CLOTHESLINE ROBBER ABROAD IN TOWN AND WARNING IS ISSUED

Chief of police K. R. Watson reports this week that a clothesline robber had been active in town during the past week, and several garments have disappeared from the lines at night. The losses, while not especially heavy, cause plenty of inconvenience, and a thief of this nature is not easy to catch, the chief says. He asked The Haileyburian to warn local residents of the presence of the petty thief or thieves and advises them to leave nothing out overnight on their lines. It is several years since this kind of theft was reported in Haileybury.

Kirkland Lake Engineer Awarded Coix de Guerre

Vernon Castle Davis, Kirkland Lake, has been awarded the Croix de Guerre by the French government. He was one of 17 Canadians honored by the French in recognition of action during the liberation of France.

Mr. Davis, who served as corporal of the Royal Canadian Engineers, was in the service for 5 years. He was severely wounded the D-day invasion of France in 1944.

A naturist (nudist) camp has been discovered by the North Bay Nugget, 20 miles from that city.

If your mail box will save time we're interested!

Did you ever find that there were days when you really wanted to get to the bank, and couldn't? Days when extra work or bad weather forced you to delay a trip to town?

It's at times like this that The Bank of Nova Scotia's "Banking by Mail" service is particularly convenient—it's like bringing the Bank to your door! Next time you are in the Bank, ask the Manager for the simple details of how you can deposit and withdraw money by mail.

MISS FAYE MERKLEY GUEST OF HONOR AT PLEASANT SHOWER

Miss Faye Merkley, whose marriage to Mr. Lloyd Hammond will take place on Saturday, July 23rd, was guest of honor at a shower on Wednesday last, given by Mrs. Murray Merkley of Haileybury. Friends from New Liskeard, Haileybury and Cobalt were present.

The bride-to-be received a host of beautiful gifts and was assisted in opening them by Betty Stevens. Cards and general sociability contributed to a pleasure-filled evening. A love story comic book, which was composed of clippings, representing the adventures of married bliss was presented to Faye, and the stories it told created plenty of laughter.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. T. E. McEwen of Cobalt. The guest of honor thanked her friends for the beautiful gifts also the hostess for the very enjoyable evening.
