lot to have a bank in which you can have complete confidence. The manager of the nearest Bank of Nova Scotia branch would like to talk it over with you. Let's do it together!

Nature Unspoiled YOURS TO ENJOY YOURS TO PROTECT. "THE KING'S HIGHWAY" Based upon a picture painted for Carling's by Fred Finley, O.S.A. This is one of a series of illustrations on the subject of the Conservation of Canada's natural assets designed to emphasize the fact that the beauties of unspoiled nature that we enjoy today are a precious birthright which we must protect for tomorrow. "They Eat Out Of Your Hand"

The spotted deer of Northern Ontario come stalking cautiously out of the vast forest which is their home, to stare with wondering brown eyes at the road man has cut through the wilderness. They rub velvety horns against signposts that read "The King's Highway", and they are not afraid, for they have never even heard the crack of a rifle. If you offer them food they will take it, timidly, right out of your hand.

They are part of the vast heritage of wild life and forest beauty with which we Canadians are endowed, and in their very trustfulness is a plea for protection—against the hazards of fire—of predatory animals—of indiscriminate hunting by ourselves.

As new branches of the King's Highway open up, bringing more and more of Canada's beautiful forest land within reach of the city dweller, it becomes increasingly important that each one of us understand the laws and rules of conservation, for only by so doing can we protect and preserve our heritage.

Every Canadian, as a shareholder in Canada's natural wealth, has a vital interest in the conservation of this heritage. Conservation is not just a doctrine to be preached to hunters and fishermen. It is a vital part in the continuance of our national economy, and must, of necessity, fail if its measures do not receive the full support of all Canadian citizens.
