Friday the 13th Lucky for Only Two Defendants

Twenty-Seven Cases on List, Chiefly Traffic and Liquor Offences

There were 27 cases on the docket in Haileybury police court last Friday and only two defendants had reason to believe that "Friday the 13th" was a lucky day for them.

Angus McDonald of Englehart, who pleaded guilty to having liquor which had not been purchased from a licensed vendor, was fined $100 and costs or three months in jail.

Albert Labonte was given the alternative of a fine of $10 and $8.50 costs or ten days when he was found guilty of careless driving. Three Englehart policemen testified that they had attempted to pass Labonte on Highway No. 11 and that the accused had been swerving over to his left-hand side of the road when he approached them, had cut over so far that the police car had been forced out onto the shoulder of the road.

Labonte told the court through an interpreter that he had been sleepy and he might have gone over the white line, but that he wasn't drinking. He said he couldn't remember forcing anyone off the road. J. A. Legris, K.C., was counsel for accused. In summing up the case Crown Attorney Howard Walter said that the man was apparently driving without due care and attention or reasonable thought for others using the highway.

Miss Persis Hebden, A.T.C.M.

travelling representative of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, will arrive in Haileybury today to visit music teachers and others interested in musical education.

A personal summons was ordered for George Hastings of New Liskeard, accused of assault. A summons had been left with his wife, but Hastings failed to appear and the case was adjourned until next week.

Five men, charged with having liquor in a public place, were given the usual fine of $10 and

Old Metal Tag Puzzles Present-Day Residents

An old metal tag, evidently used by the municipality of Haileybury back in 1911 and which was found by L. W. Herron a few days ago, has so far proved a puzzle to present-day residents of the town. It was found imbedded in the earth of Ian D. MacDiarmid's garden on Probyn street.

the number 136. Perhaps some of the oldtimers can recall its use.
