In Memoriam

In loving memory of E. E. Sutherland, who departed this life June 9th, 1947, at Virginiatown.

Remembrance is a golden chain, Death tries to break, but all in vain; To have, to love, and then to part, Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. Sunshine passes; shadows fall. Love's remembrance outlasts all; From Memory's page time cannot blot The little words: Forget-me-not.

MRS. CHARLES PIRIE

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Pirie, who died on Thursday morning last, was held on Friday, June 6, from the United church, North Cobalt. Interment was in Mount Pleasant cemetery, Haileybury.

The late Mrs. Pirie was born at South March, Carlton township, the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dennison, on March 19, 1879. She married Charles Pirie of Strichen, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, on October 26, 1898 at Cashman Memorial church, Hull, Que., and for 12 years resided in Eardley township in Quebec, moving to North Cobalt, in 1910, where she has resided ever since, except for nine years, when the family resided in Lorrain Valley.

The late Mrs. Pirie is survived by her husband, and her seven sons and two daughters: William T., Larder Lake; Charles G. and Harold S., Toronto; Russell H., Lorrain Valley; Mrs. Gordon Loach, Kirkland Lake; Clifford, Florence and Gordon, at home; and Lloyd E., of Matachewan.

One son, Earl, died in infancy, 37 years ago. The late Mrs. Pirie is also survived by three sisters, three brothers, seventeen grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. W. Bingham, from the United church, North Cobalt, to Mount Pleasant cemetery, Haileybury. A short service was held in the home for the immediate family. Members of the L.O.B.A. 175, of which the late Mrs. Pirie was an honorary and only charter member, met at the church, and conducted the service at the graveside. Tulloch's Funeral Home had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Pallbearers were six of the late Mrs. Pirie's sons. Among the out-of-town mourners attending were Mrs. Pirie's sisters, Mrs. J. Rusenstrom of Maniwaki, Que., Mrs. J. W. Bradley, Harris township, and a brother, Mr. W. Dennison, South Hull, Que.

A great profusion of floral tributes and many messages of sympathy testified to the esteem in which Mrs. Pirie was held by all who knew her.

WEDDING BELLS

TRESSIDER—HELLENS

St. George's Anglican church at North Cobalt was the scene of the marriage of Miss Marjorie Grace Hellems, daughter of Mrs. Hellems and the late Dan Hellems of North Cobalt, and George Tressider, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tressider of Cobalt. The bride is a former employee of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Haileybury and her many friends in the community join in extending best wishes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John H. Watson of St. James' church, Cobalt, and the bride's attendant was Mrs. Gordon Hellems, recently arrived from England. Ralph Crooks of North Cobalt was the best man and the bride was given in marriage by her brother, A. D. Hellems of Haileybury, at whose home the reception was held. The young couple left for a motor trip to Southern Ontario, and will have their home in North Cobalt. The wedding was only the second to be held in the church in the past 22 years, the first being held soon after the building was erected.
